Improved Pitching Performance Covers Lack of Brooklyn Power

By The Associated Press

Well Pittsburgh won five of seven, Cincinnati took five of six and St. Louis collared four of five. But how about Brooklyn? The Dodgers won four straight the hard way—with Roy Campanella in a slump.

Campy, three times the National League's most valuable player, is hitting .230, without a home run since May 3, no extra-base hit since May 15 and no run-batted-in since May 22. This can't be what the world champions had in mind when they made him the highest paid Dodger yet with a $42,000 contract.

What's more, the big catcher isn't alone. Duke Snider, at .305, and Randy Jackson, at .351, are the only Brook regulars hitting over .300. And Jackson just made the first string six days ago, taking over third base from Jackie Robinson (.228).

What's the answer? Pitching.

NEWCOMBE FIVE-HITS

The Dodgers made a sweep of a three-game set at Milwaukee Wednesday night with Don Newcombe's five-hitter beating the Braves 5-2. Milwaukee, losing six of seven, had only 10 hits in the series as the Dodgers got three complete games from their pitching staff.

Sal Maglie three-hit the Braves Monday 3-0. Roger Craig two-hit them Tuesday 6-1. And then came Newk, winning his eighth. The three righthanders gave up just one walk apiece and struck out 14.

Brooklyn now is only eight percentage points shy of the fourth-place Braves. Both are two games behind first-place Pittsburgh, which walloped Chicago Cubs 8-2. Cincinnati, four points back, smacked Philadelphia 7-3. St. Louis, four points farther back, cracked New York 3-2 in 11 innings.

The American League got back to normal. Boston ended Detroit's winning streak at seven games 5-4 and New York Yankees kept their 3½-game lead by breaking their four-game losing string 10-5 against Kansas City. Cleveland remained in second, beating Baltimore 5-1. Chicago's White Sox lost at Washington 12-7.

Upset Spree Of Redlegs Matches Bucs

CINCINNATI (AP) — Everyone keeps talking about the surprising Pittsburgh Pirates, but how about Cincinnati Redlegs?

They have been buried in the National League's second division for even a longer time than Pittsburgh but a power-laden lineup has boomed them into a virtual tie with the Pirates for the National League lead. They're only four percentage points back of the Bucs.

Cincinnati hasn't finished out of the second division since 1944 while the Pirates managed to get up as high as fourth in 1945 and 1948.

Shell-shocked National League pitchers can attest to the power that is packed in the Redleg lineup.

Everyone knew there was a lot of potential hitting when the season started but most observers figured it couldn't make up for a shaky pitching staff.

The Reds lost five of their first six games but then the power boys began to find the range.

Starting with rookie Frank Robinson, who bats second, here is the home run output of five batters in a row—Robinson 12, Gus Bell, 12, Ted Kluszewski, 9, Wally Post, 13 and Ray Jablonski, 11.

Catcher Ed Bailey who crowded the veteran Smokey Burgess out of the starting lineup, usually is next up and he has six homers.

Muzzy's Unusual Leads Play Havoc With Game

In next week's team-of-four match against the Uptown Club, Mr. Masters' club will be represented by Champion, Dale, Muzzy and Mrs. Keen. Deadly serious, as usual, Mr. Champion has insisted that Mr. Muzzy go into training. The training consists of long practice sessions and extemporaneous lectures by Mr. Champion. In a few days Mr. Muzzy is supposed to learn all the things he has obviously failed to learn in the past 20 years.

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	1 ♣	Dbl.
Pass	2 ♥	Pass	3 ♥
Pass	4 ♥	All Pass

On the hand before this one he had opened a light third-hand bid in a suit headed by the jack. The opponents had bought the contract and the bid had got Mr. Dale off to a very disastrous lead. Mr. Muzzy had received a long lecture on weak third-hand openings where he couldn't stand a lead in his bid suit.

AMAZING RESULT

He took this quite literally. On today's hand he ignored a seven card suit where he couldn't stand a lead and bid a three card where he could. The result, for his opponents, was devastating.

Against the four heart contract he quickly cashed three club tricks and switched to the deuce of spades. Mr. Champion was confident—and with considerable reason. "I've got this one counted," he said smugly. "I don't even need the spade finesse." And he went up with the ace of spades in dummy.

He had noticed that Mr Muzzy bid a three card club suit. Surely, then, Muzzy had a balanced hand and certainly no five-card or longer suit. When he led the deuce of spades at trick three, it looked like he had started with four spades and three cards in each of the other three suits. Therefore the hearts would fall in three leads and Mr. Champion would discard his spades on dummy's diamonds.

UNEXPECTED

Very good plan—but it wouldn't work. A small heart was led to the queen in the closed hand then the king of hearts was cashed. On this last trick Mr. Muzzy played a diamond. Mr. Champion winced. "No hearts?" he demanded, hoarsely. Mr. Muzzy examined his hand and shook his head.

Mr. Champion saw that he was down one but he still hoped to get rid of his spades. He cashed the ace of diamonds, led a heart to dummy's ace and returned a diamond. But Mr. Dale ruffed and returned a spade to his partner's king. Down two. Not a bad result on a hand that could have been made.

Mr. Muzzy had a comment to make. "If I need instructions on bidding, it looks like somebody else needs a little practice on the play of the hand."

Mr. Champion maintained a red-faced silence.

Twin-Bill Cancelled

An all-star double-header between Prince Rupert and Terrace softballers this Sunday has been cancelled, because the interior centre will be unable to field a team, Mike Kutzak, Prince Rupert Senior Men's Softball Association president announced this morning.

A Terrace spokesman said the games might possibly be rescheduled for June 24.

Mr. Kutzak said that a rearranged schedule to compensate for the cancellation will be put into effect.

It will see Army-Navy play Savoy Hotel tomorrow night and RCMP play Atlin Saturday. Two rained-out games will be played as a double-header Sunday, the league prexy said.
