GUNMEN LINED UP CLUBMEN

Money, Jewellery and Watches Taken Amounting to Several Thousands

TORONTO, Dec. 9.—Gunmen thought to have been participants in Detroit's recent gamblers' war carried their battle to Toronto when three masked, armed thugs swooped down on the clubrooms of the Riverside Athletic Association. Between twenty-five and forty members were lined against the wall and stripped of money, jewelry and watches, and other articles of value. Three alleged handbook operators caught in the room by the gunmen lost large sums. The amount of the money stolen, as reported to police, was $3,500. This was not an official report. In view of the fact that police were not called to the place, they have taken no action. At a late hour in the night it was made known to the press that police had not entered the clubrooms.

GUNS FLOURISHED

Of late the association has been operating as a "night club." Those trapped in the raid had returned some time after midnight from a bout at the Coliseum. A number of them were sitting in an anteroom, while others were gathered around two billiard tables in a larger room, facing Bolton Avenue, and situated on the third floor. The robbers, with handkerchiefs as masks, came in single file up the winding stairs from the second floor. Approaching the anteroom, they flourished their guns.

All those sitting around were herded into the big room and commanded to line up with their faces to the wall. Using bad language and swinging their revolvers as though they might open fire at any moment, the robbers ordered the men to "hustle" in getting into place. One of the robbers had a revolver in each hand. He stood just inside of the entrance to the clubroom. The other two took up positions at either side of the billiard tables, and directed the victims as to what they should do.

ALL SEARCHED.

A fourth gangster stood on guard at the entrance to the building to prevent anyone from getting upstairs. Starting at one end of the place, one of the robbers took the men in pairs to the pool table located nearest the door. Here he told them to empty their money on to the table. After this was done each man was searched. Tie pins, watches and cuff links were pulled from their clothing and thrown on to the table. As each pair was searched, the men were sent back to stand in their former positions along the wall.

FORMER LOCAL LADY MARRIED IN SAANICH

Miss Sarah Coote Became Bride of Ross Patterson Recently, Rev. M. W. Lees Officiating

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in the South Saanich United Church recently when Rev. M. W. Lees united in marriage Miss Sarah Coote, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles John Coote, of Edmonton, and Ross Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Patterson, of Tyrone, Ireland.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Alexander Patterson, looked charming in a gown of ivory flat crepe fashioned in cape effect, caught at the waist with a silver buckle and finished with touches of silver. The beautifully embroidered bridal veil was caught to her head with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of carnations, chrysanthemums and shamrock.

She was attended by Miss Sadie Patterson as bridesmaid and by Miss Matilda Patterson as flower girl, nieces of the groom, who were prettily gowned alike in frocks of pale blue silk trimmed with lace, with silver ribbon bandeaux in their hair. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations and fern, and the flower girl carried a dainty gold basket of similar flowers. The groom was supported by Harry Gibson, of James Island.

Miss Alma Heyer presided at the organ and played the wedding marches. The hymn sung was "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The church had been prettily decorated with autumn flowers and foliage.

Following the ceremony the reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Patterson, East Saanich Road, attended only by immediate relatives and friends. The daintily decorated tea table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, which was cut by the bride.

The groom's gift to the organist was a brooch, to the attendants blue pearl necklaces, and to the best man a watch chain. The happy couple left on the midnight boat for Vancouver, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride travelled in a gown of green crepe de chine trimmed with velvet, and wrap and hat of toast brown shade. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Patterson will take up their residence on James Island.

Mrs. Patterson formerly resided in Prince Rupert. She is the sister of Mrs. Dickens, 233 Eighth Avenue East.

URGES RIGHT TO SHOOT GAME BY PROSPECTORS AND LAND SURVEYORS

VANCOUVER, Dec. 8.—"It is a serious thing that a prospector cannot shoot for food, when game is out of season," declared Alderman Frank E. Woodside, president of the B.C. Chamber of Mines, at the monthly committee luncheon.

Mr. Woodside, referring to a letter from Dalby F. Morkill, vice-president of the land surveyors of British Columbia, stated that while laws which provided for the shooting of game out of season by prospectors had been changed, hunters were still able to shoot the same game in season for the sake of heads. He said that as many as four animals had been destroyed by one hunter in a very short time, because he could not satisfy himself as to which constituted the best trophy.

The speaker told of a prospector who had recently been arrested and fined for ignoring this ruling, and declared that it was impossible for a man over 15 miles from the nearest railway to pack enough food on which to exist without resorting to his rifle.

It was decided to take up the matter with M. B. Jackson, K.C., chairman of the game board, and a committee was appointed.

Coal Discussed

The question of using coal instead of oil for heating government buildings in Vancouver, which had been referred to the department of public works at Ottawa, was discussed and the reply from the Dominion government, which stated that oil was cheaper in this particular case, is to be taken up by a committee. The coal companies of the province have signified their willingness to assist in obtaining a change.

H. Browning, secretary of the B.C. Chamber of Mines, stated that Smithers branch of the chamber had been awarded a cup for the best mineral exhibit at the Prince Rupert Fair.

DECEMBER 8, 1917.

The beautiful city of Halifax is almost in ruins and hundreds of its citizens are reported to be dead as a result of the collision in the harbor of ships laden with munitions.

The local hospital board, on motion of W. E. Williams and Frank Clapp, has amended its bylaws increasing the number of directors from 9 to 11. Two representatives on the board from the Ladies' Auxiliary are provided for.

The funeral of the late J. D. Meikle took place yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant officiating. W. Vaughan Davies presided at the organ and pallbearers were S. D. Macdonald, J. G. Steen, Thomas McMeekin, Robert Dowther, David Glennie and Alex Smith.

BEN SELF APPEAL ADJOURNED UNTIL 21ST OF MONTH

To give the fisheries department time to proceed with the case or produce affidavits to the effect that it cannot obtain its witnesses in which case a later date will be set for the hearing, the appeal of Ben Self against a conviction and fine for illegal fishing imposed by Stipendiary Magistrate H. F. McLeod in County Court yesterday afternoon was adjourned for two weeks. L. W. Patmore, acting as counsel for the government, suggested that the case be deferred until spring but Milton Gonzales, on behalf of the appellant, objected. Judge Young suggested a delay of three weeks but Mr. Gonzales insisted on no more than two weeks, his client being anxious to have the case disposed of.

HEIGHT OF NAPOLEON

Napoleon Bonaparte, commonly spoken of as an abnormally short man, actually was of about average height. On his deathbed his physician, Antommarchi, found his measurement to be five feet six and one half inches. In his prime he was probably taller. His dwarfed appearance was ascribed to his unusually short legs.—The Mentor Magazine.
