The English papers claim that Johnny Kilbane is afraid to fight his champion, Jim Driscoll, yet none of the English promoters can get Jim into the ring with Owen Moran. They seem to think that because Kilbane does not try to knock his opponents out he is no good, but the majority of the fight fans would rather see a man win on points than by a knockout.

Willie Lewis will shortly leave for France to fight Marcel Mareau and, if successful, will probably be given a return match with Georges Carpentier, the French champion.

Frank Klaus will meet Billy Papke shortly, as both of the boys have defeated Carpentier. The winner of this bout will probably be matched with Eddie McGoorty and see who is the middleweight champion.

Young Sammy Smith, the former lightweight of Philadelphia, who fought Johnny McCarthy 20 rounds to a draw a year ago in San Francisco, is now a welterweight. The other night Sammy knocked out Billy West, a clever Eastern fighter in ten rounds.

P. O. Curran, the Irish white hope, will meet Gunner Moir in a return match in November. The last time these men fought Curran won by the K. O. route, but Moir thinks he will turn the tables on the petty officer in a return match.

Waldemar Holberg, the Danish lightweight, who is touted to be a second Battling Nelson by the Old Country critics, is thinking of coming to America. Holberg will most likely stay to see if he can get a fight with the winner of the Wells-Welsh fight.

The Ottawas have more good progress in signing their players. They have Lesueur, Benedict, Shore, Darragh and Ronan signed to date, and if Taylor is declared eligible he will be with them also. If Lichtenhein refuses to release him and the league upholds him, Taylor will jump to the Maritime Province League or to the Pacific Coast circuit. He has big offers from the East and West.

Billy Nicholson, the Tecumseh manager, has signed Harry Smith of Ottawa. Harry pulled off a sensational come-back at Schreiber last winter and Nicholson believes that he will again make good in the fast company. In any event Harry's wrist movement is likely to win many goals for his team. Tommie Smith will be with the Tecumsehs in all probability, but Billy, who did brilliant work for Stewartons, will be with Ottawa.

Tris Speaker says the real hero of the world's series was Matty.

A fast Winnipeg amateur may go East and play with one of the N. H. A. clubs.

And of course in the long run hockey prices will go up along with the price of butter and eggs. Its the public that gets it every time.

And while we're all talking of Ernie Johnson, don't let us forget Pud. There's still a lot of hockey in "Pud."

The silence in Ottawa since the Intercollegiate called the College bluff is simply awful.

They say that Gady's hands are still full of splinters from handling Wood.

After all, now didn't the Giants deserve to win?

The fee of Rock Sand when he goes into the stud in France is $2,500, but his book is full for the next three years, all nominations being held by the syndicate which purchased him from Mr. Belmont. What is meant is that for not less than $2,500 will any one of the syndicate part with a nomination, and very few are prepared to do so on those terms. The progeny of Rock Sand have won this year in Canada, the States, England, France and Australia, more than $110,000. The horse has been insured for $175,000, covering the risks of the ocean voyage and a year.

Jake Stahl is about the only player of prominence who didn't tell of his world's series experiences at so much per line. Jake was too busy outgeneraling McGraw.
