PARENT'S ROLE

WINNIPEG (?)—If a child is a serious behavior problem the parents should go to a psychiatrist to see what's wrong with them—not the child, says Prof. D. R. Whitinger of the University of Manitoba. He told a home and school association meeting that a child's basic attitudes are formed between the ages of three and four.

Britain Seeks Clarification On Chou Offer

LONDON (Reuters)— Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan said today the British charge d'affaires in Peiping has been instructed to ask Chou en-lai, the Communist Chinese prime minister, to elaborate "still further" the ideas which prompted his Bandung statement on talks with the United States on Far East tension, including Formosa.

"I am not without hope that the whole situation in the Far East may begin to develop along more favorable lines," Macmillan said.

Labor member Denis Healey, who raised the matter in the House of Commons, asked whether the foreign secretary could confirm or deny "unanimous reports" in the American press that the British government was considering under certain circumstances joining the United States in the defence of Formosa "but was frightened to say so now during an election campaign."

Macmillan retorted: "I think that statement is rather unworthy of the honorable gentleman. We have made no such commitment."

"The British government has no commitment other than such general obligations as might arise from membership of the United Nations," Macmillan said.
