Rupert edges Savoy

Takes five-goal rally to gain 11-8 win

Behind a five-goal third period and some excellent net-minding, Prince Rupert Hotel's senior floor hockey team edged Savoy Hotel 11-8 last night at the Civic Centre.

In the junior game, league-leading Van's Bakery toyed with Philpott Evitt for three periods and carried an 18-9 victory off the floor.

Down 8-6 at the end of the second period, Rupert rallied to tie the game up and take the lead—one which they never lost—while goalie Ron Tsuji blanked Savoy during the entire last period.

Tsuji blocked a total of 52 shots while his mates blasted Savoy goalie Lorne McMillan with 85 shots.

Both goalies played excellent games, with both of them coming up with some near-impossible saves.

The game was scoreless until the 5:06 mark when Rupert's Joe Didychuck scored unassisted. Two minutes later, Savoy's Bill Gurney tied it up as he grabbed the rebound from Carl Troutman's shot and tucked it into the net.

The first period ended in a 4-4 tie and the second period saw the lead jump from one team to the other until Savoy took the two-goal lead.

After Toby Gruber tied the game up for Rupert at the 2:03 mark of the third period, the Fitzgerald brothers, John and Brian, scored the go-ahead goals.

Scoring honors for the Rupert squad were shared equally by the Fitzgerald brothers, Moe Dean and Didychuck with two goals each.

Alf Moran and Bill Gurney topped Savoy's scoring list with three goals each.

Termed by many fans as "the roughest and fastest of the year," the game featured 28 penalties—17 to Rupert and 11 to Savoy.

Fights threatened throughout the game but cooler heads prevented anything from getting started.

A spokesman for the Savoy squad said that the absence of Morris Alger and Art Helin was a big factor in the loss.

Skip Cronck and Ken Nakatsu paced Van's to its win in the junior game with five and four goals respectively.

The first five minutes of the game were fairly tight with the score tied 3-3 as both teams went into the last 10 minutes of the period.

However, it was Van's all the way after that, holding a 6-3 edge at the end of the first period and 13-5 going into the final period.

Robert Ericksen led the losers with five goals.

BRISBANE (AP)—Chuck McKinley and Dennis Ralston, a couple of ten- agers, sent the United States into the Davis Cup interzone final today by defeating Johnny Jose and Eddie Dungo of the Philippines, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

McKinley, 19, and Ralston, 18, comprised the youngest doubles team ever to compete for the U.S. in Davis Cup competition.

The victory gave the United States a 3-0 lead in the best-of-five interzone semi-final and makes the last two singles matches Thursday meaningless.

The United States team now meets Italy, the European zone champion, in the interzone final in Perth December 9-11.
