Army Boxing—

LOCAL FIGHTERS TAKE 3 TITLES AT SOUTH MEET

Three Prince Rupert Army boxers who invaded the Pacific Command tournament at Victoria brought back titles while two more won bouts by default. They were among eight selected fighters who met the cream of southern Army detachments, mainly Vancouver fighters, at the annual fixture.

The two fighters who won by default were considered just too good for any material which could be brought against them, consequently, the fights were called off. One was Pte. M. Y. Deslauries, more widely known as Young Tommy Burns, whose prowess is a matter of record here and in the east where he began his career. He had been entered in the open welterweight class.

Spr. R. De La Franier, in the novice lightweight class, also failed to find an opponent.

Title winners were Sgt. A. Gillies, of the R.C.A.S.C. water transport who took the novice middleweight crown, Gunner "Lucky" Arcangelette, novice welterweight winner, and Pte. J. A. B. Deslauries, R.C.A.S.C. water transport, who took the intermediate welterweight championship.

Pte. Arcangellette entered the novice welterweight finals after defeating one of his own teammates, Pte. M. Amato of the Soo Suds. Amato had previously beaten Gnr. R. Sullivan.

Gnr. G. White, novice bantamweight contender, came very close to winning his fight, losing to a Vancouver fighter by a half point in a very close decision.

CANADIAN SPIRIT Y·M·C·A

By MARGARET WOODWARD

Once again bingo drew a crowd to the common lounge last night with Jimmie Helakus directing the proceedings. Winners of the big prizes were D. D. Ford, Service Corps, pencil; H. B. Calquhon, Air Force, scarf, and J. Hickings, R.C.E.M.E., cushion top.

The movie tonight will be the picturization of that best seller "See Here Private Hargrove" with Robert Walker and Donna Reed in the starring roles.

We welcome to our area staff Bob Morrison who arrived yesterday from Vancouver. A recent comer to the Y.M.C.A. War ervices, Bob has just been released from the Air Force. Before joining the Air Force Bob owned and published his own newspaper in Chilliwack. Bob is an authority on all kinds of music and, while at Aliford Bay, he organized and directed what became the finest music appreciation hour in the service. Plans are under way for a similar group here at the Red Triangle and the first meeting under his leadership will be held Wednesday in the common lounge.

In the "Y" Gymnasium

Last night in the Y gym Air Force took the floor hockey game from Soo Suds with a final score of 11-5. After trailing 4-2 at the end of the first period Air Force staged an excellent comeback and, at the end of the second, were leading the hard-checking Soo Suds 7-5. In spite of their good plays Soo Suds were unable to supplement their score while the Air Force slammed in four more goals to end the game 11 to 5. Outstanding for Air Force were Court, Flash and Gerasimoff while the stars of the Suds line-up were Jacko, Marinessi and McNulty.

A bashing bunch of boys from an artillery unit won the 1945 Canadian Army unit team boxing championship in Britain by winning all but one of nine bouts from a infantry outfit. Both of the teams represented reinforcement units. The only fight won by the infantry was considered the outstanding fight on the card. The victor was Lieut. Joe Gagnon, former Empire Games pugilist from Montreal, but a left-handed attack was his only victory margin over Sgt. George Brabant of Regina, a top-notch lightweight boxer around Aldershot for the past couple of years.

A 30-second knockout featured the heavyweight clash. Capt. G. L. Willox, medical officer from Calgary, Alta., rushed at Pte. S. D. Pepper of Montreal as the opening bell rang, and threw three hard rights that knocked Pepper through the ropes for the count.

The most furious tilt was also the shortest. Bdr. Charlie Pyle, all-round Negro athlete from New Waterford, N.S., put Cpl. J. Appollo of Montreal down for a short count after 25 seconds of welterweight bout. Appollo got up and dropped Pyle with a left hook. Pyle arose, and after a short clinch, landed a terrific right that flattened Appollo and ended the fight.

The light-heavyweight bout nearly didn't come off because Gnr. E. Hemphill of Woodstock, N. B., was undecided whether to compete or rush home and see his son, born on the day of the fight to his English wife. He decided to compete, however, beat Lt. J. Roberge of Quebec in a rugged set-to, then travelled to his home near the south coast.

LADIES' BOWLING LEAGUE ENDS—BUSTERS WIN

Final game of the dry dock ladies bowling league play-offs Tuesday night resulted in the Busters, yard workers, defeating the Spartans, office workers, to win the two-out-of-three series at the dry dock recreational centre.

Tuesday nights play-offs were the culmination of a series which began last December and originally involved six teams. The series narrowed down to the Busters and Spartans however and each team earlier won one fixture.

In the deciding encounter on Tuesday night the Busters came out on top. Members of the team are Miss Mary Harvey (captain), Mrs. C. Christensen, Mrs. M. Scharff, Mrs. G. Tubb, Miss E. Hanson.

The Spartan team consisted of the following members: Mrs. E. Mores (captain), Mrs. S. McRae, Miss A. Spooner, Miss E. MacDonald, and Miss A. De Gaffe.
