London Docks Back To Normal As Tieup Ends

LONDON — (Reuters) — London's docks were at peace today for the first time in six weeks after three successive strikes.

All available labor was employed and the backlog of shipping was expected to result in an overtime boom.

The question of overtime — whether is should be compulsory or voluntary — was one of the main issues of a longshoremen's strike which tied up the port.

Brown To Head Casaba Group

George Brown, former city basketballer and just recently discharged from the Navy was officially elected president of the Prince Rupert Basketball Association at a meeting of the group last night.

George McKay will take over the duties of treasurer Norm McLaren this coming Saturday.

The association decided to make another appeal for referees for the coming year and promised the casaba arbiters solid backing by the association's commissioners. Names of those suggested as referees for the coming season were Doug Sankey, Tiny Carlson, Vern Ciccone, Fred Calderoni and Norm McLaren.

Rescuers Seek Hurt Climbers

ALBERNI, B.C. (CP)— Rescue squads of almost 30 men left here Monday in an attempt to bring down two injured climbers, one a would-be rescuer, stranded near the peak of 6,000-foot Mount Arrowsmith.

A bid Sunday night to rescue Charles Faulkner, 22, of Victoria, almost ended in tragedy when Leo Lynn, 18, of Alberni, was hit on the head with a falling rock and seriously injured.

Remember when..

By The Canadian Press

Winnipeg won the Western football title by blanking Calgary Broncs 7-0 at Winnipeg 19 years ago today. That power-packed Winnipeg club later humbled Hamilton Tigers 18-12 in the Canadian final to take the Grey Cup west for the first time.
