POLICE CALLED TO KEEP ORDER

were allowed to get in arrears to the extent of nearly $100.

The Board of Works reported recommending changes in several of the city sidewalks to preclude the possibility of any accident from rocks dropping off lots where cuts had been made to grade the streets.

Alderman Morrissey asked the Mayor if the police commissioners had done anything in the matter of discharging the policeman who refused to do his duty and arrest a man who was accused of the Frizzell robbery because the accused belonged to the same order.

Mayor Newton told Alderman Morrissey that the police commissioners did not have to report to the Council, but to show that they were not naughty he would say that the commissioners had gone fully into the matter and on the advice of the solicitor had decided not to take any action.

Alderman Morrissey wanted to know particulars and gave some facts regarding the refusal of the policeman. He had asked the chief to get some one else to arrest the man as he and the accused were fellow members of the same society.

Alderman Douglas thought that the work of the commissioners was something in which Alderman Morrissey had no right to interfere.

Alderman Morrissey, who was becoming heated, repeated his question as to whether or not the man had been discharged, and turning to Alderman Douglas sarcastically asked when he had become the champion of the police commissioners.

Mayor Newton, when again questioned by Alderman Morrissey, tragically cried out: "You're after my scalp!" but the alderman denied any wish to follow out the practice of the wild Indian in regard to His Worship's pate.

Then followed a wrangle between the two to the delight of the spectators, while Alderman Kerr and Douglas periodically interjected cries of "Order."

Alderman Montgomery could not refrain from taking part in the debate and seconded Alderman Morrissey.

Alderman Clayton endeavored to put a stop to the affair, which was assuming the appearance of a recent Hague conference meeting, but the aldermen were too much engaged to pay any attention to any call for a halt.

Alderman Montgomery, with the light of battle in his eye, demanded that the affair should be fought out in council. The actions of the commissioners were not satisfactory to him.

Mayor Newton again expressed his belief that the councillors were trying to get at him and made reference to Alderman Montgomery's late episode with the police.

Alderman Montgomery was not slow to take the opportunity to bring his case before the Council again and, as usual, in a few minutes he and Alderman Clayton were calling each other down and arguing as to which had the most sense. Alderman Montgomery claimed that Alderman Clayton did not possess the common or garden variety of sense, and the other asserted that he was thankful that it was not the common sense possessed by Alderman Montgomery, but was of a superior quality.

Alderman Dybhavn thought that a good way out of the scrape would be to put the onus on the government, who had appointed the commissioners.

Finally the quiet voice of City Solicitor Peters brought comparative peace to all but Alderman Morrissey, who wished to make some contradiction to what the solicitor had said. Mayor Newton ordered him to cease speaking and Alderman Morrissey appealed to the board to sustain him, but the Mayor cried for the police and City Clerk Woods with celerity dashed off to bring the desired reinforcements to the aid of the Mayor in presiding over the meeting.

Quiet being restored, Alderman asked if anything had been done regarding plans for a sewerage system for the whole of the city.

Alderman Dybhavn replied in the affirmative. Later in the evening, during the discussions and reading of bylaws, notice was given of the introduction of a bylaw to do away with the ward system of civic elections.

CHANCE WON'T QUIT CHICAGO

Manager of Murphy's Ball Team Will Not Resign—Will Stay with Club Until Fired.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—That Frank Chance, manager of the Chicago Cubs of the National League, has not received official notice of his discharge by Charles W. Murphy, the club's president, was indicated here in a letter by Chance to Garry Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati National club.

Herrmann offered Chance the managership of the Reds, it is reported, at the same salary he is receiving from Murphy. Chance replied that he was pledged to return to the Cubs next season if his services were wanted, and that he could not consider the offer until he had received personal assurance from Murphy that he was to be relieved as manager of the Cubs for the 1913 season.

No Public Bouts for Sailors.

New York, Oct. 15.—Orders from Rear Admiral Osterhaus prevented a bout at the New Star Athletic Club in which Sam Robideau, the lightweight champion of the navy, attached to the battleship Connecticut, was to have met Eddie Smith, a local lightweight. They had already weighed in when an order from the admiral that all public bouts between men of the navy must be called off.

RE VOTERS' LIST.

I am instructed by the City Council to publish the following notice with regard to voting at the next municipal election.

The persons who will be inserted on the voters' list are as follows:

1. Owners of real estate. This means any person who has a deed of land registered in the Land Registry Office or an agreement for purchase of land registered in the Registry Office. Many persons have land under agreement from the Grand Trunk or the government whose title is not registered in the Land Registry Office, and their right to vote is doubtful. Therefore, voters so situated must be careful to register either as householder or license holder.

2. Any person holding a trade license may vote, but before doing so he must, in October, make a declaration showing his right to vote in Form 1. These forms can be obtained at the City Clerk's Office. The declaration must be filed with the City Clerk within forty-eight hours after it is made.

3. Any householder can vote. A householder means a person who has resided in Prince Rupert from the 1st of January, 1912, and who occupies a dwelling, tenement, hotel or boarding house, or any portion of a dwelling house, tenement, hotel or boarding house. He must also pay rates, taxes or assessments which are not chargeable on land, and which rates, taxes and assessments so paid amount to not less than $2.00. Water rates and dog licenses do not count. Practically the only tax that can be paid is the road tax, $2.00, and any person who, being a householder as above described, has already paid his road tax must also make a declaration before he can be placed on the voters' list.

All voters must be 21 years of age and British subjects. ERNEST A. WOODS, City Clerk.
