GOLDBLOOM'S SALE OF LADIES' FUR COATS

Would you like a fur coat? And would you like to get it at one third less than the regular cost? Of course you would. Who wouldn't? The thing to do, then, is to visit Goldbloom's the old reliable fur dealer. Goldbloom is having a sale of furs before he leaves for New York. He goes next week to arrange for his purchases of raw furs and until he leaves, every article in his store is being offered at real sale prices—one-third below the ordinary price.

After being twenty years in business in Prince Rupert, Goldbloom prides himself on the number of his satisfied customers. He guarantees every article he sells to be as represented and to give satisfaction—with a money back guarantee. And no one can do much better than that!

So see Goldbloom this week about that fur coat, before he leaves for the east.

LOCAL GIRL WEDDED QUIETLY IN SOUTH

Miss Rhona Saunders Becomes Bride of Robert Ainsworth and Will Reside in South America

A quiet wedding took place at St John's Church, Vancouver, when Rhona Doris Farwell, younger daughter of Captain and Mrs. F. T. Saunders, of Prince Rupert, became the bride of Robert E. Ainsworth, of Los Angeles. The bride wore a charming French model of beige ninon with deeper toned velvet trimmings, handsomely embroidered in gold applique. She wore a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. Her hat was a French felt with side trimming of feathers and she wore a brown coat trimmed with fox fur. Miss Marjorie Boyd acted as bridesmaid, wearing biscuit colored georgette with inserted medallions with small fitting hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of Ophelia roses.

Frank Saunders, brother of the bride, supported the groom. Later a buffet supper as served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. P. Walsh, Marguerite Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ainsworth left for Los Angeles for a six weeks' visit before leaving for Venezuela, South America, where they expect to remain a year.
