

THE EVOLUTION OF DRESS

1,000 YEARS AGO!

Men wore clothing of some sort, but never before in the history of the world has man been able to clothe himself so smartly and economically as he can to-day through us.

$20 Suit or Overcoat to Measure (Carriage and Duty Paid) for $8.60. (Valued by thousands of Clients at $20.)

There is a distinctive style and finish about a "Curzon" Suit or Overcoat which the "ready to wear" or low-priced made-to-measure garments now sold in Canada lack. There is no resemblance between them. Indeed the "Curzon" cut and finish is hardly equalled, even in garments sold by the best Custom Tailors, whose charges are always excessive, if not altogether prohibitive. There is just that ease and comfort about our garments which give the wearer a "well-at-ease" appearance.

Then there is the cloth to remember: Nothing but real British Materials every time.

SPORT CLIPPINGS

Because he could not reach an amicable agreement with his former manager, Tom O'Rourke, Al. Palzer, the logical challenger for Jack Johnson's crown, has decided to quit the ring and go back to his father's farm in Iowa. Palzer says he will leave the ring for the present, but may come back in the game in a few years.

George Walker, a amateur middleweight champion wrestler, and a member of the Vancouver Athletic Club, has decided to enter the professional ranks.

Dave Gibbons, the Vancouver goal keeper who guarded the nets for the Toronto champions this year, is back on the coast. He was easily the best goal keeper in the "Big Four."

W. A. Miller, the western province forward, will be the captain of the Springboks, and his lieutenant will be F. J. Dobbin, the well known Griqualand West half back, on their coming tour in England.

The South Africa Football Association consultative committee is determined to stop betting in so far as preventive efforts can do so. The following resolution was recently passed: "The attention of the council having been called to the growing custom of the publication of football forecasts, and believing that such a practice is a direct incentive to betting, and not for the good of the game, resolved that it will be deemed misconduct under the rules of the association for any official, players or other member of the association, to publish or procure the publication of such forecasts."

That the Dominion championships in the track and field events are practically assured for British Columbia for 1913 was the news given out at the annual meeting of the British Columbia Amateur Athletic Union in the board room of the Vancouver Athletic Club.

Frank Chance either will be manager of the Chicago National baseball team next year or sever his connection with the team altogether. He so declared before leaving for Chicago, after reading despatches containing the announcement of Charles W. Murphy, president of the team, that he would not manage the Cubs next year.

James Coffroth, the San Francisco fight promoter, is trying to get Joe Mandot to come to the coast and fight Frankie Burns, of Oakland, on Thanksgiving Day.

FOGEL CLAIMS UMPIRE STOLE GAMES FROM HIS BALL CLUB

PRESIDENT OF PHILADELPHIA NATIONALS SAYS UMPIRE STOLE GAMES FOR NEW YORK GIANTS—LYNCH WILL LOSE HIS POSITION.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Flat charges that the umpire stole the National League pennant for the New York Giants was made by President Fogel of the Philadelphia Nationals in a signed statement published by the Chicago Evening Post.

The article says, in part: "Bad umpiring, so far as giving to the Phillies the worst of it, was crowded almost entirely into games played in New York. The more I protested, the more determined President Lynch became to assign unsatisfactory umpires and hand it to us. As time rolled on, I learned things from incidents and happenings which it would not be politic nor prudent for me to mention, but leading me to believe that Lynch was merely a figurehead, with a greater power behind him.

"Incidentally, my prediction is that his decapitation as president of the league will occur in no distant future.

"The players of all seven teams will tell you that the Giants got the best of the umpiring right along. They believe the reason is that the umpires are afraid of manager McGraw, and the influence of the New York Club with Lynch.

Had All Close Decisions

"I asked four club owners how many games they had lost in New York which would have gone the other way if the umpires had not given the Giants the best of every close decision. The lowest claim was two and the highest
