SPORT CLIPPINGS

It may not be generally known that a goalkeeper can score a goal if he kicks the ball through his opponents' goal, whether he is in own half or not.

Danny Steel, of the Third Lanark, is easily the strongest player in Scottish league football. He plays with the 112-lb. barbell and the giant Indian clubs almost as easily as he does with the Cathkin ball.

J. H. Derbyshire won both the 220 and 440 yards Southern swimming championships.

A walking race from London to Brighton (52 1/4 miles) resulted in favor of E. C. Horton in 8 hours 4 mins. 20 secs.

L. Meredith showed some of his old form in an attack on the ten miles motor paced amateur record at Herne Hill recently. His time was 14 mins. 51 1/5 secs., which is two seconds better than C. H. Bartlett accomplished last June.

E. Barry has publicly stated that there was a stage during his match with Arnst for the sculling championship of the world, when he found it difficult to keep on.

Jockey Shilling, who, during the past three seasons, has ridden more winners to the tape than probably any other stable jockey on American tracks, has been suspended for life, and can never again ride on any track in the United States.

The Quebec Hockey Club, the holders of the Stanley Cup, will stick by the National Hockey Association, no matter what other rival league is formed.

If Fred Taylor plays in the N. H.A. he will probably be with the Ottawas. Sammy Lichtenheim must realize by this time that he has no chance of coaxing the Cyclone to the Wanderers camp.

Hugh Jennings drew the record long term suspension in the American League this season. On September 4th he was set down for a run-in with Umpire Connolly at the time Connolly called Cobb out for stepping on the batter's box to hit a ball. It was two weeks before the ban was lifted.

In response to a request for some opinion on the subject of the Giants' chances in the world's series, Murray tore off the following: Bring on your Wood and Collins—With all their pomp and rank—How'er their curse They can't be worse Than Bender, Coombs and Plank. By "worse" in this connection Mr. Murray refers exclusively to the spell cast upon him in 1914.

A baseball team to be composed largely of Pacific Coast League players, with the addition of a few major league stars, probably will tour Australia next winter. J. Cal Ewing, former president of the Pacific Coast League, and W. J. C. Kelly, of Sydney, who is head of the Australian baseball managers, besides being the representative of Hugh McIntosh and other fight promoters of Australia, are working on the proposition. It is planned to take fifteen players, including two extra pitchers and catchers, who are to be loaned to the Australian clubs in the games. The promoters of the trip intend to sail from San Francisco on January 11th. Games will be played also in Honolulu.

QUERRIE FAVORS COMMISSION FOR THE NATIONAL GAME

TECUMSEH MANAGER FAVORS THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A LACROSSE COMMISSION TO GOVERN THE ACTIONS OF PLAYERS AND STOP STEALING MEN

Charlie Querrie says there is only one way to put lacrosse back on a firm footing again and that is for the lacrosse magnates to take a leaf out of the baseball book, and form a lacrosse commission, so that they can control the players. Where is the club today that spends a season in developing a young player? Just as soon as the player becomes of some use to the club along comes another club with a bank roll, and of course the player goes where he can get the most money, and who can blame him? But the club receives no benefit for their teaching, like they do in baseball.

When lacrosse men of the ability and brains like Tom O'Connell, Joe Lally, R. J. Fleming, P. Quinn, Con. Jones, Jimmy Murphy and others cannot see that petty quarrels and the desire to beat the other league is only resulting in players making a laughing stock of contracts, and receiving salaries that the game cannot afford, what chance is there for a commission such as the baseball moguls found was the only way to govern and make a success of the game? With Jimmy Murphy going to Victoria to start a team, and Con. Jones needing players for Vancouver, the war will likely start early, and players will reap all the benefit. Go to it, boys, get all you can, for some day the magnates of the lacrosse world will wake up, and things will not be so soft.

Association football is already the national sport in Germany, Sweden, Belgium, Hungary, Holland and Denmark, and is making great headway in France, Austria and even Spain.

Denny Kelliher was a typical fighter of the old time school—stocky, strong as Hercules, game as a lion, and really hateful when the padded gloves were mentioned. "It's myself," said Mr. Kelliher, "that wud rayther scrap wit' no gloves at all, at all, but phwat can yez do? Still, ye can always push th' hair back from th' knuckles an' git a little action that way, which be some shmall consolation, anyhow!"

"Kid McCoy was surely the marrying child," says Frank Kelly, who used to manage the skillful Kid's affairs. "His weddings have been so numerous that only a lightning calculator could keep track of them, and whenever his ring engagements have interfered with his matrimonial plans the Kid has been as peevish as a bear. Just loves to get married, that boy, and I suppose he will keep up the habit indefinitely. Maybe not, though—they say the present Mrs. McCoy has a firm grip upon his heart and wallet, and is a sensible young lady who will hold him to a finish. Hope so, anyway."

Borrowed Them. "I see society people at Newport had a baby show." "Where did they get the babies?" "It was a loan exhibition, I believe."—Washington Herald.

The Way to Do It. "There is some talk of abolishing the cabinet." "What would take its place?" "They might let each department be conducted by some magazine."—Kansas City Journal.

Be Suspicious BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor. Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for. The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker. That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent. Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind. When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know— from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it. Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying. Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
