Rates On Coal To Prince Rupert.

Mayor Blatchford of Edmonton announces that at the conference of mayors he will press for low rates on coal from Alberta to Vancouver. It will be Prince Rupert delegate's duty to press for a low rate to Prince Rupert.

Mayor Blatchford says if they can carry Alberta coal to Ontario they can give a better rate than now obtains on the same coal to the Pacific coast. Of course they can't carry coal to Ontario for seven dollars. They cannot carry it to Ontario at all economically, but they can carry coal from the Alberta mines to Prince Rupert and the lower the price the more business should be done.

With the development of business to this coast the railways will operate more economically. The lowest possible rate is required so that we may have all the advantages of our position.

Spend As You Go; Why Save For Children?

In life there are two extremes to be avoided. The man who spends more than he earns will have nothing but trouble ahead of him. Gradually he will become involved until some dishonest act seems to be the only way out of the trouble.

The other extreme is to be so close that no enjoyment is taken. The miserly person saves all the time and the day comes when he leaves it behind and his children spend it. Wealth curses the saver and curses the children to whom it is left.

The medium position is the better one. Every month should see at least some small amount put by in the bank or invested in life insurance or a home or payments on bonds. Never should a person spend every dollar he earns, much less should he live this month on next month's earnings.

Hon. C. A. Dunning Strength To Cabinet.

Hon. Charles A. Dunning, minister of railways and canals, will be a source of strength to the Mackenzie King government. He is comparatively a young man being only forty years of age. He was born in England and came to Saskatchewan about 24 years ago. Very soon he became marked as a leader in his own community and his ability in organizing was shown in the success of his effort to organize the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company in 1911. He served as general manager of that organization for about five years. He was a commissioner to investigate agricultural credits and grain markets, contributed articles to the press at various times on agricultural and related subjects and was for several years vice-president of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association. He lives at Regina, is Liberal in politics, Presbyterian in religion, optimist, hard worker, clever speaker, strong personality, and with sufficient personal ambition to keep him always climbing. His administration of the Saskatchewan government has been successful and we look to see his administration of the department of railways in the Mackenzie King government equally successful, if the government lasts long enough to give him a chance to make good.

Not Going Back, But Always Forward.

There is no such thing as going backward. We are always moving forward and building on the past. Today we feel that we could not do without things that it never occurred to our fathers to need. We have electric light and power, we have mechanical music, we have internal combustion engines for autos, boats and airplanes, we have modern plumbing including hot water baths at our service, and we have the movies, and yet it is doubtful if we are much happier and if we appreciate the fact that these are all modern achievements popularized within the present generation.

What the next notable achievement will be no one can say. These things usually come on us so gradually that we hardly notice them. It is only when we look back fifty years and think what the world was like then that we realize what progress we are making.

CLEVER WORK ON NEW PLAY

Wedding Bells Promises to be Improvement Over Last Players Club Offering

Those who attended the first performance given by the Players Club in the autumn were agreeably surprised at the excellence of the performance. Now the club has almost perfected another play, "Wedding Bells" which is to be put on for two nights at the Westholme Theatre next week, Tuesday and Wednesday. Those who have seen the rehearsals say this will be a winner. Members of the caste know their parts well and now they are being trained in the little niceties which give finish to the performance.

"Wedding Bells" is being directed by J. S. Wilson, a man who has had considerable experience in the work. The caste consists of Miss Dorothy Gillingham, Miss Etanda Marsh, Miss Florence Aitchison, Miss Winnie Larson, A. A. Connon, George Mitchell, W. Mack, S. Suga, and W. M. Watts.

Tickets are now on sale and reservations may be made at Orme's Drug Store.

MISSION BAND AT CORNER CLUB

Mrs. S. Dawson Presided at Large Gathering in Baptist Church Parlors

"Christian Missions" was the subject considered at the regular meeting of the Corner Club in the parlors of the Baptist Church last night. Mrs. S. Dawson, leader of the mission band of the Church, had charge and there was a large attendance.

The program consisted of missionary songs, recitations and dialogues by members of the mission band. The piano accompanist was Mrs. R. Howard.

At the close of the Corner Club entertained the mission band for an hour during which refreshments were served.

CONCERT AND SOCIAL EVENING BY CANADIAN GIRLS IN TRAINING

A concert and social was held last evening in the social parlors of the United Church by the two groups of the Canadian Girls in Training. A splendid program arranged entirely by the girls themselves was provided after which there were contests and games and refreshments were served. The affair was given general supervision by Miss Isabel Haddock, the deaconness; Miss Jean MacKay presided, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick had charge of the contests. There were about fifty girls with their mothers and friends in attendance.

The program of vocal, instrumental and orchestral numbers and readings and recitations included choruses; piano solos by Victoria Krikevsky, Connie Morgan and Rhoda Lamb; recitations by Olive Hicks, Nellie Gurvich, Eleanor Tite and Betty Arney; vocal solos by Catherine Irvine and Catherine Harvey; vocal duet duet by Tomi Katsuyama and Ruth Wilkinson, and selections by a girls' novelty orchestra.

Accompanists for the evening were Ella Steen and Victoria Krikevsky.

BURNS LAKE

Prize winners at the big Valentine Masquerade ball held here last week were: ladies' first, Miss Selina Aslin as an Egyptian Princess; ladies' first (character costume), Miss Margaret Palmer of Decker Lake as a Welsh woman; first ladies' (comic), Mrs. Howard Pringle of Francois Lake; men's first, Ted Martin as a pirate; men's first (character), P. Brunnell as a Chinaman; men's first (comic) H. J. Jewell as Charlie Chaplin.

H. Parrott of Colleymount left last week for Penticton where he will attend a family reunion. He expects to be away for several months.

Miss Mary McRae, Mrs. P. Carr and Mrs. M. J. Patterson have become members of the local Union Church.

A man by the name of Burke was drowned last Thursday near the east end of Francois Lake.

Miss Bertha Aslin, after having visited here for some time, left last week for her home in Spokane. On the eve of her departure, a party was given in her honor by Miss Viola Kerr.

THERE are always a lot of people who can second the motion but what is needed is those who can make the proposal so that it will go over.

MEN are such queer creatures. They can't understand why it is necessary for a woman to slip back and put another dab of powder on her nose while all the rest of the party is waiting.

JUST listen to it blowing—
And here am I just going
To have a cup of tea with neighbor Brown.
I'll get my stockings soaking,
But what's the use of croaking,
There's nothing else to do in this old town.

A BUSTLING BURG.

Visitor—I should think, by the look of things, that nothing ever happens here.

Native—Oh! It be a pretty lively place for its size—why, it's not two weeks since we had an eclipse of the moon!

Sure

A pompous lady was discussing with a literary friend some eccentricities of the English language. "Is it not strange," she asked, "that 'sugar' is the only word in our language where an 's' and a 'u' come together and are pronounced 'Sh'?"

"Sure," replied her friend.

$3,000 GRANT IS REQUESTED

Fair Board Seeking Increased Municipal Assistance—Advertising for Managing Secretary

It was decided by the 1926 Fair Board at its first business meeting last night, President W. D. Vance in the chair, to ask the city council this year for a grant of $3,000. The request will be placed formally before the council at its meeting tonight.

The board also decided to advertise for a new managing secretary, D. McD. Hunter, who has held the office for several years, having expressed the desire to be relieved.

The board will meet again next Sunday at the building for the purpose of inspecting the premises with a view to making plans for repairs and improvements to be made this year.
