NEWS ITEMS OF TERRACE, B. C.

Terrace, Oct. 9.—Everything is very quiet around town these days, as nearly everyone has joined in the rush for the Kitsumkalum gold fields. Among those who have gone are George Little, T. A. McMartin, McLaren Gordon, James Stewart, J. A. Michaud, D. B. Kenney and others.

Mrs. George Kime, of Winnipeg, is a visitor at the home of Mrs. E. Large.

Mr. Little is having a new and larger boiler installed in the saw mill. As a result, the mill is not in operation.

Dr. Traynor is erecting a fine new stable on Greig avenue.

Quite a number from here attended the dance given by Mrs. Ross in the Kitsumkalum Hotel on Monday evening. All enjoyed themselves immensely. Mrs. Ross makes a fine hostess and everyone was sorry to hear that she is going out for the winter.

WILSON HITS AT ROOSEVELT

Democratic Candidate Says Teddy Is Leader of Trusts—First Time He Attacks.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 10.—For the first time since the presidential campaign began, Governor Woodrow Wilson indulged in a bitter personal attack on either of his opponents. After declaring that Roosevelt was hand in glove with the Wall Street interests, the Democratic candidate said:

"I was saying to some of my newspaper companions a little while ago that if I were a cartoonist I would draw a picture of the biggest monopolies of the United States, drawn up in line, and in front Mr. Roosevelt trying to lead them in a hallelujah chorus."

Frank O'Brien was a passenger to Seattle this morning on the Prince George on a couple of weeks' vacation.

OLD COUNTRY NEWS NOTES.

An old gentleman, prosecuted at Highgate police court for fishing from his back garden, in spite of repeated remonstrances, in the New River, set up the defense that though the water belonged to the metropolitan water board, the fish, which were in their natural state, belonged to no one. He was fined 5 shillings.

A miner was fined 10 shillings at Gateshead on Thursday for having struck a fellow workman with a safety lamp in Washington collieries. It was stated that the mine was "gassy," and had the glass broken the consequences might have been serious.

"We always serve port as a teetotal drink. I know it is intoxicating, but all our teetotalers drink it," said a Thiesk landlady who was summoned for supplying port wine to three boys under 14 years.

A Chicago banking house purchased $150,000 of Bassano waterworks and sewerage debentures. The contract for building these systems was awarded at a cost of $140,000.

Maltese Labor for B. C.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 11.—One thousand Maltese laborers are being brought to British Columbia to work in the lumber mills and other industries. Their families will also be brought out to Canada.

Pleasant Evening.

Music, cards and dancing helped to while away a few short hours in the most delightful fashion at the Catholic Hall last evening, when a large gathering of both young and old met together, and a most enjoyable time was spent. The affair, which was open to all, was in aid of the Catholic Church, and great praise and thanks are due Mrs. W. H. Kinkade, who took such a prominent part in the arrangements, tending to make the whole entertainment such a pronounced success.

Australian Insurance Scheme.

Melbourne, Oct. 11.—The Australian Liberals have adopted a national insurance scheme, based on Lloyd-George's bill. The scheme is opposed by the Laborites.

RE VOTERS' LIST.

I am instructed by the City Council to publish the following notice with regard to voting at the next municipal election. The persons who will be inserted on the voters' list are as follows: 1. Owners of real estate. This means any person who has a deed of land registered in the Land Registry Office or an agreement for purchase of land registered in the Registry Office. 2. Any person who has land under agreement from the Grand Trunk or the government whose title is not registered in the Land Registry Office, and their right to vote is doubtful. Therefore, voters so situated are advised if possible to register either as householder or license holder. 3. Any person holding a trade license may vote, but before doing so he must, in October, make a declaration showing his right to vote in Form 1. These forms can be obtained at the City Clerk's office. The declaration must be filed with the City Clerk within forty-eight hours after it is made. 4. Any householder can vote. A householder means a person who has resided in Prince Rupert from the 1st of January, 1912, and who occupies a dwelling, tenement, hotel or boarding house, or any portion of a dwelling house, tenement, hotel or boarding house. He must also pay rates, taxes or assessments which are not chargeable on land, and which rates, taxes and assessments so paid amount to not less than $2.00. Water rates and dog licenses do not count. Practically the only tax that can be paid is the road tax, $2.00, and any person who, being a householder as above described, has already paid his road tax must also make a declaration before he can be placed on the voters' list. All voters must be 21 years of age and British subjects. ERNEST A. WOODS, City Clerk. 240-241-246-247-250
