Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When you have received a valuable gift from a friend, sent by mail, and it arrives in a badly damaged condition, what should you do?

A. Take it up with the post office at once and try to get it replaced. Be sure to thank your friend and say nothing about the damage.

Q. Is it ever permissable for a man to borrow money from a woman?

A. No; there are no conditions that make this permissable, and a man's self-respect should not allow him to do so.

Q. On which side of her dinner partner should a woman sit at a formal dinner?

A. The woman should sit at the right of her dinner partner.

STEWART WOMEN AT XMAS PARTY

STEWART— Last Thursday the Moosehaven committee held open house to Moose Lodge members and guests.

Following the 9 o'clock ceremony an excellent play caused much hilarity. After a broadcast program by an inexperienced broadcaster, jolly Saint Nicholas appeared with a full sack of gifts adding humor to the party. Taxi driver Al. Lawrence was given the prize for being the best judge of calves.

Games and Christmas carols ensued after which some 50 members and guests marched to the dining room to enjoy a very fine supper with Miss Violet Manojlovich presiding over her well lighted birthday cake.

EPSOM, Surrey, England (CP)—Epsom Downs Conservatives are asking Home Office permission for a by-law to prohibit the flying of model aircraft on the Downs, where recently a man's leg was broken by a power-driven model.

Moose Children Have Xmas Party

STEWART— Women of the Moose Saturday afternoon in the Moose Home entertained their children with a party they will long remember. Although the snow was over three feet deep some 27 children waded through snow with many a little head just above the congealed crystals. They arrived healthy and rosy-cheeked with shining eyes of expectancy. They romped, played games, drank cocoa, ate ice cream and were visited by a very good ing Santa Claus. When he arrived it was with relief they were assisted into coats and boots hom bound.
