BISLEY SHOOT OPENS MONDAY

Canada is Again Well Represented at Great Marksmanship Event

LONDON, July 2.—(Canadian Press)—The great Bisley meeting, to which the whole British Empire looks forward with increasing interest from year to year and in which Canada is always well represented by clever rifle shots, will open next Monday, and continue to Saturday, July 17. Major C. R. Crowe, of Guelph, Ont., veteran marksman who has distinguished himself at Bisley on many occasions, is the cammandant of the Canadian team this year, and on the team is Lieut. Desmond Burke, of Ottawa, who in 1924 was the winner of the blue ribbon event of the annual Bisley shoot, the King's Prize. He was only 19 years of age then and was the youngest King's Prize winner in Bisley history.

The King's Prize is emblematic of the best rifle shot in the British Empire. It is always competed for towards the end of the two week's shoot, the final stage taking place on the last day of the meeting. Lieut. Burke, who was a private in the Governor-General's Foot Guards at the time he won the coveted King's Gold Medal, won prize money at Bisley that year amounting to nearly $2,500. This sum was added to by presentations made to him on his return to Ottawa by his proud fellow citizens, the grand total amounting to $5,000. With this money he began his university course at Queen's, Kingston, where on May 3 last he was awarded the Sanford Fleming Scholarship (first year) in Science. This will be Lieut. Burke's third year in succession as a member of the Canadian team at Bisley.

Canada's Representatives

Following is the personnel of the team that represents Canada at Bisley this year:

Major C. R. Crowe, Guelph, Ont., commandant: Major R. O. Wheatley, M.C., Ottawa, team adjutant; Sergt. G. M. Elmslie, Toronto; Lieut. A. T. Steele, Guelph; Corporal H. W. Burton, Esquimalt, B.C.; Major L. I. Johnson, Ottawa; Gunner E. Regan, Victoria, B.C.; Sergt. J. Borland, Toronto; Captain G. M. Galbraith, London, Ont.; C.Q.M.S. A. Parnell, Montreal; Pte. A. Houlden, Hamilton, Ont.; Major F. Richardson, Victoria, B.C.; Sergt. K. McGregor, Ottawa; Lieut. James Boa, Montreal; Sergt.-Major E. J. Read, Esquimalt, B.C.; Sergt. D. Fyvie, Victoria, B.C.; Sergt.-Major H. Russell, Montreal; Major R. N. Blair, Victoria, B.C.; Lieut.-Col. T. Pugh, Ottawa and Lieut. Desmond Burke, Ottawa.

The Canadian team of 1925 distinguished itself by winning the Kolapore Challenge Cup, the team representing Great Britain being second in the competition and the team from India third. In recognition of this signal victory the members of the winning team were individually presented with gold elephants, emblematic of the Kolapore Cup, the presentation being made by Major-Gen. J. H. McBrien, chief of the general staff, Ottawa, at the annual meeting of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association in Ottawa on April 8, 1926.

Lord Cheylesmore, President of the National Rifle Association, under whose auspices the annual Bisley meetings are held, was fatally injured in an automobile accident as he was returning to London from Bisley Camp at the conclusion of the annual shoot last year. Earl Jellicoe succeeded him as head of the Association.

Changes in Competitions

Several changes in the Bisley competitions have been made since last July, particularly important being the change in the second stage of the competition for the King's Prize.

In the second stage of the shoot for the King's Prize this year, instead of there being only two distances, 300 and 600 yards, 10 shots at each, as heretofore, there will be an additional 500 yard range. The shoot in the second stage therefore will be in this order: 10 shots each at 300, 500, and 600 yards.

In the shoot for the Daily Graphic Cup this year there will be but one range, 300 yards, 10 shots, instead of two ranges, 200 and 300 yards, seven shots at each, as has been the case in past years.

In the Graphic Cup competition, instead of there being two ranges, 300 and 500 yards, seven shots at each, as heretofore, there will be only one range, 500 yards, ten shots.

In the first or qualifying stage of the St. George's Challenge Vase competition, instead of 15 shots at 300 yards, there will be 10 shots at 300 and 600 yards.

In addition to the regular Bisley program of previous years there will be a challenge cup presented by the Morning Post for competition by teams of four marksmen each, representing the British Dominions, Colonies and Protectorates. The Morning Post hopes in this way to encourage rifle shooting in all the overseas parts of the Empire.

FEEDING FISH ON FIREWORKS

Bootleg Gunpowder and Alcohol is Diet in New York Waters.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Bootleg gunpowder and alcohol have become staples in the diet of fish in New York waters as the result of restrictive laws.

Officers of the fire prevention bureaus of New York and Brooklyn have added gunpowder to the diet of the fish. Prohibition agents provide the alcohol.

The gunpowder is contained in fireworks, sale and display of which is banned by ordinances. Several boatloads of "bootleg" fireworks, which were to be used in coming Fourth of July celebrations, have already been deposited in the larders of the fish. And seldom a week passes without thousands of gallons of whiskey, beer and wine being dumped into the rivers.

Boatloads of It

"We've already got rid of several boat loads of fireworks in this fashion," said John F. Dixon, inspector of the New York Fire Prevention Bureau, as a fire boat laden with Catherine wheels, roman candles, giant crackers and sky-rockets steamed down the Hudson. "When they get down river a bit they'll heave that junk overboard. There won't be so many fires on the fourth then."

"Prior to the passing of ordinances prohibiting sale of fireworks we used to double our fire fighting forces on the fourth. Now the usual number of fire laddies loaf that day," said Peter C. Spence, chief of the bureau.

"It is a profitable business, this 'bootlegging' of fireworks. This is the time when some merchants stock up. Last year we visited 2,150 stores. In 203 of them we seized contraband fireworks. All that we seized we fed to the fish."

Fatal Mixture

In human history the mixing of of gunpowder and alcohol has brought about wars, rebellions and mutinies, but Joseph A. McCabe, inspector of the Brooklyn bureau, evinced no fear of the effect of these rations on the fish as he helped direct the dumping of the combustibles into the Hudson.

"Last year we seized fireworks in 316 stores," he said. "All we seized was dumped into the rivers. Even if the fish eat it they will do less damage than human beings would. The casualties of the Fourth have been reduced to nearly nothing by prohibiting fireworks. Only four permits have been issued in New York and Brooklyn for the sale of fireworks, and these are for use outside New York and Brooklyn.

"Storekeepers have been warned, and we warned them again a few days ago. The little stores are the chief offenders, especially cigar stores. If we catch them selling or displaying for sale fireworks banned by law we prosecute them. They usually get a fine of $500."

Roads are watched for suspicious trucks, Spence said, for "bootlegging" of fireworks has fallen into the hands of private carriers. If carriers have a permit for the transportation of fireworks, showing they are to be used outside the city, they are not molested. Other cities may burn or blow off their fingers and blind themselves if they wish, said the inspectors, but New York and Brooklyn are to be kept as noiseless and sane as possible on Independence Day.

The pyrotechnic displays permitted are of a communal nature, where experts, surrounded by safeguards, set off fireworks that can be seen by thousands.

POLICE COURT.

Several cases came up before Magistrate McClymont in the city police court this morning and were dealt with as follows:

John Thompson was sentenced to three months' imprisonment on a charge of intoxication. A. L. Jones and Magnus Ness were both fined $25 for drunkenness.

John Johansson was sentenced to 60 days hard labor at Okalla for an assault upon Frank Lockwood and was fined $25, in addition, on a charge of intoxication.

Two young boys, charged with thieving sacks from the La Casse Bakery, were committed for trial before Judge Young.
