MORE THAN $300 REALIZED

OORP social bazaar gay social function

One of the most successful bazaars held in many years by the Order of the Royal Purple was enjoyed yesterday afternoon when hundreds of guests gatherd in the gaily decorated Elks lodge.

More than $300 was realized from the delightful annual function.

In a Yuletide decor of green and red streamers Honored Royal Lady and general convener, Mrs. James Flaten received at the door.

Tea tables were attractively decorated with miniature crystal ball centrepieces and booths displayed a large array of sewing and knitting articles, novelties and plants.

Christmas cakes and plum puddings were focused on the home-cooking table.

Tea room hostess was Mrs. Joseph Gallant and kitchen conveners were Mrs. Ralph Young and Mrs. Robert Currie while cashier was Mrs. Wallace Seymour.

Winning the ticket door prizes were Mrs. Louis Giordano, cosmetic case; Mrs. Andrew Menzies, electric clock; Mrs. Clara Bellamy, men's sweater; Mrs. M. Kinney, two pairs of men's socks and Mrs. Carl Andren, coffee carafe.

Raffles winners were Mrs. Louis Giordano, grocery hamper; Mrs. Arvid Sandhals towel hamper; Mrs. Sam Irvine, doll and doll's wardrobe and Mrs. Donald Hawryluk, cake.

LINEN, KITCHEN SHOWER FETES MARLENE GARBUTT

Wedding plans were presaged Monday night when some 20 friends gathered at the home of hostess Miss Judy Thomas to honor bride-elect Miss Marlene Garbutt whose marriage to Joseph Arseneau wil be an event of December 3.

Co-hostesses for the linen-kitchen shower party were Miss Bernice Raychuk and Miss Barbara Dodd.

Completely surprised, the guest-of-honor was seated in a decorated shower chair upon her arrival and there receivd hr lovely array of gifts arranged in a gaily decorated basket presented to her by her sister and bridesmaid-elect Miss Shirlene Garbutt.

Highpoint of the delightful party-fare was a surprise long-distance telephone call from childhood friend Miss Ann Christison, who is attending business school in Vancouver.

Games and refreshments which included a "Good uck" bride's cake made by Mrs. Louis Gastaldini, comprised the night's activities.

Keen Scouters training course held

While the training course held for Scout and Cub leaders November 19 and 20 at the Aero Club, Seal Cove was disappointing in numbers. Those who did attend received a great many leadership benefits, it was announced.

Of 16 persons who began the course, 13 will be eligible for certificates, it was reported.

Under the direction of Field Commissioner John Miller classes were conducted in all phases of basic training in Troop and Cub work, during the three intensive sessions held during the two-day period.

Assisting Field Commissioner Miller with Troop programming were William Donaldson and David Ridsdale while William Bissett, in charge of Cub programming, was assisted by Carl Wilson and Jack Hurst.

At the conclusion of the course a social hour was enjoyed when the executive of the Prince Rupert District Boy Scouts Association provided a Chinese supper for all in attendance.

Father, son Air Cadet fete November 29

The presentation of two trophies to be awarded cadets of the Royal Canadian Air Force Cadet Squadron No. 559 will highlight the annual "Father and Son Banquet," it was announced.

At the Monday night meeting of the sponsoring committee of the squadron, President E. T. Schooley announced that plans were completed for the annual fete.

The banquet will be held Tuesday, November 29 at 7 p.m. in the Bamboo Room of the Broadway Cafe.

In other business a report was submitted by C. D. Bruce, committee vice-president and Flt.-Lt. Douglas Hague, Officer Commanding of Cadets, on the successful Tri-Service Cadet ball held last Saturday night.
