YOUNG ORATOR WAS ELECTED

LOUIS AUGER, MEMBER CHOSEN FOR PRESCOTT, WILL BE YOUNGEST IN HOUSE

OTTAWA, Sept. 23.—The remarkable feat of the entire federal election goes to the credit of Louis Auger, of Hawkesbury, Ont., a 23-year-old professor of Ottawa University, and a member of the Twentieth Century Society, an Ottawa Liberal organization for young men, says an article in The Ottawa Journal.

Elected to the House of Commons for Prescott in the sixteenth parliament of Canada, Mr. Auger will be undoubtedly the youngest member ever to sit in that House. His victory over the other two liberal candidates, R. Labrosse and Gustave Evanturel, former member, and over Dr. H. H. Kirby, Conservative candidate, is an achievement in itself.

WORKED AS LABORER

But the chief feature of the Liberal member's election is his conquest of circumstances and of youth in attaining to the seat of government.

To obtain an education, Louis Auger, as a lad, studied hard at the lower schools and won an opportunity to attend Ottawa University. He worked as a laborer and in other humble capacities to make attendance at the university possible. Graduating with honors he commenced to teach at the university while he put himself through for law.

Mr. Auger first associated himself with politics after the election of October 1925. He became an officer of the Twentieth Century Society, an organization for young men formed for political purposes by a number of prominent Ottawa women.

Those who launched the society included Mrs. Norman F. Wilson, Mrs. Charles H. Thorburn, Miss Belcourt, Mrs. H. J. Cloran, Miss Helen Doherty and others.

Mr. Auger will be the first member of the Young Men's Liberal Association to be elected to parliament. He is exceedingly popular in his home town, and with students at Ottawa University. He will probably continue his work at the university and later expects to be called to the bar.

SILVER TONGUED ORATOR

Liberals always prophesied his election in Prescott. He is of a charming personality and a veritable "silver tongued orator."

Louis Auger was the seventh of 16 children, having eight brothers and seven sisters. His parents are still alive and in the best of health. He was born at Contrecoeer, Vercheres county, in Quebec, but his family moved to Hawkesbury, Ont., 16 years ago. Educated at the Grey Nuns separate school at Hawkesbury, he went to Ottawa University at the age of 15, and graduated in the class of 24 with honors. He is at present a professor in classics, languages and mathematics.

In an interview Mr. Auger said his chief ambition was to "serve my country to the best of my ability." He makes little of the manner in which he won for himself an education, although he admits working as a laborer for the Hawkesbury Lumber Company, Riordon Lumber Company and other concerns and with doing odd jobs and other work "as long as it was honest."

MINERAL ACT

Certificate of Improvements.

Brownie No. 4, Lot 4652, Mineral Claim, situate in the Atlin Mining Division of the Cassiar District, on the West Arm of Takuu Arm, about three quarters of a mile up stream from the mouth of Wann River.

TAKE NOTICE that I, Charles E. Gilmore, Free Miner's Certificate No. 89742, intend, sixty days from the date hereof, to apply to the Mining Recorder for a Certificate of Improvements, for the purpose of obtaining a Crown Grant of the above claim.

And further taken notice that action, under section 85, must be commenced before the issue of such Certificate of Improvements.

DATED this 1st day of September, A.D. 1926.

FRENCH WOMEN STILL ARE WEARING KNICKERS

Used Both For Afternoons and For Dancing in Paris This Fall

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Waistcoats and knickerbockers for women still hold their sway, even when the swing of the fashion pendulum is towards more feminine styles. The French word "Gilet" sounds a little less aggressively masculine than the English "waistcoat," just as the French waistcoat is less masculine in appearance than the English one.

The Gilet is seen in leather, suede, velvet, satin and lace. Nothing is more in the note of the hour than a coat of black cloth with velvet collar and pockets, worn over a cloth skirt and velvet waistcoat, under which there is a silk shirt with long sleeves. In white satin, fastened with diamond buttons, the waistcoat is seen with the female dinner jacket, and in suede it is worn over a white tennis frock.

Knickers are not limited to tweeds for the Moors. They are being worn for afternoons and evenings and for dancing. When worn with a skirt, they match it and are fastened below the knee with a buckle and strap. In satin and silk, they have jewelled clasps. Leather is considered good enough for tweeds. When worn without a skirt, a long coat reaching to the knee is used; so long that it is only when the wearer is seated that it can be seen that she is wearing knickers, as the coat falls slightly open.

ENGLISH LADY FLYER WEARS TAILOR MADE SUIT IN THE PLANE

PARIS, Sept. 23.—The young English flyer, Mrs. Eliott Lynn, who made such a good showing at the "economic light plane" international meeting that has just closed at Orly, outside Paris, astonished the public by flying each day in a tailor made costume, navy blue, with cloche-shaped beige felt hat and the fashionable flesh-colored silk stockings, instead of the usual aviation combinations, leather helmet and heavy goggles.

She was the only woman competitor and was first in three of the seven trials but lost points during the speed trial by the cracking of a cylinder.

HAD 69 LOVERS AND NOW WOULD MARRY

BIRMINGHAM, Eng., Sept. 23.—Sixty-nine love affairs in the life of young woman hardly out of her teens, did not indicate stability of nature to enlist the police court aid in furthering a marriage of the girl. Thos. Granter, 20, wanted the worst way to marry her but his parents objected. The youth had the mother hailed into court to show cause why consent should not be given. The mother testified that the girl told her that her son was the 69th man she had gone around with. Young Granter first met her at a dance hall at Easter. The court decided that five months was much too short a period for the engagement and refused the parents to permit the wedding.

SCOTTISH DIVINE WILL VISIT CANADA

GLASGOW, Sept. 23.—The Very Rev. James Harvey, D.D., Clerk of the General Assembly and Ex-Moderator of the United Free Church of Scotland, is sailing for Canada shortly to attend a series of conventions in the United Church of Canada.

TORONTO, Sept. 23.—United Church offices here announce Dr. Harvey's engagements at Dominion and World Service Conferences as follows: Ontario and Quebec at Toronto, October 5-7; Maritimes at Halifax, October 12-14; Manitoba at Winnipeg, October 19-21; Saskatchewan in Saskatoon, October 26-28; Alberta at Edmonton, November 2-4; British Columbia, November 9-11.

DEAN INGE WRITES BOOK NAMED ENGLAND

LONDON, Sept. 23.—"England," a new book to be published by Dean Inge is not likely, from what one hears of its theme, to cause the public to drop the "gloomy" epithet as applied to the distinguished preacher of St. Paul's Cathedral.

When Dean Inge was in New York last summer reporters seized on the phrase "The Gloomy Dean," and worked it overtime, much to the Dean's irritation. Perhaps he is getting back at them in the book, for while he views with alarm nearly all present tendencies in England, which he says is "Finished," he is even more severe with America and Americans. The French also fare badly in his criticism.

The Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful and interesting.

Every manager of a household---every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare---should make a habit of reading the ads.

Read the advertisements in order to buy wisely
