Esks down 'peg, Argos lose series

By TOM WILLIAMS

WINNIPEG (CP) — Edmonton Eskimos bottled up Winnipeg Blue Bombers' powerful offence when they had to Saturday and won a hair-raising 4-2 victory on Tommy-Joe Coffey's field goal with 10 seconds remaining to become Western Canadian professional football champions.

The victory gave the Esks the best-of-three Western Interprovincial Football Union final two victories to one, and a shot at the Grey Cup next Saturday when they tangle with Ottawa Rough Riders at Vancouver.

Ottawa won the right to meet the Eskimos by edging Toronto Argonauts 21-20 to win the two-game, total-point series 54-41.

Winnipeg won the first game of the series 22-16 and Edmonton came back to take the second 10-5.

Saturday, Bombers piled up a whopping 306 yards rushing and 21 first downs while Eskimos managed to rush for only 68 yards and made 11 first downs.

DEFENCE STIFFENED

But while the Bombers appeared to be able to move the ball almost at will, the Edmonton defence stiffened as soon as Winnipeg got down around the Esks' 25-yard line.

For Coffey, a six-foot end from West Texas State University, the winning field goal, booted with the ball scrimmaged at the Winnipeg seven yard line, represented redemption after he had blown a shot at another field goal minutes earlier.

On the first try, Eskimos were trailing 2-0 after Charlie Shepard kicked singles for Winnipeg in the second and third quarters. Edmonton moved from its own 33 to Winnipeg's 10 on two plays—a 22-yard pass from Jackie Parker to end Vic Chapman and a 45-yard toss ruled complete when Winnipeg defensive back Nick Miller interfered with Joe-Bob Smith.

Parker ran the ball in front of the goal posts, losing two yards to the 12. After another crack at the line failed, Coffey tried a field goal from about the 17-yard line. The ball went wide off the side of his foot.

SINGLE CONCEDED

Bombers conceded a single on the play and took possession of the ball at their own 25-yard line with 3½ minutes remaining in the game.

Four plays later, defensive guard Gino Fracas slammed into Winnipeg quarterback Ken Ploen as he tried to run around left end. Ploen fumbled and Rollie Miles recovered for Edmonton at the Winnipeg 41.

Don Getty made his first appearance at quarterback for Esks and after sending Bright into the line for two yards, he flipped the ball to Parker, who hit Joe-Bob Smith with a 29-yard pass to the Winnipeg 10.

Bright hit left tackle to bring the ball in front of the goal posts and Coffey made no mistake as he booted the field goal.

Parker, who played most of the game at quarterback, completed 10 of 17 throws for 172 yards.

In the eastern game, the Rough Riders, faced with the prospect of blowing their second straight bid for a Grey Cup appearance, propelled themselves into the national football classic Sunday with a bit of trickery that killed the Argonauts.

They broke Argonauts hearts with one of the oldest gimmicks in the business — the hoary sleeper play. And the executioner was 30-year-old end Bobby Simpson, who has carried on a one-man vendetta against Argonauts for years.

LEAD DISAPPEARED

In one of the most fantastic finishes in years, Rough Riders saw their 12-point lead from a 33-21 first-game victory disappear under the lightning strokes of Argonaut quarterback Tobin Rote. Then the Riders regained the upper hand.

It was a reversal from the 1959 Big Four final when the Riders carried a 12-point bulge into the second game against Hamilton Tiger-Cats. They let that lead slip through their fingers and were eliminated.

It was one of those screwball plays — I didn't expect it to work," he said of the sleeper play.

But work it did. Simpson rumbled 80 yards down the sidelines after taking the pass from quarterback Ron Lancaster. Huffing and puffing, and glancing over his shoulder at two pursuing Argos, he went down on the 18-yard line and in two plays Joe Kelly plunged over from two yards out for his second touchdown of the game and the final points of the exciting game before 30,529 spectators.

Simpson also set up Ottawa's first touchdown near the end of the third quarter when the Riders were behind 20-0 on the game and 41-33 on the round. He took a Lancaster pass at the Toronto 24 and travelled to the two-yard line. Kelly then hopped over a flock of bodies to score his first touchdown.

Seventy - seven seconds later, newcomer Jim Reynolds from London Lords of the Ontario Rugby Football Union, intercepted a Rote pass and ran 65 yards for a touchdown. Gary Schreider, who missed three convert attempts in the first game at Ottawa, made good on all three.

Cookie Gilchrist scored a touchdown, two field goals and a convert and Mann scored a touchdown and a single for Argonauts, who led 4-0 at the end of the first quarter and 7-9 at the half.

Weekend NHL action leaves three-way tie

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Toronto Maple Leafs' fourth successive Saturday night scoring outburst has helped create a three-way tie fo first place in the National Hockey League.

The Leafs exploded Saturday for six goals, three of them within two minutes of each other in the second period, to trip Montreal Canadiens 6-3, then scored a 3-2 win over the Bruins at Boston Sunday.

Detroit split two games, beating the Rangers 4-3 at New York Sunday after losing 6-4 at Boston Saturday.

Chicago Black Hawks stayed close to the leaders by holding Montreal to a 1-1 tie Sunday in Chicago.

KEPT UP PRESSURE

In their win over Montreal, Leafs kept the pressure on the defending Stanley Cup champions all evening.

Ron Stewart scored twice to lead the attack. Frank Mahovlich, Dick Duff, Eddie Shack and rookie Dave Keon each got one goal.

Don Marshall, Bernie Geoffrion and Marcel Bonin scored for Montreal.

Leafs blew the game wide open with their three quick goals in the scond period. Mahovlich started the spree with a short blast into the upper corner at the 33-second mark; Stewart tipped in Allan Stanley's blueline shot at 1:04 and Duff finished a play at 2:24.

Sunday the Leafs were outshot by a wide margin and outplayed territorially, but still managed to turn back the Bruins, who have won only four games this season.

Mahovlich's two goals, his 15th and 16th of the season, were the only shots he had on goal. Keon scored the winner, midway through the third period.

Flyers drop three games, lose ground in WHL race

By The Canadian Press

It was a humillating weekend for Edmonton Flyers, once-confident leaders of the Western Hockey League.

Fresh from a 5-3 defeat Friday at Victoria, the Flyers headed south to be downed 6-2 Saturday and 2-1 Sunday by the Seattle Totems.

The Stampeders had a 3-1 victory at Spokane Saturday, but were drubbed 5-0 by the cellar-dwelling Comets Sunday. Portland downed Victoria 7-3 Sunday in the other weekend game.

FIELDER STANDS OUT

Guyle Fielder was the big man in the Totems' two-game sweep, scoring two goals Saturday and one Sunday. Don Chiupka scored two Saturday with the others coming from Rudy Filion and Bill MacFarland. Ed Stankiwicz scored Seattle's second goal Sunday.

Ed Joyal scored the lone Edmonton goal Sunday and one of the Flyers' two Saturday. Bruce MacGregor scored the other Saturday.

Max Mekilok scored two of the Spokane goals Sunday with Steve Witiuk, Forbes Kennedy and Fred Hucul getting the others.

LINE HARES GOALS

In Saturday night's game, the line of Lou Jankowski, Norm Johnson and Ron Leopold shared Calgary's three goals equally. The lone Spokane goal was by Colin Kilburn.

Pat Ginnell scored two goals in Victoria's defeat at Portland Sunday.

Veteran Gordie Fashoway scored two more for Portland and Bill McCulley, Eddie Dudych and Gordie Haworth had singles.

The Victoria scoring was by Bill Johanson and defenceman Don McLeod.
