Seventeen records broken during meet

WINNIPEG (CP)—Eastern men and Western women dominated the 10-member swimming and diving team which will represent Canada in Olympic Games in Rome this summer.

The squad of five men and five women was selected by a seven-man committee early today during a 4½ hour session following completion of the three-day open Canadian swimming and diving championships and Olympic trials at the suburban Fort Garry open-air 25-metre pool.

Named to the team were male swimmers Cameron Grout, Richard Pound, Steve Rabinovitch, all of Montreal, and Bob Wheaton of Victoria; female swimmers Sara Barber of Brantford, Ont., and Marg Iwasaki, Judy McHale and Mary Stewart, all of Vancouver; and Canada's diving champions Ernie Meissner of Kitchener, Ont., and Irene MacDonald of Kelowna.

Alternates are swimmers Tom Verth of Toronto and Katy Campbell of Vancouver. Coach is John Faulkner of the University of Western Ontario.

FEW SURPRISES

There were few surprises in the selections.

Grout was expected to be the No. 1 choice as he emerged the individual star of the meet with four victories. The 18-year-old youth established Canadian records in finals of three of them—the 200-metre free style, 400-metre individual medley and 200-metre butterfly. Grout also set a record in his heat in the 100-metre butterfly and then went on to win the final—but in slower time.

All told, seventeen records were written into the books at the meet.

Breaststroke specialist Rabinovitch cracked Canadian marks in the 100-metre and 200-metre events, while Wheaton duplicated the performance in the men's 100 and 200-metre backstroke.

Other record-holders in the men's division are Pound, who won the 100-metre free style, and Verth, winner of the 400-metre free style.

QUEBEC TEAM SETS MARK

The 11th record in the men's class went to Quebec section team in the 400-metre free style relay. The team, which also won the 400-metre medley relay Wednesday night, consisted of Yvon Blanchette, Rabinovitch, Pound and Grout.

Topping the women's section was 18-year-old Miss Barber, who set two records and won three championships. She created new marks in the 400-metre individual medley and the 100-metre backstroke, then capped off a successful showing with a triumph in the 200-metre backstroke.

The two other women's records were set by Miss McHale in the 100-metre breaststroke, and Miss Iwasaki in the 200-metre free style. Both were double winners, with Judy also taking the 200-metre breaststroke, and Marg the 100-metre butterfly.

Other women champions crowned at the meet were Miss Stewart—100-metre free style, Miss Campbell—400-metre free style; and Lois Wood of Toronto—one-metre springboard diving.

The Vancouver Dolphins — Iwasaki, Pam Wilson, McHale and Stewart—triumphed in the 400-metre medley relay, then repeated in the 400-metre free style relay, with Miss Campbell replacing Miss McHale.

The last two records were broken in the junior class. Bob Pratt of Toronto cracked the mark in the 11 and 12 year division 100-metre breaststroke, and Sandy Gilchrist of Ocean Falls, B.C., in the 13 and 14 years 100-metre backstroke.

LOOKING FOR TITLE — Bob Cleroux, 21-year-old Montreal boxer with a record of 18 wins and a draw in 20 professional fights, has his sights set on George Chuvalo's Canadian heavyweight crown. Golf champion eliminated

VICTORIA (CP) — Defending champion Ron Willey of Vancouver was eliminated Thursday in the quarter finals of the 57th annual British Columbia Amateur Golf Championship by Victoria Amateur champion Laurie Kerr.

Today's semi-finalists will be Kerr and Dickie Munn of Victoria and Bill and Joe Jeroski of Vancouver.

Willey was defeated when the 30-year-old Kerr fired birdies on the 13th and 14th holes to knock win 4 and 2.

Kerr now meets Bird, who reached the semis by defeating Victoria's John Merriman, 3 and 1.

Munn, Victoria junior champion, continued his fine play by trouncing Frank Scroggs of Victoria, 6 and 5.

Mathews' hitting spree sees Braves blank Bucs

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Ed Mathews was in a slump so bad he was even talking about it. Milwaukee's slugging third baseman hadn't hit a home run in 19 games and his batting average was down to .266 with just two hits in 27 trips.

The second place Braves were stumbling along the same way, losing 11 of their last 19 games. What's worse, they had managed to beat first place Pittsburgh just three times in 13 tries. And they were 0-4 against little lefty Harvey Haddix of the Pirates.

They buried the slumps and the Haddix jinx but good Thursday night, winning 4-0 at Pittsburgh as Mathews walloped a home run, a triple and a double while driving in three runs behind the five-hit pitching of Bob Buhl and Lew Burdette's neat, ninth-inning relief.

The loss, coming in a make-up game while the rest of the major league clubs were resting after the all-star games, trimmed the Pirates' lead to four games.

It was during the all-star games, which don't count in regular season statistics, that Mathews mentioned the slump he was trying to shake — and showed signs of shaking it by belting a two-run homer in Wednesday's 6-0 victory over the American League at New York's Yankee stadium.

Oddly, the left-handed hitting Mathews broke the slump against three left-handed pitchers. It was Yankee Whitey Ford who gave up his all-star jolt, and it was Haddix and reliever Fred Green who were tagged for his extra-bases hits at Pittsburgh.

Billy Bruton, Del Crandall and Mathews each had three of the Braves' 15 hits against the Pirates and a dozen of them were off Haddix, now 6-5 for the year.

Bruton's leadoff single and Mathews' double gave the Braves a 1-0 lead in the first inning. Then, with Bruton on base again, Mathews walloped his 17th home run in the fifth inning. It was the seventh ever to clear the roof of the double-deck right field stands at Forbes Field, and the second Mathews has sent over that barrier.

The Braves got their final run in the ninth, when Mathews tripled and scored on Joe Adcock's squeeze bunt.

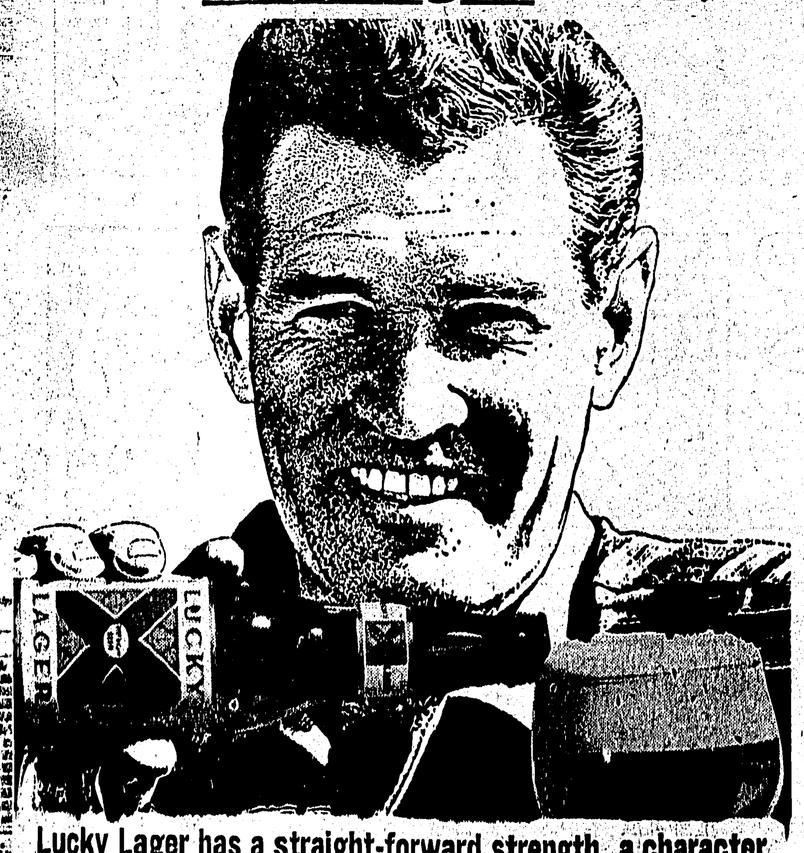
LUCKY LAGER
the real lager beer



Lucky Lager has a straight-forward strength, a character you just don't get in other beers... HERE'S WHY:

Lucky Lager combines the best barley, the most flavorful hops, the purest water and the most modern brewing. Nothing but the best can produce true lager beer.

Lucky Lager is a special process from start to finish. A famous German brewing technique and extra ageing gives Lucky it's renowned body, taste and aroma.

Lucky Lager has a clean-cut taste that says "real beer." Germans call lager "wunderbares bier" — the magnificent beer. British Columbians call it Lucky Lager.
