Stampeders blank Warriors 5-0 as Calgary opens WHL season

By The Canadian Press

Coach Gus Kyle had no choice but to go with rookie goaltender Art Lariviere as Calgary Stampeders opened their Western Hockey League schedule Thursday night in Calgary against Winnipeg.

As it turned out, Kyle had one of his major problems partly solved when Lariviere handled 19 shots and earned a shutout as Calgary downed Warriors 5-0.

A crowd of 4,819 watched Lariviere record a shutout in his first profesional game. Lariviere, a recruit from Kelowna Packers of the Okanagan Senior League and previously touted as the club's reserve goaltender, was pressed into service when veteran Lucien Dechene had not signed a contract by game time.

Dechene, one of the WHL's most colorful performers, has been suspended for failing to accept the latest contract offer.

Lou Jankowski, who scored 42 goals last season, paced the Calgary attack Thursday night with two goals. Rookie Jerry Esch and veterans Norm Johnson and Wally Hergesheimer added singles.

EASY TIME

Lariviere had a comparatively easy time of it for the first two periods as Calgary took a 4-0 lead.

Winnipeg suddenly came to life in the final period, firing eight shots.

Referee Willie Papp handed out 11 minor penalties during the rough game. Calgary had seven with defenceman George McAvoy drawing four of them.

Three games are scheduled tonight. Spokane and Vancouver open the season at Vancouver while Seattle and Victoria do likewise in the Vancouver Island City. The other game has Calgary at Edmonton.

Horse killed

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP)—Llangollen, a stakes-winning five-year-old thoroughbred, was killed Thursday in a freak accident at Tanforan.

The Llangollen Farms horse was being walked following a morning workout when he reared and flipped over, hitting his head against a barn. He apparently suffered a skull fracture. Llangollen earned $40,975 in purses.

Protest quashed by Halter

WINNIPEG (CP)—Canadian football commissioner G. Sydney Halter announced today that he has disallowed a protest entered by Montreal Alouettes following a game at Montreal September 24, won by Toronto Argonauts 21-9.

The protest was against a decision by a game official which wiped out an Alouette convert. The protest claimed the decision changed the complexion of the game.

Two questions in weekend Big Four action

By The Canadian Press

Two big questions may get an answer this weekend as the Big Four Football League's top and bottom teams pair off to begin the final battle for the three playoff berths.

One is whether little Ron Stewart, Ottawa Rough Riders' incredible halfback, can run as well against Toronto Argonauts as he did in a record rushing performance against Montreal Monday.

If he can, Frank Clair's well-organized squad could use Sunday's Toronto game to settle the question of first-place which the teams now hold jointly with 8-3 win-loss records.

In Montreal the question will be whether Hamilton Tiger-Cats, the league's defending champions, can keep on winning after overturning Toronto 20-16 Monday.

THELEN BACK

Plunging fullback Dave Thelen, who missed one game with a shoulder injury, will rejoin the Ottawa squad for Sunday's tussle, but most eyes will be on the plucky five-foot-eight, 175-pound Stewart who gathered 287 yards rushing in Riders' bruising 51-21 victory over Montreal Thanksgiving Day.

Toronto goes into action with tackle Bobby Jack Oliver sitting it out, coach Lou Agase announced. It will be the first game Oliver has sat out in seven seasons of pro and college football.

In Montreal coach Perry Moss says he will bench his only centre in an effort to put more speed into his defensive backfield after watching Stewart's runs through it Monday.

Centre Milt Crain will sit out the game with tackle Ron Murphy, who has never played snap, filling in. Dick Cohee will go into the backfield on defence and Wes Gideon will replace injured linebacker George Diederich.

BIOD BUIE
... brings Harlem Stars

Harlem stars here tonight

Tonight is the night the Harlem Stars make an appearance at the Civic Centre to launch a two-day exhibition series with the Prince Rupert (Savoy) All Stars.

Game time is 8 p.m. and the highly-rated show is sure to be a hit with all basketball fans.

Regular local league basketball games will serve as preliminaries to the big event.

Under the able direction of the one-armed super-star, Bold Buie, the stars are a collection of razzle-dazzle Negroes, devoted to "making people laugh."

Besides Buie, who is a marksman with the ball, the team features Showboat Buckner, who is "just a litle guy," and utilizes team mates' backs to score baskets, and John Sheppard, a hook-shot master who can dump 'em in from anywhere on the floor.

Appearing for the local all-stars are such talented young men as George Howe, Art Helin, Dick Nickerson, John Lamble, Terry Shenton, Jack Mitchell, Don McLeod, Ron Ciccone, Dick Specht and Mike Lemon.

Preliminaries start at 6:30 p.m. so come early and get a good seat for the big show.
