$5,000 Fine Levied After Boos Anger "Spitting" Ted Williams

By The Associated Press

Big Don Newcombe is closing in on his second straight 20-victory season and is within reach of two shutout records while helping Brooklyn Dodgers keep the pressure on Milwaukee in the National League race.

Newk won his 17th of the season and eighth in a row by blanking Pittsburgh Pirates 3-0 Tuesday night. It was his third consecutive shutout.

The National League record for consecutive shutouts is four and it's been accomplished by only two modern-era pitchers—Bill Lee with Chicago Cubs in 1938 and Sal Maglie, now a Dodger, with New York Giants in 1950.

The league record for consecutive scoreless innings is 46⅓ by Carl Hubbell of the Giants in 1933.

The victory kept the Dodgers within 1½ games of the Braves, who belted Chicago Cubs 6-1. Third-place Cincinnati fell three games back, losing to St. Louis 8-4. Philadelphia, hottest club in the league, made it five straight and nine out of 10 by sweeping the Giants 4-3 and 3-1 in a twi-night doubleheader.

WILLIAMS FINED $5,000

American League headlines centred on Ted Williams fined $5,000 by Boston general manager Joe Cronin for another spitting skirmish, as the Red Sox clipped New York Yankees 1-0 in 11 innings on Ted's bases-loaded walk. The defeat, seventh in eight games, trimmed New York's lead to seven games over Cleveland as the Indians broke a four-game slump with a 5-2 victory over Detroit. Chicago White Sox defeated Kansas City 5-4 and 4-3 in a pair of 10-inning contests in the only other action scheduled.

EQUALS RUTH FINE

Williams' fine, matching the record $5,000 Babe Ruth paid the Yankees in 1925 for breaking training, came when he spit at the Fenway Park fans who had booed his error on a fly ball. Tommy Byrne gave up the walk, after relieving Don Larsen—who had a four-hitter but took the loss when two errors and a walk loaded the bases. Willard Nixon won his sixth.

Phoenix Mine To Re-open After 37-Year Shutdown

GRAND FORKS, B.C. (?)—The ghost town of Phoenix, 14 miles northeast of here, wil come to life again next year with the reopening of the Phoenix mine which colsed in 1919 after producing 285,000,000 pounds of copper.

L. T. Postle, president of Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Company, announced that Phoenix Mine will reopen on a year-round basis early in 1957.

The mine closed in 1919, partly because a prolonged strike of coal miners in the Crow's Nest area cut off essential coke supplies, and also because of a drop in the price of copper.

Later, the stores, railroad station and tracks and school were torn up and Phoenix became only a memory.

"We plan to build a concentrator to treat 500 tons of ore daily near the old Phoenix Mine," said Mr. Postle, "and we expect to extract the remaining ore by the open pit method."

About 40 men will be employed when the operation is at its peak. The mill will work around the clock, with mining operations being conducted eight hours a day, five days a week.

After concentration the copper will be shipped to smelters at Tacoma, Wash. Trucks will carry the ore to a railway.

Ore reserves at a 500-ton per day rate will last about 10 years, it is estimated, and it is possible that more ore will be discovered.

SECOND YACHT CLUB REGATTA SET FOR SUNDAY, AUGUST 19

The Prince Rupert Yacht Club will sponsor its second outboard racing regatta this year August 19 off the Canadian National steamship dock, it was announced this morning.

Regatta officials said that it is hoped that a varied program which will be of interest to both spectator and contestant is being planned.

In addition to local entries, contestants will be sought from both Ketchikan and Terrace this time, a spokesman said. Officials hope to get as many entries as possible and urged those interested in taking part to phone regatta chairman Henry Seppa at 2579.
