Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it necessary to telephone one's hostess on the day after her party to thank her again for the good time you had?

A. While sincere appreciation is never out of place, this really isn't necessary, unless you are positive the hostess has plenty of time to spend at the telephone. Usually, your leave-taking after the party should take care of this rite.

Q. If the hands are not in use, where should one place them while at the table?

A. The hands should be placed in the lap. Above all, refrain from toying with the eating utensils.

Q. Should an unmarried woman who is travelling alone sign the hotel register as Miss Mary Jones?

A. Yes, she should use the prefix "Miss."

VARIED PROGRAM AT P.-T.A. MEET

Valentine Decorations—Founders' Day—Girl Guides and Boy Scouts Mentioned

Hearts and red streamers decorated the music room of King Edward School where over one hundred members attended the February meeting of the Parent - Teachers' Association last evening.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "O Canada." Founders' Day was observed and the aims and objects of the Parent - Teachers' Association reviewed.

It was decided to hold the annual King Edward tea and sale on Friday, March 18.

Vocal solos by two of the members were well received. Mrs. F. E. Anfield, accompanied by Mrs. G. D. Mead, sang "Devotion" and "At Close of Day." "Dark Eyes" and "My Happiness" were sung by Mrs. H. M. Lindseth, accompanied by Mrs. J. Bowman.

Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby, president of the Girl Guide Association, conducted a quiz which presented in novel form the activities of the Guide movement.

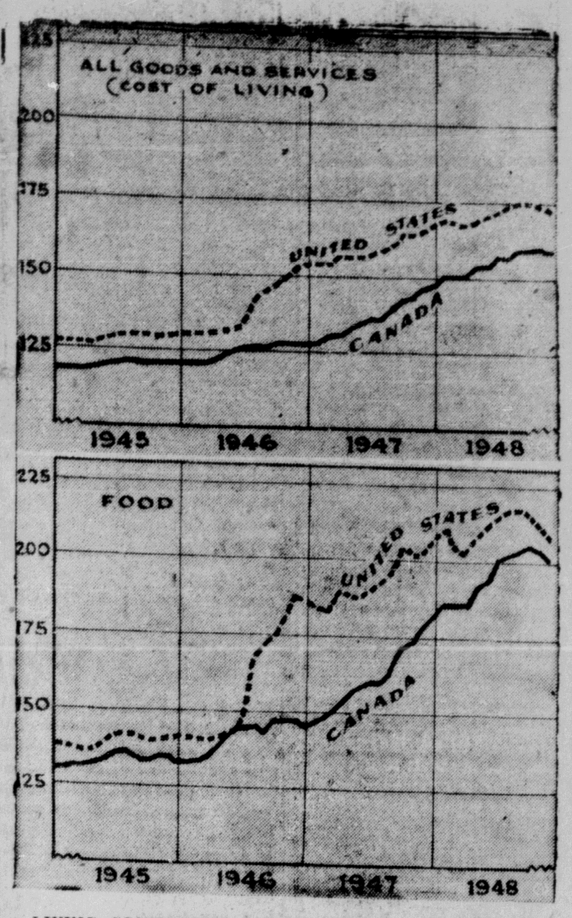
F. E. Anfield, president of the Boy Scout Association, urged the parents to take an active interest in their children's activities and pointed out that for the last forty years the Boy Scout movement has stood the test and was a proven and tried development of youth.

Presentation of a chest of silverware was made to Mrs. Piche, the former Eleanor Moxley, by the president, Mrs. R. E. Mortimer, on behalf of the parents and children of King Edward School.

Dainty Norwegian refreshments were served in the lunch room by Mrs. Hans Knutson, assisted by Mrs. Barney Roald, Mrs. Alf. Jensen, Mrs. A. Calderone, and Mrs. D. A. Morrison.

Scandinavian dancing was then enjoyed to the music of Mrs. J. S. Black and Mrs. Charles Anderson with Rudolph Olsen master of ceremonies.

Mrs. John McLeod was in charge of the evening's program.



LIVING COSTS COMPARED—The cost of living in Canada and the United States, which for a time took divergent courses, now are following about the same trend. In what is apparently the last stages of the post-war adjustment between costs in the two countries, the United States index has recently been coming down, while that of Canada has retained some upward tendencies. From now on the two are expected to follow about the same pattern. Charts prepared by a Canadian bank show the courses of the costs of living and costs of food in the four years 1945 48. The lines do not, however, compare the cost of living of one country with the other; that is, they don't show whether it costs more to live in the United States or Canada. They do show how much living costs in each counntry has changed in terms of its own cost of living in the base period 1935-39. (CP Photo)

Man-tested recipes
T. Phair, Toronto, says of the recipe below:
"My wife prepared Braised Stuffed Pork Chops from your Heinz recipe. Believe me, I could take a lot of this dish before tiring of it."
Heinz wanted to know what recipes appeal to men. Several housewives were asked to serve dishes out of the booklet "57 Ways to Use Heinz Soups". A typical verdict is given above.
Braised Stuffed Pork Chops
Combine 1 10-oz. tin Heinz Condensed Cream of Tomato Soup, added with 1 cup milk. Combine 2 cups dry bread cubes, [illegible] tablespoons chopped onion, ¼ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper [illegible] teaspoon poultry seasoning. Mix thoroughly. Add just enough Soup Mixture to moisten stuffing. Fill 6 thick pork chops, [illegible] pockets, with bread stuffing. Brown on both sides in hot [illegible]. Pour the remainder of Soup mixture over [illegible] chops. Cover tightly. Cook over low heat [illegible] bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 40 minutes. Allow one chop per person. Use remaining thickened Soup as gravy. Serves 6.
