Man in the Moon

The coal men like the frost
And the youngsters like it too,
But milder weather suits me best
And I guess it suits quite a few.

Among the things it is hard to destroy are the last fly, garbage, an incorrect rumor, the bore who insists on talking all the time, the Flu microbe.

The love of money is the reason for much sport.

You can tell a red by the wild look in his eye. You can tell an old time Tory by the look of serene contempt for everybody and everything.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

December 6, 1918

The Prince Rupert sawmill closed last night following receipt of notification that the contract with the Imperial Munitions Board for airplane spruce had closed. Stock will now be taken and the plant will probably reopen soon, states E. F. Duby, manager. All mills in the district have been notified to cease cutting airplane spruce.

The tattered old flag which flies over the city hall is the subject of much comment on the part of the public.

E. E. Campbell, mine superintendent at Anyox, and O. B. Smith, general superintendent of the company, arrived here yesterday from Ketchikan and will be here for a few days before proceeding to the smelter town.

CHRISTMAS SEAL

Christmas Seals similar to the above only in colors are again being sold this year by the Tranquille Tubercolosis Society for the purpose of financing the work of investigating curable cases of tubercolosis, seeing that the patients are given proper treatment and care and returning them to their homes strong and well. It is a forward step and worthy of support.

Weak and Run Down Didn't Want to Eat Could Not Sleep

Mrs. D. Leone, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., writes:—"I was weak and run down; did not want to eat, and could not sleep. I felt tired of living and often longed for death to free me from my terrible misery as I felt I would never be strong again. I thought I would try and really I soon felt like eating and living, and new life seemed to come to me."

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS
