ROTARY

With Mr. Gordon on the committee were J. Gunnard Anderson, T. Norton Youngs, and J. A. Martin.

Need for a new and larger Friendship House was pointed up by the fact that the Civic Centre, which works with all people until 10:30 p.m., is at the opposite end of the town from the centre of night life for the influx of visitors from villages and canneries.

Social centres at present are seven beer parlors, six small cafes, parcel checking is at taxi stands, hotel lobbies are either non-existent or too small; and there is one cocktail lounge and one club for members.

There is no place for congregating; nowhere to leave children while shopping as the fishing boats are a long way off; there is no leisurely place for recreation, rest and talk in a quiet manner. Also there are not enough places to sleep.

The present Friendship House, now supervised by Donald Robertson assisted by James Jackson, was opened November 15, 1959 with six beds and mattresses.

Since then 3,258 beds have been provided, 90 rooms were arranged at the Green Rooms, there were 539 guests, 5,693 meals provided at Friendship House plus 289 at the Grand Cafe.

Average attendance on Saturdays has been 50 with the largest number being 150.

In addition the Kindergarten, operated by volunteers, started with 15 children, grew to 38 at the end of last term and is attended by 36 at present for the new term.
