New York, Pittsburgh clinch pennant

Bucs fulfill dream as World Series set

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

A dream 33 years in the making came true for Pittsburgh Pirates Sunday. They are the champions of the National League.

It was in 1927 that the Pirates last won the National League flag. They met New York Yankees in the world series and were humiliated in four straight. Danny Murtaugh, the manager who led Pittsburgh to the title, was a boy of nine then.

Now, more than a quarter of a century later, the Pirates will try to even the old score, for they'll meet the Yanks again.

The Pirates won the pennant Sunday in unglamourous fashion, bowing to Milwaukee Braves, 4-2, when Eddie Mathews blasted a home run in the bottom of the 10th inning.

But it was the humble Chicago Cubs, and pitcher Glen Hobbie in particular, who came to the rescue og the Buccos. Hobbie, beaten by St. Louis only last Friday, came back to hold the Cards to six hits to enable the Cubs to win, 5-0.

That mathematically eliminated the Cards, and, in fact, pushed them into third place behind Milwaukee.

OTHER GAMES

In other National League action, Philadelphia Phillies downed Cincinnati Reds, 7-1, and San Francisco Giants toppled Los Angeles Dodgers, 13-9.

The series will open on October 5 in Pittsburgh. The first two games will be played at Forbes Field. Then there will be an off day, and the teams will play the next three games in New York on October 8-9-10. If it isn't over by then, it's back to Pittsburgh for the final two games after another day off on October 12-13.

Back in 1927, the Pirates faced the great Yankee murderers' row, led by Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, in the series. Yet, it was the Yankee pitching that won it. The Pirates managed to score only 10 runs in the four games. In fact, only two homers were hit in the series, both by Ruth.

MADE NINE HITS

Home runs by Joe Koppe and Tony Gonzales spearheaded Philadelphia's nine-hit attack on the Reds. Willie Kirkland drove in four runs, three with a homer and a double in an eight-run second inning, in the Giants victory over the Dodgers.

On Saturday the Pirates, although beaten by Milwaukee and Lew Burdette 4-2, were assured of no worse than a tie when the second-place St. Louis Cardinals lost to Chicago Cubs, 5-4.

In other Saturday games, Jim Maloney pitched a four-hitter and fanned 11 as Philadelphia blanked Cincinnati 5-0. San Francisco and Los Angeles were idle.

Just 11 days ago, New York Yankees were clinging to the American League lead by one thin percentage point and it was a leaky ship Casey Stengel was piloting.

The Yanks had just lost two straight to their country cousins, the Kansas City As. A drastic patching job was needed with a four-game set coming up with the second-place Baltimore Orioles.

Stengel did the job, the leaks were plugged, the ship got on an even keel. The Orioles tumbled to four straight defeats and today the Yanks are the champions of the American League for the 10th time in the past 12 years.

Since that day more than a week ago, the Yanks haven't lost. They've won nine in a row, including the clincher, a 4-3 decision over the Boston Red Sox Sunday. To Cleveland Indians goes a large assist. The Tribe blanked Chicago, 4-0, eliminating the White Sox.

YANKS' 25TH

The pennant is the Yanks' 25th in 40 years, a record that probably never will be equalled. The Giants are next with 17 pennants. In the American League the No. 2 club in pennant production was the old Philadelphia As with nine, all under Connie Mack.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Ralph Terry—with a one-batter assist from Luis Arroyo—pitched the Yanks to their deciding victory. Two months ago, Terry was strictly excess baggage on the New York pitching staff. At one point, he had the dubious distinction of pitching to 11 batters, 10 of whom hit safely.

He was untouchable from the fourth until the ninth when he yielded three singles and one run. With the tying run on third, Arroyo came to the rescue and forced Pete Runnels, the league's batting-leader, to foul out.

Roger Maris drove in two Yanks runs and it was Terry himself—an .068 hitter—who doubled home what proved to be the deciding run.

WITH FOUR HITS

Bobby Locke took care of the White Sox for the Indians. He let the pale hose down with just four hits, and worse yet, dropped them into third place behind the Orioles, who whipped Washington Senators, 3-1.

Detroit Tigers pushed across two runs in the ninth inning to edge the As 6-5, in the other AL game.

On Saturday, the Yankees, running their winning streak to eight, beat Boston 6-5 on Mickey Mantle's 10th-inning homer. The White Sox lost to Cleveland 6-5 in 12 innings.

Baltimore beat Washington 10-9.

Stampeders down Lions 28-14 in game played under protest

By The Canadian Press

One of the high-flying teams of the Western Interprovincial Football Union clashes with the downtrodden tonight when Calgary Stampeders meet Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Saskatchewan, without a win this season, will be host in Regina to Stampeders, one win away from the third and last play-off spot.

In other league action the top two teams in the league Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Edmonton Eskimos, meet in Winnipeg. Esks will be out to crack the 10-game winning streak racked up by Bombers this year.

In weekend action Calgary handed British Columbia Lions, present holders of third place, a 28-14 defeat at Calgary. Only one point separates the two teams.

WIFU STANDINGS

	P	W	L	T	F	A	Pts.
Winnipeg	10	10	0	0	285	135	20
Edmonton	9	7	2	0	223	102	14

Calgary	10	2	6	2	191	268	6
Sask.	8	0	7	1	81	209	1

British Columbia added more spice to the WIFU scene by announcing at half-time during the Calgary game that they were playing the game under protest.

Lions disputed a call by referee Paul Dojack in the first quarter. Dojack ruled Lions rushers roughed kicker Ronnie Morris in blocking a punt. B.C. recovered the ball but Stamps took over and sent Doug Brown in to kick a field goal.

Public announcement of the protest was made during a half-time television interview with general manager Herb Capozzi.

Stamps jumped into a 10-0 lead during the first quarter, increased the edge to 13-7 at the half but trailed 14-13 at the third quarter mark before scoring two touchdowns for the win.

MORRIS AND BROWN STAR

Turning in exceptional jobs for Stampeders were Ronnie Morris and Doug Brown. Morris intercepted two of Randy Duncan's passes and ran one of them 35 yards for a touchdown. Brown's fine kicking, under slightly windy conditions, accounted for two field goals and three converts.

Duncan's return to action after five games on the B.C. bench was inauspicious—his was the only passes intercepted during the game.

Don Stone, Morris and Gene Filipski scored touchdowns for Calgary, with Morris kicking a fourth-quarter single. Don Vicic and Nub Beamer scored touchdowns for B.C. and George Grant converted both.

Calgary's two games with Saskatchewan this year have resulted in a 15-15 tie—for Roughies only point of the season—and a 23-15 win that was not considered easy.

Winnipeg has beaten Edmonton in each of their previous meetings, by tight scores of 18-14 and 15-14.

PTACEK AT QUARTER

Bob Ptacek will take to the field in quarterback slot for Saskatchewan, taking over from Don Allard after sitting out five games with an injured ankle. Bobby Renn will be back in action to replace injured fullback Ray Smith.

Bill Decoligny(CP) a late cut by Chicago Bears, may go in at tackle.

Winnipeg will be dressing Charlie Shephard, sidelined with a torn ligament, but will use him for punting only.

Buddy Tinsley, who picked up a mashed nose in a recent game with B.C., will be back in action with a special face guard protecting the injured nose from further damage. He has been having some trouble breathing because of the injury.

Stamps will show up in Regina with relatively the same team they used against Lions Saturday, with Joe Kapp at quarter and Kurt Burris still out with an injured ankle.

Edmonton left five players at home: Guards Art Walker and Roy Stevenson, tackles Nat Dye and Jack Lamb and quarterback Don Getty, who still is out with a knee injury.

NHL teams triumphant in weekend exhibitions

By The Canadian Press

Winnipeg Warriors were the only non-NHL team to score a victory as the National Hockey League deployed its six members against challengers from secondary professional leagues during the weekend.

The NHLers came away with seven wins, one tie and a 5-4 loss by Boston Bruins to the Western Hockey League Warriors. Rookie Don Bamburak sparked the Winnipeg attack with two goals.

Don Ward, Howie Hughes and Gordie Rodahl scored the other Winnipeg goals. Boston goals were scored by Bronco Horvath, Doug Mohns, Leo Labine and Don McKenney. Veteran goaltender Harry Lumley made 26 stops for Warriors while Don Simmons blocked 28 for Boston.

Bruins did better in a second game against Winnipeg Saturday. Jerry Toppazzini fired three first-period goals, Guy Gendron got five assists and Horvath scored twice to give Boston a 9-2 victory.

RANGERS WIN TWICE

New York Rangers took on the Eastern Professional League twice, defeating Sudbury Wolves 6-2 Saturday and pasting Hull-Ottawa Canadiens 7-1 Sunday. The wins gave Rangers eight straight exhibition victories.

Challengers from the American League fared better. Quebec Aces held Toronto Maple Leafs to a 1-1 tie.

Rochester Americans led Montreal Canadiens 1-0 for two periods before going down 3-1 and Buffalo Bisons, leading 3-2 going into the third, finally lost 5-3 to Chicago Black Hawks.

Detroit Red Wings retained their undefeated exhibition record with a 5-2 win over Spokane Comets of the WHL. Detroit's Gordie Howe monopolized scoring with the season's first three-goal effort.

The Wings dumped Seattle Totems, another WHL team 6-1 Sunday night. Val Fontayne, former Seattle player, scored three goals in the second period. Rookie Greg Jablonski got Seattle's only goal.

Thanksgiving bonspiel approved by curlers

Plans to open the 1960 curling season with a mixed bonspiel during the Thanksgiving weekend, October 5, 9, and 10th, were approved by a well-attended meeting of the Prince Rupert Curling Club, last Monday night.

Drawmaster Jack Mitchell anticipates a full draw of 64 rinks for the double-knockout competition.

The meeting, chaired by president Doug Kerr, decided upon turkeys for the top rinks.

The winning rink will also be the first defender of the club's Challenge Trophy, which is to be contested every Sunday throughout the season by a different challenging rink.

Members also expressed approval for the suggestion to organize a Saturday afternoon curling league for any interested teams.

Anyone wishing to curl or sponsor a team in such a league, is asked to contact either Jack Laurie at 4523; T. G. Bateman at 2617; or Jack Paul at 2460.
