NAUGHTON IS AFTER WOLGAST AND HIS MANAGER T. JONES

FAMOUS SPORTING CRITIC OF SAN FRANCISCO SAYS JONES IS NOT HANDLING WOLGAST PROPERLY AND IS AFTER EASY MONEY

By W. W. NAUGHTON. Calgary, Alta., Oct. 22.—In the matter of drumming up fighting dates for Lightweight Champion Ad. Wolgast, manager Tom Jones is running amuck. And it stands to reason he is doing so with the full knowledge and consent of his fighter. Why this recklessness? What does it all mean? It is, as some suggest, that Wolgast feels the appendicitis operation has done for him as a champion and that he intends to bunch his fights and go on raking in purses until defeat calls a halt.

Or is it, as others suggest, that Wolgast's faith in his own invincibility amounts to a craze that he believes he could defend his title successfully every day in the year if given an opportunity? In either case Wolgast's methods are not those of a level headed champion nor Jones' tactics those of an astute manager, and it requires very simple lines of reasoning to show why. A world's championship is the greatest asset any man who follows fisticuffs for a living can possess. What is more, there is no gainsaying that accident or luck frequently enters largely into the attainment of a championship degree.

This is proven by the surprise that changes of championship have caused from time to time. The bout which brings about the dethronement of a king of the ring of ten shows that the one who is deposed has retrograded woefully and would have been on easy mark for any one of a half dozen huskies that could be named.

better of the fifth and a shade of the sixth. Fighting was fast also through the next two rounds, and there were several rapid exchanges. Coulson's work with both hands to the head being better. The ninth was a shade in favor of Coulson, but in the tenth the Baltimore lad forced matters at a terrific pace, sending rights and lefts to the jaw, rushing Coulson all the time and boring in with rights and lefts to the head and body. It was a hurricane finish, in which Williams proved the old champion's muster at every stage.

The boys weighed in, according to the agreement, under 116 pounds ringside, Williams turning the scale at 115 1/2 and Coulson four pounds less. CHAMPION IS OUTPOINTED Johnny Coulson Loses to Baltimore Scrapper in 10 Round Bout. New York, Oct. 21—"Kid" Williams, of Baltimore, outpointed Johnny Coulson, of Chicago, the bantam-weight titleholder, in a ten-round bout in Madison Square Garden. Coulson, who has held the championship for several years, had to lower his colors at the end of the 10th round, but Williams knew he had met a past master of the art during every second. From the outset the little Baltimore man was full of confidence.

SOCCER NOTES OF OLD LAND

Gönde, the Hull City forward, and one of Aston Villa's cast-offs, is proving himself one of the smartest men the Tigers have had, and, moreover, is amongst the goal scorers in every match. Preston North End have not their sorrows to seek this season. In addition to the anything but encouraging work of their team the club has lost one of the most valued officials, Mr. Tom Houghton. He died suddenly after having four days previously attended a meeting of the league management committee.

Last season in thirty-five matches "Jock" Simpson, the Blackburn idol, only scored two goals. In four matches this season he has already scored four. Ewart, late of Airdrieonians, has already been dropped from the Bradford goal, and Mellors regains the position. With W. G. Webb unfit, Manchester City gave a trial to their new centre forward, a tall sturdy youth named H. G. Taylor, from Egg Hayes. He has been described as a Shepherd in the making.

Tottenham Hotspur will pay a transfer fee of $1,750 for Finlay Weir, if the old Sheffield Wednesday man's month's trial is satisfactory. They have also signed on two forwards, Bull of Northampton and McDonald of Inverness. Stockport County have a useful scoring forward in Rogers. He comes from Hooley, a little custodian have already chris-style of a master. He ripped a right uppercut over the heart, hooked two lefts to the body and cut his right over the jaw. Williams had the better of the third round, forcing the fighting throughout, winding up with a hard right to the body. Coulson had the fourth round with rights and lefts to the face. The pace was fast in the next two rounds, Williams having the place outside Manchester. Some tened him "a holy terror." A sequel to the poverty stricken displays of Tottenham is seen in the resignation of Mr. T. A. Deacock, probably the best known director of the club. He and other directors disagreed with regard to the engagement of players. Scotland's best centre half is to be found at Shawfield Park at present. That address will find McAndrew. Hardinge, the Sheffield United forward, plays a more typically Scottish game than any forward in England. Those who saw Barnsley play the Celtics at Parkhead the other day will say that Leeds City must be good to have beaten them. Glasgow has the two cleverest right half backs in the Scottish League. By name, they are James Gordon of the Rangers and Robert Wilson of Partick Thistle. Robert Parker, Rangers' reserve centre forward, is slowly recovering. It was a terrible shock he got when he read that that club had offered $6,000 for his transfer. Newcastle United's front rank is being constantly shuffled but the view of discovering the best goal getters. McLean of Sheffield Wednesday is easily favorite for the goal scoring record, for he was never in better form than he is today. What would Celts give to have the Forfar lad now? Prince Rupert's leading hotel—Savoy.

You Are on the Bench YOU—the Public—are the judge. On your good opinion and your good word depends the success of the advertised article. For no amount of advertising will induce you to buy a second time what you do not like. No advertising will offset the bad effect of a dissatisfied buyer. That is why advertisers must and do maintain the quality of their goods. Advertisers realize that to turn their outlay for advertising into profit they must give good value. No manufacturer can afford to advertise for long an inferior article. From the moment the advertising begins, the quality must either be kept uniform or improved—to go back means ruin. The day is passing when you ask for a pint of pickles. You name the brand. You don't ask for Rolled Oats. You name the brand you prefer. The unknown article may be good, but you are not so sure of it as you are of the advertised article, which bears the seal of quality, —a well known maker's trade name. Thus, to be sure of quality, one naturally turns to goods that are advertised. And isn't it only reasonable? TO MANUFACTURERS You who make good goods and do not advertise—show your confidence in your product. Advertise it. Let the public know that you stand back of your goods to maintain their high quality. Make your trade name the recognized standard in your line. Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 303 Lusden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
