Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Brooks, of Terrace, left last night on the Prince Rupert on a trip to Vancouver. They arrived in the city from the interior on Tuesday night's train.

MISSIONARY TEA SUCCESS

Spring flowers adorned the social hall of First Presbyterian Church Wednesday afternoon and made an attractive setting for a spring tea and sale of home cooking which was a successful affair with upwards of $50 being realized.

The guests were received by Mrs. Harry Calderwood, president of the W.M.S., and Mrs. G. E. Sendall, wife of the pastor.

Joint conveners of the tea room were Mrs. J. A. Teng and Mrs. J. M. Keays, assisted by Mrs. N. S. K. Brewer. Pouring were Mrs. J. M. Simpson, Mrs. W. E. Chapple and Mrs. J. W. Eastwood. The serviteurs were Mrs. W. W. Bowes, Mrs. Joseph Delorme, Mrs. John McLeod and Mrs. M. Erickson. Acting as cashier was Mrs. J. W. McKinley.

The home cooking table was in charge of Mrs. W. Stark and Mrs. H. C. Halliday.

A feature of the afternoon was the attendance of the members of the Mission Band of Explorers' Group under the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Wilson-Murray.

The Most Beautiful Thing on Wheels

PONTIAC
INVITES YOU TO COMPARE PRICES

When you've seen the attractive lines of Pontiac for '49, you only know half the story. When you glance at the prices, you'll know the climax — that Pontiac, the most beautiful thing on wheels, can be bought for much less than you expected.

All the integrity, all the fine features you deserve . . . like thrift and power, dependability and comfort, safety and ease-of-driving . . . they're all built into Pontiac.

And yet — the price is so close — so very close — to the lowest that it's being applauded all over the country!

Because Pontiac offers such truly remarkable value, more and more people, everywhere, are insisting that only Pontiac is acceptable. Such popularity means, of course, that your Pontiac dealer may not be able to make delivery without some delay. But production lines are rolling as fast as Pontiac's high standard of quality will permit . . . so keep in touch with your dealer, who is anxious to add your name to the ever-growing list of proud, enthusiastic Pontiac owners.
