BANQUET GIVEN Q. CHARLOTTES

SKIDEGATE, May 3:—At Queen Charlotte City a very successful father and son, and mother and daughter banquet banquet was held under the auspices of the C.G.I.T. and the Trail Rangers. Phillip Barge acted as chairman. The girls have been in charge of Mrs. R. Scott, wife of the United Church missionary and the rangers of Mr. Scott, both of whom have worked untiringly and given excellent training. The fathers having sons with them at the banquet included G. H. Jolliff, C. Miller, J. Kitson, J. Mathers, W. Rudge, E. C. Stevens, Rev. R. Scott, H. Beaven, J. L. Barge and C. Valley. Mothers having daughters included Mrs. E. Moore, Mrs. R. Scott, Mrs. A. Duval, Mrs. H. Beaven, Mrs. H. Fairbairn, Mrs. J. L. Barge and Mrs. G. Carmichael. The program follows:

Toast to the King by P. Barge.
Words of welcome.
Toast "Our Country" by Miss Mildred Johnson.
Reply, Demmey Stevens.
Toast "Our Mothers" Miss Cassie Carmichael replied to by Mr. Callison.
Piano solo, Miss Evelyn Fairbairn.
Toast "The Church" by Harry Beaven, replied to by Rev. Matthew.
Toast "The Girls" by John Helliwell and "The Boys" by Velma Fairbairn.
Reading, Mrs. A. Duval.
Piano duet, Rev. and Mrs. Scott.

ECLIPSE OF SUN

There will be a total eclipse of the sun on May 9, but it will not be visible from this continent. United States scientists have gone to the Phillipines to observe it.

Amsterdam is one of the few places in the world where servants are still plentiful. There in an ordinary-sized home, comes a maid to scrub continuously for eight hours every day for a very small wage. No wonder Holland is a clean country!

MORGAN CAMP ALREADY BUSY

Employees of Company Who Are Now at Skidegate Inlet Wonder If It Is Honolulu

SKIDEGATE, May 3.—J. R. Morgan Co. has started logging operations at the mouth of the Dena River on Skidegate Inlet and has taken over all the holdings of the Sitka Spruce Mills of Queen Charlotte City. E. Palmer, manager, is on the job, having arrived from Butedale on one of the company's own boats, the Mary Roberta, Captain Webber.

The weather has been extremely warm and there has been very little rain. The Morgan men, who have been employed on the mainland during the past winter, are delighted with the conditions here and wonder if it is Honolulu.

MACHINERY SALVAGED BARGE BLACK WOLF AT SKIDEGATE IN A WEEK

SKIGEGATE, May 3.—A. P. Allison & Co. has completed the contract from the insurance companies to salvage the machinery and gear of the log-carrying barge Black Wolf, which was wrecked on Robertson Island, Queen Charlottes, a short time ago. The work was done in less than a week, breaking all records of salvage work. Only local men were employed on the job.

DOUBLE BILL AT CAPITOL

"The Great White North" and "Give and Take" Will Be Featured

"The Great White North"

The story centres around the most dramatic episode in the history of Arctic exploration—solving a 15-year mystery of the disappearance of the Stefansson expedition lost in the great white north. This picture is worth going miles to see, just as it might have been worth risking life and limb to chronicle what actually transpires.

"Give and Take"

George Sidney making whoopee and Jean Hersholt in another character portrayal all in one picture. The ridiculous results of a young and ambitious college grad to put his father's business on a profit-sharing basis, from the theme of one of the best comedies of the year. There are a lot of laughs for you in this one.

PORT CLEMENTS SCOUT MASK

Sum of $73.75 Raised Toward the Campaign of the Troop

PORT CLEMENTS, May 3:—A very enjoyable masquerade was held in the Hastie Hall on April 20, under the auspices of the Scouts' Association. The winners of the prizes were:

Mrs. Crawford, best dressed lady.
Mr. Hammond, best dressed gentleman.
Mrs. Hampton, best comic lady.
Mr. Strom, best comic gentleman.

The room was very prettily decorated for the occasion with multi-colored streamers and balloons.

The Scouts passed a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Dyson for donation of flowers which realized $15.00; Junior Red Cross for donation of hand woven workbasket which realized $13.50 R. T. Ward for donation of cream and cake which added another $6.50, also to Mrs. Hastie and all others who so kindly helped. The hat was won by Doreen Allen and the basket by Alfred Pelton, patrol leader.

The proceeds for the evening amounted to $73.75 which the Scouts are putting towards the camp fund.
