Savoy downs Bob Parkers 14-11

Elks get first win in junior contest

Savoy Hotel had to stand off a last-period rally by Bob Parkers to come up with a 14-11 win in Senior Floor Hockey action last night at the Civic Centre.

In the junior battle, Elks won their first game of the season downing Philpott, Evitt 21-15.

Savoy carried a 9-5 edge into the final frame, but within three minutes saw it chopped to 9-8, as the garagemen began pouring on the power.

It took some snappy goaltending by Norm Mierau and good defensive play by the entire Savoy squad to halt the Parker drive.

With Savoy leading 11-10, the tide suddenly changed as the hotelmen dumped in three goals within four minutes to sew up the victory.

Both Mierau, in the Savoy net and George Kent, in the Parker net, played excellent games. Mierau handled a total of 53 shots while Kent handled 59.

Savoy led 3-1 at the end of the first period.

Bill (Mouse) Morrison led the Savoy attack with a hat trick and received thunderous applause from the fans throughout the night. Jack Martin and Jim Murdoch, two of the younger Parker players, paced the garagemen with three goals each.

Savoy picked up 34 penalties while Parkers received 37.

John Dopson, Dave Petrie and Dennis Ostopowich were the big guns in Elks' win, scoring five goals each. Robert Ericksen, Bruce Moore, Taki Omori and David Mio topped the score sheet for Philpott with three goals each.

Kai Chuden, working in the Elks' net, handled a total of 52 shots — none of which were too hard to handle. However, Roger Truscott, making his first appearance in the Philpott net, played an outstanding game but was not backed up defensively by his team-mates. He handled 55 shots and made some spectacular saves.

Elks jumped into a 7-2 lead in the first period and led 12-9 going into the final frame.

Philpott had a total of 20 penalties while Elks managed but 10.

Canucks tie for WHL second spot with 6-4 victory over Stampeders

By The Canadian Press

Vancouver Canucks, defending Western Hockey League champions, could hardly be blamed for becoming complacent when they went undefeated in their first five games this season.

They will soon discover, however, that they wouldn't progress very far on their laurels. Canucks began losing consistently and the trouble was diagnosed as inability to score.

To remedy this, Danny Belisle, a high-scoring right winger with Canucks last year, was called in from Kitchener of the Eastern Professional League.

He has played five games and Vancouver has won four of them.

Tuesday Canucks beat league-leading Calgary Stampeders 6-4 in Vancouver to move into a tie for second place with Edmonton Flyers. Both are one point behind Calgary.

HAVE PLAYED FEWER

Canucks have four games in hand over Stampeders and three over Edmonton. They may need this edge as they tackle their first Prairie trip of the season this week. No coast team has come out on top on this trip yet this season.

Tuesday night, Belisle came up with his fifth goal since joining Canucks and Murray Wilkie, whom Vancouver was considering trading, scored two.

The others were scored by Larry Popein, Larry Keller and Orland Kurtenbach, Vancouver's leading scorer.

Calgary goals came from league-leading scorer Ron Leopold, with two, Lou Jankowski and rookie John Kosianic.

LOST 3-0 EDGE

Canucks built up a 3-0 lead, blew it, then recovered to win their first game over Stampeders in three attempts.

Popein opened the scoring and defenceman Keller made it 2-0.

Wilkie made it 3-0 in the second period, but goals by Leopold, Jankowski and Kosianic tied it 3-3.

Wilkie and Belistle scored before Leopold got his second to make it 5-4. Kurtenbach scored the clincher at 15:30.

Calgary, which plays three more times this week, lost the services of high-scoring forward Norm Johnson. He injured his arm after a check by defenceman Larry Cahan.

Bellino stars in college ball

NEW YORK (AP)— Navy halfback Joe Bellino was named Tuesday as winner of the 1960 Heisman Trophy as the United States' outstanding college football player of the year.

The 5-9, 181-pound Bellino, a mighty man with Navy which rolled up a 9-1 record and gained an Orange Bowl berth, picked up 436 first place ballots and a total of 1,793 points in the poll conducted by the Downtown Athletic Club.

Bellino topped Tom Brown, Minnesota guard, by more than 1,000 points in winning the award, presented in honor of the late football coach, John W. Heisman.

Disaster looms in path of OSHL as Penticton Vs prepare to fold

KELOWNA (CP) — Disaster looms directly in the path of the Okanagan Senior Hockey League as the stench of death hangs over its Penticton Vs entry. Unless help is found before the end of the week the Vs will fold. Already the OSHL has lost Merritt Grand-Luckies, a team that joined the league only last fall.

From the opening game this season the circuit has been rocky. Each of the old guard, Kelowna Packers, Kamloops Chiefs, Vernon Canadians and now Penticton, have run into trouble. All have been on the brink of folding and so far have scraped through thanks to last-minute help.

But the Vs financial problems have shaken the league foundations completely. Penticton consistantly outdraws other teams and during the summer spearheaded an intensive drive to rebuild sagging league spirits.

MEETING FAILS

A two-hour meeting Tuesday night in Penticton failed to come up with an answer to solve the Vs' problems. But it was decided to have the executive meet with players tonight to obtain their views.

If the players wish to continue, an effort will be made to carry on. If not, the team will bow out after Friday's game in Penticton against Kamloops.

The club faces a $2,600 operating deficit.

The worst part of the situation, says Coach Jack O'Reilly, is that nine players are without work and have little hope of getting any.

All clubs operate on a co-operative basis with players splitting the profits after bills are paid. Profits have been small everywhere.

The league was established 10 years ago with teams in Vernon, Kelowna and Kamloops. Penticton joined two years later and has always been considered the fruit-growing district's strongest hockey city.

Attendance has dwindled to about 500 fans a game during the last two seasons from a high of 2,500 five years ago. Various promotional stunts have failed to keep it high.

The league has not been without its champions — one world, two Allan Cup, six Western Canadian and seven B.C. titleholders. And two years ago, Kelowna became the first Canadian team to visit Russia and came home with a winning record.

In contrast, the Western International League, in the neighboring mineral-rich Kootenay district of southeastern B.C., has shown signs of a rebirth.

NELSON CAME BACK

The league started the season with teams in Trail, Rossland and Nelson. Nelson almost collapsed last month, but bounced back. Since then a fourth team, East Kootenay, with players from Kimberley and Cranbrook, has joined the league.

Except at Trail, attendance has not been good but most of the players are residents of the district and have permanent jobs.
