Keep Up With Yourself

MEN who forge ahead in business raise their standards of living. Their wants increase; things that were once luxuries become necessities. But too often, the amount of life insurance remains the same. Should the inevitable happen, the widow and children must effect a drastic cut in their scale of living.

Keep up with yourself—don't let your life insurance fall below a safe ratio to your family's living expenses.

URGES SPEED ON BORDEN ST.

Resident Would Like Waterpipe Laid More Than Four Inches Below Surface

Complaint was made last night at the city council meeting by J. Morrison, a resident of Borden Street, that there was too much delay in getting the waterpipe laid on Borden Street, although the engineer had promised it would be attended to. All the residents were putting in lawns and wanted to get the work done.

Also, he referred to the pipe being sunk four inches below the surface. If this was allowed he would ask to permit to keep his taps running so that the water would not freeze in winter.

Alderman Brown pointed out that the engineer was a busy man. So far as the members of the board were concerned, they did not propose to do the engineering work, but were there to lay down policies, and it was for the engineer to carry them out. That was what he was paid for.

Owing to the Prince Rupert Singers' concert last night, the regular weekly meeting of the Young People's Society of First United Church was postponed until tonight when a social will be held in aid of gymnasium renovation.

BEAUTIFUL BILLIE DOVE IN ANOTHER EXOTIC DRAMA

"Adoration," the Most Fervid Love Story of the Decade, Shows Star as a Royal Princess

The glittering splendor of Russian aristocracy forms the background for Billie Dove as a royal princess in "Adoration," which has its premiere at the Capitol Theatre tonight.

In exquisite garb, with a role that calls for stirring emotional acting, and supported by a superb cast, she has a splendid opportunity for again proving her ability as well as once more assuring us that there is no lovelier woman gracing the screen today.

The story is by Lajos Biro, adapted and scenarized by Winifred Dunn and directed by Frank Lloyd, who recently made "The Divine Lady" starring Corinne Griffith. It deals with the plight of Russian royalty and aristocracy following the revolution. They flee to Paris and there their destinies are worked out. The theme of jealousy forms the basis of the story and involves the lovely Princess Elena and her consort, Prince Serge, played by Antonio Moreno with great skill.

The settings are superb, the story is well handled and the direction leaves nothing to be desired.

GOLDBLOOM COMES BACK TO THIRD AVENUE

Pioneer Fur Man Returns To His Former Location on the Main Thoroughfare

Because more people can admire his daschund, or maybe because he wasn't being admired sufficiently himself, or else possibly to be closer to the bank, Goldbloom is now back again in the premises he occupied years ago on Third Avenue, near to the C.P.R. office.

Goldbloom buys furs when they are pelts. He also sells furs when they are furs. And that the furs Goldbloom sells are furs, and the furs they are represented to be, he guarantees. Goldbloom has been in the fur business for more than twenty years right in this district and hasn't had a dissatisfied customer yet. That is a guarantee in itself of fair dealing.

Furs are still fashionable for summer wear. And Goldbloom's furs are right up to the minute in style. Visit his new store and look over his stock of coats, wraps, neckpieces, etc. You are sure to see something you will like. Furs are always dressy and they wear well. And Goldbloom's prices are moderate. Advt.
