PRESENTATION TO MAJOR GIBSON.

Yesterday afternoon a special meeting of the Real Estate Exchange was held in the offices of Mr. David H. Hays, when a very pleasing little event took place. Major George E. Gibson, one of the members of the exchange, was presented with a handsome office clock by the president, Mr. Hays, on behalf of the members for his kindness and courtesy in permitting the meetings of the exchange to be held at all times in his office. Major Gibson, although being taken completely by surprise at the thoughtful action of his fellow members, made a graceful and suitable reply in returning thanks.

AMATEUR PERFORMANCE BY BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD PROVES A SUCCESS

Those Who Saw "Our Boys" Were Delighted With the Plot and Playing---Amateurs Displayed Amazing Skill---Great Credit is Due Mrs. Chisholm

Last evening the performance of the popular comedy, "Our Boys," by the Baptist Brotherhood at the Westholme Opera House proved to be a most successful entertainment. Despite the stormy night, there was a good attendance, and everybody in the house went home satisfied that they were more than repaid for facing the inclement weather. Great credit is due to Mrs. J. Chisholm for the energy, work and skill she devoted to her task of directorship, which produced such excellent results.

Space forbids more than slight mention of the splendid work of the players.

C. R. Simpson and Robert McIntosh, in the strong character parts of the two old fathers, Sir Geoffrey Champneys and Perkin Middlewick, were every bit as good as professionals, carrying their parts consistently through and convulsing the house at times with their natural and unaffected acting.

Charles Middlewick, the handsome, breezy son of the old butlerman, was played capably by Adair Cars, who made a most good looking and attractive lover.

Frank Ellis in the part of the la-di-da son of the old aristocrat, who was considered by everyone the fool of the family, could not have been excelled, his every word and action being an artistic study.

The two girls, Violet and Mary Melrose, had charming and accomplished representatives in Miss Fisher and Miss Margaret McDonald, who both acted in a finished and assured style, as if in a private drawing room.

Of Mrs. Jack Chisholm's impersonation of the aristocratic old maid words fail to express the excellence of the characterization.

It had to be seen to be appreciated.

The famous third act, showing the attic of a cheap London lodging house, gave Miss Annie Brown her chance, and she was not slow in taking advantage of it. Both in make-up and in acting she was the typical London slavey, the historical "Belinda" to the life.

Unquestionably the play was a great success, the continuous ripple of amusement and tense interest shown by the audience attesting to this fact.

After the performance the Brotherhood gathered in Knott's Bakery, where a pleasant little supper was spread for them.

Roche's Big Basement Pool Room is being enlarged and is now one of the most comfortable places in town. Nothing too good for the patrons of 235 Roche's Pool Room.

TURKEY GIVEN TWO DAYS IN WHICH TO MAKE THE REFORMS

BALKAN STATES ISSUE ULTIMATUM GIVING TURKEY FORTY-EIGHT HOURS IN WHICH TO MAKE REFORMS IN MACEDONIA—GREECE WILL ALSO FIGHT TURKEY.

(Special to Daily News.)

London, Oct. 2.—With the exception of Roumania, all the countries surrounding the troubled Balkan states are putting their armies on a war footing to be prepared for trouble.

It is stated that the Balkan states have issued an ultimatum to Turkey demanding the reforms they desire in Macedonia within forty-eight hours.

Reports from Greece say that Turkey has decided to seize all the Greek vessels in Turkish waters. This has a decidedly warlike appearance and is considered to be likely if further reports of the annexation of Crete by Greece are true. Turkey has repeatedly declared such an action would mean immediate war.

FAMED LAWYER IS IN RUPERT

Mr. J. B. Pattullo, Formerly Prosecutor for Yukon, is in Prince Rupert Visiting Brother.

Mr. J. B. Pattullo, brother of T. D. Pattullo of this city, arrived yesterday from the North on the City of Seattle and is spending a day with his brother, proceeding on to Vancouver, where he now resides, tonight.

Mr. Pattullo, who was an old timer of the North from the early days of the first gold rush, practiced law for a number of years in the gold metropolis, latterly being Crown prosecutor until he left the territory.

His visit to Dawson this summer was caused by his being engaged upon an important civil law case, Peter Rost vs. A. N. C. Treadgold, the well known concessionaire, whose name was so prominently connected with the days of the historic Treadgold concession.

The case was finished before Mr. Pattullo left, judgment being reserved. Mr. Pattullo, who has passed up and down this coast numbers of times since going North, generally stopping off at Prince Rupert, remarked on stepping on to the dock yesterday that it was the first time in his memory upon arriving here he ever found it raining.

Corbett, who was the cleverest boxer the ring ever knew, earned for himself by his excellent style and manner the title "Gentleman Jim." He secured the championship by defeating John L. Sullivan, and lost of Bob Fitzsimmons. He tried to regain it, without success, from Fitzsimmons, and again from Jeffries when he took it from Fitzsimmons.

MINTO CUP TO STAY IN WEST

New Westminster Defeated Cornwall by 15 Goals to 7 Yesterday for Minto Cup.

(Special to Daily News.)

New Westminster, Oct. 1.—In a ragged game today, in which, however, some excellent brand of lacrosse was at times displayed, New Westminster, holders of the Minto cup, emblematic of the world's championship, defeated Cornwall, winners of the N. L. U. championship, and challengers for the trophy, by 15 goals to 7.

The game took place on Queen's Park oval, where the exhibition is in progress, and was attended by many thousands. The speed and style of play of the champions was bewildering to the challengers, who, however, succeeded in gaining seven goals and in trying Clark many times with hot shots.

The next game will be played next Saturday, and while the game will no doubt be closer, those who witnessed the first match have no hesitation in pronouncing the Royals the winners.

INSURANCE MEN ORGANIZE NEW FIRE UNDERWRITER COMMITTEE

LOCAL FIRE INSURANCE AGENTS JOIN TOGETHER FOR THE MUTUAL PROTECTION OF THEMSELVES AND THEIR CLIENTS.

For the better protection of the fire insurance business in Prince Rupert, the Prince Rupert committee of the B. C. Mainland Insurance Association was formed recently in the city.

Only representatives of board or tariff companies are eligible to membership in the organization, which will be run on the same plan as the underwriters' association, of which it is a committee.

In the first place, it will mean that the board companies represented in the city, who in placing insurance have a uniform rate will be in a thoroughly organized state, furnishing reports of the business done by each individual firm every three months. This will insure everything being absolutely fair, both as regards the agents of the several companies and the clients taking out insurance. Further, it will be the means of lowering in the future the insurance rates, as the committee will act in conjunction with those taking out insurance and see that every precaution possible is taken to guard against fire, both by the civic fire protection system and the action of private property holders in making every possible safeguard against fire.

The following local firms comprise the board committee: Messrs. G. R. Naden & Co., Peck, Moore & Co., McCaffery & Gibbons, Mack Realty, M. M. Stephens & Co., Continental Trust Co., C. B. Schreiber & Co., C. D. Rand, Westenhaver Bros., Law, Butler & Co., Mr. M. H. Hobin of the Continental Trust Co. is secretary.
