NEW PRINCIPAL HIGH SCHOOL

Thomas Peddie, M.A., of Edinburgh University, Secures Position Here in Place of J. C. Brady

At a special meeting of the board of school trustees held Tuesday, Thomas Peddie, M.A., principal of the High School at Terrace was appointed principal of the High School here in place of J. C. Brady, resigned.

Mr. Peddie is 35 years of age, the eldest son of the late Dr. W. J. Peddie of Stanley, Perthshire, Scotland, and was educated at Watson's Institute, Edinburgh, and Perth Academy, passing from there to Edinburgh University and Edinburgh training college for teachers, graduating as M.A. in December, 1913, with passes in mathematics, chemistry, natural philosophy, French, geology, and political economy.

The new principal was assistant mathematics and science master for a period of five years in Montrose Academy, Scotland, three years as head science master in Alsop High School for boys, Liverpool, England, and four years as head science master and second master in Kendall Grammar School, one of the oldest grammar schols in England and one which holds a distinguished record for the number of scholarships gained at Cambridge University.

Since coming to Canada in the fall of last year, Mr. Peddie has been granted an academic certificate by the superintendent of education, Victoria, and for the past six months has held his present position at Terrace.

CAR SHORTAGE IS EXPLAINED

Express Company in Message States Plenty of Refrigerators are on Way Here

With respect to the recent shortage of express refrigerator cars here which interfered last week with the shipments of halibut East, the following telegram was received yesterday from headquarters of the Canadian National Express Co. at Montreal:

"Apparently the shortage of express refrigerators at Prince Rupert has been due to the slow movement of empties west due to the exceptionally heavy movement of harvester trains. There is the same number of cars in this service now that there has been all summer. The situation today checks 17 cars empty west of Edmonton, 8 between Winnipeg and Edmonton, one at Winnipeg, thirteen between Chicago and Winnipeg and 14 between Toronto and Winnipeg. These should all reach Prince Rupert in the course of a week or ten days and take care of the heaviest loadings. We are confident that there will be no car shortage very shortly."

DONAGHY'S IDEA OF LIBERAL GOVERNMENT

Candidate in Vancouver Centre Tells People There What He Stands For.

VANCOUVER, Aug. 26. — In addressing the electors of Vancouver Centre in opposition to H. H. Stevens, Dugald Donaghy summarizes the Liberal policy as follows:

The great achievements of the Liberal government, he said, were these:

Reduction of the cost of administering the country's affairs from $463,000,000 in 1922, to $354,000,000 last year.

Reduction of the national debt last year by $27,000,000, against an increase of $92,000,000 in 1921, when Mr. Meighen was in power.

Production of a surplus of $32,000,000 on C. N. R. operations as against a deficit of $34,000,000 in Mr. Meighen's time.

Taxes Reduced

Taxes had been reduced following reduced expenditures.

Unearned income from dividends is to be taxed on the same basis as income earned by toil. This had been opposed by the Conservatives.

Savings deposits had increased to $74,000,000 last year, and during that year 30,000 Canadians had returned home from across the border.

Even more important were the policies for the future. These, he said, were:

Old Age Pensions

Re-enactment of old age pensions, revaluation of soldiers' lands, rural credits and other legislation blocked by Tory opposition in the Commons or Senate.

Senate reform.

Equalization of freight rates.

Continued reduction of public expenditures and taxation.

Extension of Canada's trade by further marketing treaties.

In addition, for his own part, he pledged himself to work for a Vancouver man on the C. N. R. directorate, for construction of a Pacific Coast outlet for the Peace River, and to try to foster political and commercial co-operation between the people of B. C. and the prairie provinces.

TWO PRINCE RUPERT PEOPLE MARRIED AT KETCHIKAN THIS WEEK

Mrs. Lottie Anderson Becomes Bride of Nels Pedersen, Captain of Ternen.

KETCHIKAN, Aug. 26. — The marriage of Mrs. Lottie Anderson and Nels Pedersen, both residents of Prince Rupert, took place at 7 o'clock Monday, August 23, in the office of the U. S. Commissioner of this city. Judge J. W. Kehoe performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and close friends of the young couple.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was given by the bride's sister, Mrs. Anna Midbust, for the bridal party in the banquet room of Richmond's. A color scheme of pink and white was carrie dout in the bridal place cards and decoration of the table, which was centered with sweet peas and maidenhair ferns. Covers were laid for eight guests: Mr. and Mrs. Nels Pedersen, Mrs. Anna Midbust, Mr. and Mrs. Thorsten Pedersen, Mrs. John Munson, Miss Evelyn Anderson and Miss Mary Pedersen.

Mrs. Pedersen arrived from Prince Rupert last week to visit her sister and Mrs. Thorsten Pedersen for a few days before her marriage. Mr. Pedersen is engaged in the fishing industry and is captain and owner of the Ternen. The young couple will spend their honeymoon in Ketchikan. They will make their home in Prince Rupert.

W. H. Tobey, local railway superintendent, is returning today from an inspection trip to the interior.

Raymond Griffiths in

"HAND'S UP"

His high hat highness again hits the heights of hilarity. A spectacular super-comedy of Civil War times in which Raymond puts the merry in America. He had a spy job and wanted to win the war single-handed, so he fell in love with two girls at one time. He didn't mind Cupid's arrows, but when it came to Indian arrows——! Come and laugh at him hob-nobbing with Lincoln and Lee, dodging Indians, and making love to pretty girls. Lincoln frees the slaves in "Hands Up;" Griffith frees the laughs. Strong cast.

Raymond Griffith, Mack Swain, Mantague Love, George Billings, Marion Nixon, Virginia Lee Corbin and others.
