Misunderstanding Regarding Salaries

Figures used in a story regarding teachers' salaries Thursday quoted the salary schedules now received by the elementary school teachers as ranging from $1,800 to $3,000 and those of high school teachers as from $2,100 to $3,600. Actually, the current salary schedules range from $1,600 to $2,800 for elementary teachers and from $1,900 to $3,400 for high school.

The higher figures were given because of a misunderstanding regarding last year's basic salaries which a $200 annual increase was approved by the School Board Wednesday night.

The reporter who questioned the School Board secretary took the figures given as the 1947 "basic", while actually they were the 1948 salaries and included the $200 increase.

Reminiscences and Reflections
By W.J.

Should one feel the urge to chop down trees on Kaien Island, where this fair city also grows, pause and give a far-away look. You can make yourself liable. You should have lived here about 41 years ago. Then, you would have been paid for swinging an axe—not fined. Clearing the townsite meant a steady job!

Getting in on the ground floor is all very well, yet there are times when it's just as well, at first, to think it over for 30 or 35 years.

It is a privilege to be able to give a little of your time, now and then, to books that print British Columbia history. At first glance they may be thought dry. Far, far from it. The ingenious ways in which a public servant, back in the seventies, could call another public servant a son-of-a-gun was undoubtedly a work of art. It was done, of course, by mail, but performed with such delicacy, dignity—and veiled cruelty.

In January, 1848, gold was discovered on the shores of the American River in California by James W. Marshall, who was building a sawmill for John Sutter, trader and land owner of Sacramento. That's about a hundred years ago. It's also about three months since gold was found in Westview, Prince Rupert, up in Canada.

From the town of Newport in Monmouthshire, Eng., came the stimulating news yesterday that the picture of a nude girl smoking a cigarette, bought recently for a thousand pounds would remain in the town's art gallery despite protests. Anyway, conflicting schools of thought might reach a compromise by moving the maiden away from the art gallery and building a well appointed room around her.

SHIPS and WATERFRONT

Union steamer Cassiar, Capt. Alex McLennan, from Vancouver via the south end of the Queen Charlotte Islands, and the steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, from Vancouver via "Inside Passage" coastal points, are due in port this evening—the former at 8:15 p.m. and the latter at 10 p.m. Both will sail at midnight, the Cassiar for Massett Inlet whence she is due back here Sunday morning, and the Catala on her return to Vancouver over the same route whence she comes.

BRITISH PEOPLE ARE NOT HUNGRY

OTTAWA—Mary Sutherland, chief woman officer of the British Labor Party, criticizes stories picturing present-day Britain as a country of hungry people. "We are living austerely, but not going ill-fed," she said. "In New York I spent more time waiting for elevators in one week-end than I ever spent queuing in London in a week."

ganization which had been known as "UNRRA." It had saved thousands of lives, she claimed, and many children and streets in many towns bear the name of UNRRA, bespeaking gratitude.

Speaking on the work of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada, Dr. Hitschmanova described it as a voluntary relief organization. They operate convalescent homes for waifs and are conducted on a strictly non-sectarian, non-racial, non-political basis—the only criterion is human need.

Anyone or any group may become a foster parent by sending $15 a month for three months. In return, they receive a case history and a picture of the adopted child. They may correspond with the child and send small parcels.

Dr. Hitschmanova stressed the importance of immediate help. The next few months are critical, and soon it will be too late to save many of them, she believed.

To illustrate the work being done by the Unitarian Service Committee and the dire necessity of continual help, she showed slides, using "before" and "after" pictures she, personally, had taken of children now being cared for in these homes, as well as other scenes of devastated Europe.

"A great stream of gratitude is flowing over here for what has been done for us," asserted Dr. Hitschmanova, "and a great friendship is being built. To many people 'Canada' is a magic word."

Dr. Lotta Hitschmanova left last night for Vancouver and may be heard again over the CBC on the Ellen Harris program at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, February 11.

MOOSE WOMEN HERE HONORED

Mrs. J. Kasper Is Appointed Associate Dean

The women of the Moose in Prince Rupert have been accorded a special honor with the appointment of Mrs. J. Kasper to the office of Associate Dean. As there are only two Associate Deans in all the clubs of Canada the local club and Mrs. Kasper feel justly proud of the appointment.

At the regular meeting held Wednesday night tribute was paid to Mrs. Kasper when Senior Regent Bond, chairman of the meeting, pinned a beautiful corsage on the new dean. Following the ceremony Mrs. Kasper gave a brief talk thanking the members for their good wishes.

Now that the Prince Rupert Women of the Moose have an Associate Dean it will mean that practically all members of clubs in British Columbia, qualified to enter the Academy of Friendship, will have to come to Prince Rupert where the initiations will be conducted by Mrs. Kasper.

During the business meeting the club voted a donation of $5 to the "March of Dimes" campaign and $2.50 to the Film Council. In the luck box draw Mrs. E. H. Lattery won the $3 prize. While refreshments were being served, the membership committee raffled a cup and saucer. Mrs. H. Tweed was the lucky winner.

PRAIRIE BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED

Honoring Miss Jacqueline Majore, who recently arrived from Fort Qu'appelle, Saskatchewan, to become the bride of Robert H. Simonds here on Saturday, Mrs. Angus Gillis was hostess to a number of friends at her home Thursday evening.

The evening was spent playing bingo, prize-winners being Mrs. A. Smith and Mrs. M. Garbell. A delicious luncheon followed after which an electrically-lighted log house, filled with many lovely and useful gifts, was brought in. The gifts were opened by the bride-elect.

Those present were Miss Jacqueline Majore, Mrs. . Majore, sr., Mrs. A. Majore, jr., Mrs. A. Bendiksen Mrs. W. J. Lineham, Mrs H. Hale, Mrs. M. Shaw, Mrs. A. Smith, Mrs. R. Walker, Mrs. J. D. Gillis, Mrs. J. J. Gillis, Mrs. O. Anderson, Mrs. M. Garbell, Mrs. A. Gillis, Mrs. C. Simonds, Miss Helen Richmond, Miss Dorothy Stacey, Miss Janet Rackow

FOR HELP OF EUROPE

"Something more ought to be done about clothing for overseas and we ought to do it." Such was the conclusion reached at a recent meeting of the Young Peoples's Union of the United Church. The group will be working in co-operation with Canadian Church Relief Abroad, an agency representing major Canadian Protestant denominations. From a depot in Toronto food and clothing will be sent to Asia and to Western Europe.

The job the Young People's Union have set themselves is to collect clothing in Prince Rupert and to see that it gets to the central depot for shipment overseas. Other youth groups and churches in the city are being contacted for co-operation.

Clothing may be left at the United Church on Friday afternoons or on Sundays.

Gifts of money for food and for shipping charges can be left at Thompson's Hardware.

Rev. R. A. Wilson is in charge of the drive. Reg Martin is president of the Y.P.U. and Mary McAfee is secretary.
