PRINCIPALS IN RECENT WRECK KNOWN HERE

Capt. V. Forth of Seapool Was Here Last Winter, Capt. W. Boyce was Pilot

Capt. V. Forth, master of one of the grain ships which called here last winter was in command of the British freighter Seapool which recently stranded at Cape Beale on the west coast of Vancouver Island while bound from Victoria to Port Alberni. The vessel sustained extensive damage and an investigation has been called by the wreck Commission into the circumstances of the stranding.

Capt. William Boyce, well known here, who was pilot in charge of the Seapool at the time, claims that the wreck was caused by a buoy being out of position. This is denied by Capt. Harry Bilton of the lighthouse tender Estevan.

T. G. McManamon, well known section foreman at Telegraph Point, is away on a six months' leave of absence and is at present in Winnipeg engaged in work in connection with the maintenance of way employees' union.

Miss Mellier's notebook contained clippings, pictures, cartoons and drawings, and was virtually a modern day history for the state and nation. Thousands of notebooks were submitted in the contest from all parts of the United States, representing the best schools from every state in the union.

MOTHER OF SIX CHILDREN BENEFITED
Read how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her
Montreal, Que.—"I was very weak and unable to do my work. I could not sweep my house without sitting down three or four times and could not digest even water. For three years I could not get any relief and I was discouraged as I am the mother of six children. I read in the papers of the results obtained with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and resolved to take it. The first bottle gave me more strength. I took three bottles and now I am very well and do all my work without fatigue. I also gave it to one of my daughters who was very weak and I recommend it to all women. I will reply to all women who write me."—DAME CHARLES LAUZON, 579 Sicord St., Montreal, Quebec.
