Eight members of the Ottawa Rough Riders football club executive were suspended by the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada nine years ago as the result of the "Great impersonation" of Roy Barry by Bohn Hilliard, an American player, the previous fall. Later the executive was reinstated.

John L. Sullivan became the last of the bare-knuckle champions, 59 years ago when he won the London Prize Ring Championship from Paddy Ryan in nine rounds. Sullivan was never defeated in a bare-knuckle fight afterward and carried the title to his grave.

Information Bureau Here Is Advocated

The establishment of an information bureau in Prince Rupert will be urged upon the city council, it was decided by the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce at last night's meeting. Such a bureau would be of value not only in the dissemination of information to visitors to the city after the war is over and tourist traffic is resumed but also in the sending out of information of an industrial character.

Crawford Moore and John McLeod were welcomed as new members at the monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night.

FOUR YEARS AGO IN THIS WAR

By the Canadian Press

Feb. 6, 1941—British captured Bengasi, capital of Eastern Libya. Greeks reported port of Valona so badly battered Italians had abandoned it as a base port. Col. Charles A. Lindbergh reiterated opposition to "lend-lease" bill before U. S. Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate.

LONDON, (AP) — Vice-Admiral Sir Campbell Tait, 58, has been appointed governor of Southern Rhodesia, succeeding Hon. Sir Evelyn Baring.

Venereal Disease Is Nurses' Subject

An illustrated lecture on the subject of venereal disease control by Dr. R. G. Knipe, director of the Prince Rupert public health unit, featured the monthly meeting last night at the Nurses' Home of the Prince Rupert Registered Nurses' Association and it proved very interesting. There was general discussion during the course of the lecture. Mrs. Morrow, the president, was in the chair and there was an attendance of some 25 members.

As announcement had since been made that the annual convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce would not be held this year, communications from the Canadian Chamber in reference to the convention were not read at the monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night.
