Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

BRINGING UP FATHER

SINGLE GYROS GET REVENGE OVER LESS FORTUNATE BRETHREN

Single Gyros got revenge from their benedict brethren for a reecnt baseball defeat when they turned the tables on them in a return game at Acropolis Hill grounds Sunday morning by a score of 7-5 in a spirited (not artificial) five inning match. Casualties were shared by the two sides—Bill Cruickshank and George Tite, jr., both sustaining bunged-up fingers.

Bill Tobey pitched wicked ball for the Married men for four innings and was jerked so Stan Taylor might make his farewell appearance on the local mound. Joe Gosse, for the single men, slung a mean right and was followed by Bob Robertson, who held his opponents scoreless, only to give way to Jimmy Farquhar who let them have three runs in the final frame.

The service club players were:

Single Men—George Tite, jr., c.; Joe Gosse, p.; Doug. Stork, 1b.; Dave Balfour, 2b.; Jimmy Farquhar, ss.; Bob Robertson, ss.; Norris Pringle, cf.; Norm Freeman, rf.; Alex Connon, lf.

Married—Bill Cruickshank, c.; Bill Tobey, p.; Milt. Gonzales, 1b.; Stan. Taylor, 2b.; Morris Blott, ss.; Billy Balagno, 3b.; Bill Tobey, jr., rf.; Charlie Mills, cf., Lou Kergin, lf.

Lionel Holtby was umpire and the Single Men agreed that he was fair to them for once.

There will be a return game if all the Gyros who are single today don't get married before another fine Sunday rolls around.

LOCAL SEA CADETS HAVE LAST PARADE

Twenty-five members of the local Navy League's Sea Cadet Corps had their final bathing parade of the season at the Salt Lakes on Saturday afternoon with Chief Petty Officer George J. Dawes of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve in charge of the party.

Races were won as follows:

Sea Cadets' Swimming Championship.—100 yards, 1, Bob Boddie; 2, Jack Cade; 3, Jack Brady.

This season's learners' handicap, 30 yards.—1, Leslie Murdock, -2 seconds start; Vincent Dodd, go; 3, Jack Brady, scratch.

There were close finishes in both races.

SPORT CHAT

It may be regarded as somewhat in the nature of a coincidence that lacrosse, once Canada's undisputed national game, was placed on an organized footing in Confederation year, when a gathering of expert players and lovers of the game met at Kingston to frame rules and legislate for the future conduct of the sport. For forty years after that period lacrosse grew and flourished, but for some fifteen years the game showed symptoms of losing its popularity. The newer generations did not take to lacrosse as did their fathers, and today the game can scarcely justify its once proud title of Canada's national pastime.

In winter sports, however, another form of athletic endeavor was born in the middle of the 80's and has now assumed the place once held in the affections of the public by lacrosse. This is hockey, which today is played by countless organizations from coast to coast.

Another development by no means confined to Canada has been the rise of golf. Thousands of clubs have sprung up. There is scarcely a town of any size in the country, and certainly none with any pretensions to fashionable sport, that has not its golf links and club house.

Football, introduced into Canada by by British soldiers after the conquest of Quebec, did not make any particular headway until adopted by the colleges and universities about 1880. The game is still largely a college sport and has a strong hold on the student body and graduates.
