BULGARIANS CAPTURE LULUBURGES AFTER TERRIBLE TWO-DAY FIGHT

Bulgarians Force Turks to Evacuate Important Position and Retreat---Many Killed and Wounded in Desperate Charges

(Special to Daily News.)
Sofia, Oct. 31.—After two days' desperate fighting the Bulgarian army gained a complete victory over the principal Turkish forces under the command of Nazim Pasha, the minister of war. The Turks retreated in great disorder and the town of Luleburgas fell into the hands of the victorious invaders.

Great interest and the attention of the diplomatic and military circles has been centred on the operations of the Bulgarian army around Adrianople, especially against the town of Luleburgas. This town is an important point in the Turkish second line of defense and the fall of the city would indicate that the second line has been broken.

The Turks will probably fall back on Teherli, where they will not doubt make another desperate stand.

London, Oct. 31.—The silence in military circles in Sofia regarding the battle in Thrace has at last been broken and the announcement made that the town of Luleburgas has fallen into the hands of the Bulgarians.

Sofia, Oct. 31.—The returns of the dead and wounded are not in yet from the Bulgarian army in the operations against the town of Luleburgas, but it is understood that they must have been enormous. Although the Turks fought desperately, they were unable to withstand the awful firing of the Bulgarian army and the desperate charges of the invading soldiers. Sullenly the Turks prepared to withdraw, but the Bulgarians charged and recharged their lines until all was in confusion.

THIRTY SETTLERS ARRIVE EN ROUTE TO MASSET WHERE THEY WILL BUILD

Sewell City, on Masset Inlet, Will be Settled by Experienced Eastern Farmers---Thirty Men and Women Arrive ---Land is Very Fertile

Still on board the Prince George, upon which boat they arrived yesterday from the South, and anxiously await the delayed arrival of the Prince John to take them over to Masset, are thirty men, who are enroute to Sewell City, on Graham Island, where they have purchased land and intend to start in right away and prepare homes for themselves and begin farming on the fertile and rich lands of these well known islands.

Mr. Sewell, of the Star Realty Co. of Vancouver, who gives his name to the embryo city, is accompanying the party, the company of which he is the head having engineered the proposition and have been working for the last two or three years upon the settlement scheme that now is reaching concrete fruition.

There are twenty-five men and five women, who have been previously engaged in farming in Manitoba and the Northern Middle States.

The land is plotted into forty-acre tracts, making them an eighth of a section each in area, so that a family can locate on one or more as their means allow. There is a saw mill in operation upon the ground and this year the government have been engaged upon road building that has been of a most beneficial and satisfactory nature, enabling the prospective settlers to get their supplies and effects upon the ground with little or no difficulty.

This will be practically the first contingent of agricultural settlers that has arrived upon the islands with a fixed purpose in view and with the means and experience to carry the undertaking successfully through. Altogether the prospect is most rosy for the future of the Queen Charlotte Islands, and the district around Masset on Graham Island particularly. They have a bright and live little newspaper, the Masset Leader, a stipendiary magistrate, good hotel and stores, schools, etc. Next spring there is every prospect of things humming in that part of the province and an influx of settlers from the East and Middle West may be expected to start pouring in to take advantage of the opportunities to build up homes, make money and enjoy generally the manifold blessings that fall to the lot of the favored residents of this rich and prosperous portion of the Dominion.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER AND GRIT LEADERS HOLD A CONFERENCE

(Special to Daily News.)

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—A gigantic conference of the Liberal leaders in the House of Commons was held here today. The conference was headed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and was for the purpose of discussing the naval policy of the two parties.

After several hours the Liberals, it is rumored, decided to accept the advice of the chief and await developments in the Tory camp.

It was decided to contest the return of Louis Coderre in Hochelaga, who has been appointed to the cabinet in the shuffle following Monk's resignation. With this end in view it is asserted that the Liberals and Nationalists are making advances toward one another.

It is announced that the point on which Mr. Monk resigned had to do with the question of a referendum on the navy and the question of an existence of an emergency. From the foregoing it will be observed that the cleavage possibly lies deeper and that an open break sooner or later was quite inevitable.

It is also recalled that Mr. Monk, previous to the formation of the Borden cabinet, had some sharp passages with prominent members of the Conservative party which probably left a scar which is not entirely healed yet. On one occasion Mr. Monk was accused of a near intrigue against Mr. Borden as leader of the opposition, to which Mr. Monk replied that the newspaper making the accusation was a fanatical organ and that he was told the editor of it was an adept in betrayals and calumnies.

KING WILL EXAMINE SCROLL OF WELCOME GIVEN TO DUKE

R. R. H. DUKE OF CONNAUGHT SENT PRINCE RUPERT'S SCROLL OF WELCOME TO HIS MAJESTY FOR EXAMINATION—MOST ARTISTIC PRESENTATION.

Mr. Monte Craig, the well-known artist, poet and Indian relic collector, is feeling naturally somewhat elated these days. He has received word from Victoria, that the truly remarkable and artistic scroll of welcome that he produced with such infinite skill and patience to be presented to R. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, the Governor General, upon his recent visit to Prince Rupert, has been forwarded by His Royal Highness to England and to the court of King George for the King's personal inspection, as being one of the most beautiful and artistic offerings of his character ever received by the Duke from an official body, during the long term of his public career.

It goes without saying that when the term of office of the present Governor General comes to a close, and the Royal party return to their ancestral home in the mother land, this unique work of art will occupy a place of honor amongst the host of royal treasures possessed by the royal family. Thus will Prince Rupert, the last great city in the making on the Pacific, be pictured and perpetuated for all time.

Mr. Monte Craig has good reason to be proud of his work and the just recognition it has so worthily and gracefully received

STILL NO CLUE OF CITY'S ZOO

In Spite of Efforts of the Police No Trace of Missing Zoo Is to Be Found.

In spite of the fact that the police are working night and day on the mystery surrounding the disappearance of every animal from the Acropolis zoological garden no trace of the marauders can be found. Numerous theories have been advanced as to the probable fate of the zoo.

One theory is that under the fattening process, so ably explained by "the father of the zoo," Ald. Bullock-Webster, at the last meeting of the council the luck looked so tempting that some epicure envied its plump sides to the extent that like the wild Highlanders of long ago, he swooped down on the preserves and carried the game off. Then it has been suggested that in the spirit of benevolence and thanks giving prevailing on Monday some person, or persons, unknown, pitied the young buck, having seen its poor condition before Ald. Bullock-Webster had ordered that change from hay to bran mash and oil cake, and in the darkness of the stormy night crawled up to the bleak heights and opened the gate, "shooing" the pet of the council to the forest.

Whatever has become of the deer there is no doubt that the perpetrator of the crime will be severely dealt with if he is apprehended, and some ancient law may be invoked to justify the penalty inflicted upon the border raider's death. On the range across the line a cattle rustler is often lynched for a crime not half so hideous as freeing a whole zoo.

"BE PREPARED" SAYS WINSTON

First Lord of Admiralty Tells Nation to Be Ready for Emergencies—Did Not Mention Canada.

(Special to Daily News.)

London, Oct. 31.—Contrary to expectations, Winston Churchill did not make any announcement at the Sheffield Cutlers' feast last night in regard to the Canadian naval policy and the negotiations between the Mother Country and Canada in that regard. He devoted his speech to the Balkan situation and said that from it Britain could draw a good lesson.

War could not always be stemmed off by the diplomats and the nation should be prepared to battle at any moment.

MAN ACCUSED OF ROBBERY IS REMANDED FOR MORE EVIDENCE

A. E. M'KENZIE, WHO IS ACCUSED OF ROLLING A DRUNK LAST NIGHT, APPEARED BEFORE THE CADI AND ASKED A REMAND—OTHER CASES.

Magistrate McMullin presided at the police court this morning in the absence of Magistrate Cars, who has gone on a short visit to the lower coast cities.

J. W. McLean, who was before the court a few days ago on a charge of being drunk and let out to be given a chance of earning enough money to pay his fine of $10 had not made good, but had rather aggravated matters by becoming in the same condition again. He was ordered by the magistrate to serve the ten days.

A. E. McKenzie appeared to answer a charge of attempted theft from the person of William S. Williamson upon the premises of the Empress Hotel Cafe shortly before midnight last evening. From the evidence it appeared that the accused, who is a stranger in the city, having been around the hotel in question on and off for the last week, was noticed last evening about 11:30 by the porter of the hotel standing over Williamson, who was lying in a drunken stupor on a bench in the adjoining pool room, making a systematic and thorough search of the latter's pockets, presumably with the object of robbing him of any money or valuables in his possession. The porter drew the attention of Mr. J. G. Crombie, an accountant in the city, who happened in just at that moment to partake of a late supper at the cafe, and who immediately telephoned the police. Constable Cargill arrived on the scene in a few minutes and took the accused in charge.

A little later the man Williamson was also taken to the police station. Upon the latter being searched he was found to only have in his possession a watch and a pocket knife and a couple of keys. Williamson upon being examined for the prosecution said he was good and drunk and remembered nothing whatever of the occurrence. He came down the river about a week ago with over $140, which were all gone. The accused had no questions to ask either of the witnesses, but stated that he would like to have present the other men who were on the premises of the cafe at the time of the alleged offense.

The magistrate ordered the case adjourned until tomorrow morning to allow the police an opportunity to procure the men in question.
