ITEMS OF SPORT

All loaded balls will be barred by the Montreal and District Bowling Association. Alleys run in connection with saloons are also barred from the association.

Another big league manager has been fired off the job. This time it is Roger Bresnahan, of the St. Louis Nationals.

A dummy hockey club may be organized at Saskatoon. Vancouver has a candidate in Newsy Lalonde if the "S" sign language is included.

Montreal reports still give the Wanderers credit for signing up Ernie Johnson. Manager Patrick says that the famous defense star will winter on the coast and that's good enough for us.

Vancouver hockey experts now claim Dubbie Kerr and Carl Kerpall. Nothing to the rumor. Both are booked for Victoria.

Australian cricketers will show Victorians class cricket during the next few days.

Coast hockey moguls are laying up ammunition and will be ready for action if war is declared.

Sport in Canada would be a dismal failure unless we had a war on our hands. If it's not lacrosse it's hockey and occasionally the A. A. U. of C. engages in a scrap. It's great, believe us.

And right on top of our war with Sammy L. Liechtenhein comes the announcement from a Victoria scribe that Charlie Querrie will steal our prize lacrosse players next season.

The sooner players who break their word with clubs and jump contracts are driven out of sport the better it will be for all concerned. A man who will sign a contract or enter into a verbal agreement and then breaks it for a difference of a few dollars is not wanted.

He Bet on the Irish. One of the finest of baseball classics was the story of the old Chicago Irishman, who, having lived sixty years on the West Side, could see nothing good on the South Side, and wanted to bet his savings on the Cubs against the Sox.

Man Running Home Slides and Loses Cork Leg—The Leg Reached the Plate—Was He Out? Canfield, Colo., Oct. 28—When Albert Billings kicked his cork leg across the home plate yesterday in the ninth innings, the score being tied, five to five, the umpire called the runner safe, and the last baseball game of the season broke up in a row.
