BEGIN CUTTING LUMBER SOON AT SMALL MILL

Thirty Men Now Employed Getting Out Logs at Falls Creek

The National Airplane Lumber Co., Inc., will start cutting lumber in about two weeks time with a small 15,000-foot steam sawmill which it has established at Porpoise Harbor, about seven miles along the C. N. Railway track from Prince Rupert. There are 30 men now engaged in logging on the company's timber limits along Big Falls Creek, which flows into the Ecstall River, a tributary of the Skeena. Cutting of lumber at the mill will follow the delivery of the first logs from these limits.

The National Airplane Lumber Co. plans ultimately to establish a much larger mill on Porpoise Harbor. Much of the lumber produced will be airplane spruce for export to the United States.

LOUVRE ANNUAL 2 FOR 1 SALE

Today is second day of Interesting three-day shopping event which is being largely taken advantage of.

To purchase a new up-to-date coat, or a hat, or a dress, for a dollar is a thing that a lady cannot do every day. She could, yesterday, at the Louvre; and she can today, too, and tomorrow as well, for this is the Annual Two for the Price of One Sale at the Louvre. Those who took advantage of this interesting selling event last year will well remember the values they got. They got values then. This year the values are better than ever.

Now, there are few women who could not be doing with a second coat, and still fewer who could not possess a second dress or ensemble to advantage, while the woman who does not need two hats is not born yet. So here at this annual event of the Louvre's is the opportunity to get a hat, a coat or a dress, for the nominal price of one dollar. There is no joker in this offer either. It is a plain straight-forward selling event. When you purchase a coat today or tomorrow at the Louvre at the regular price, you may purchase another one—your own choice—for $1.00. If you purchase a dress or ensemble at the regular price, you may purchase another one for $1.00. Or, if you buy a hat at the regular price, you can get another one for $1.00 too. The regular prices at the Louvre have consistently been the very lowest possible.

Wise women will take advantage of this occasion to acquire a second outfit for a dollar a garment. The opportunity is yours—but only for today and tomorrow. (Advt.)

SHOULD NOT ROB SKEENA

In his objection to the treaty between United States and Canada which provides for joint control of the salmon fisheries of the Fraser watershed and approach and for re-stocking the river, General McRae took occasion to protest the wisdom of removing spawn from the Skeena River to increase the salmon flow in the Fraser.

The Skeena flow goes entirely to Canadian fishermen, while up to the present 70 per cent of the Fraser flow has gone to the United States.

Under the new treaty Canada would get 50 per cent of the Fraser flow.

The general quoted records to show that from an annual average of 116,000 cases per year between 1921 and 1924, the Skeena catch has fallen off to 80,000 cases a year, which he considered to be evidence that the spawning grounds of that river could not be robbed for the Fraser without serious loss.

FISHING FOR BUSHBY PLANT

Trolling at Hippo Island Very Poor So Far This Season

SKIDEGATE, May 31:—Owing to the poor trolling so far this season a number of local people have expressed their intention of fishing dogfish for the Bushby plant. A buying station has been opened here on a scow and the fishermen are being paid $7.00 a ton and furnish their own gear and bait.

The fishing at Hippo is reported very poor so far.

TRAIL OF '98 AT CAPITOL

Heart Throb Story of Yukon and the Trip Is Told in Picture

"The Trail of '98," the great northern film epic now being shown at the Capitol Theatre, is proving to be to the north what "The Covered Wagon" was to the west, "The Birth of a Nation" to the south, and "Way Down East" to the eastern States and their inhabitants.

"The Trail of '98" was directed by Clarence Brown for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and is based on the celebrated Robert W Service story of the Klondike gold rush in 1908.

Though set in spectacular surroundings, in a background of such grandeur and immensity that it dwarfs humanity, the plot is so dramatic and emotionally touching that it stands out supreme, yet it is but a simple love story of a boy and girl and their fight for happiness against lust nad greed and temptation and the almost insurmountable obstacles of the north.

One of the picture's most dramatic scenes is the burning of Dawson City.

CELEBRATION AT SKIDEGATE

People of Mission Enjoy Sports and Fine Banquet in the Evening

SKIDEGATE, May 31:—There was a fine program of sports at Skidegate Mission on the holiday. The main event was a tug of war between married men and single men in which the married were the winners.

After the sports a banquet was held at the town hall where a great spread was much enjoyed. The tables were tastily decorated with local orchids, cut glass and silverware.

After supper Inspector Fraser was asked to speak. He replied that he hardly knew if it were safe to do so as he was a Nisgah, having been adopted into the tribe at Kincolith several years ago and the Haidahs were traditional enemies of the Nisgahs, the Haidahs having in raid after raid tried to get a foothold at the mouth of the Naas but were not able to do so.

Sid Wilson, replying to Mr. Fraser, mentioned that the Haidahs had long ago forgotten tribal wars and Mr. Fraser, being a Nisgah, one of the most valiant foes the Hydahs had ever fought, was all the more welcome, and it was their honor to have him as their guest.

Selections were given by the Skidegate concert band and an impressive speech by Rev. Mr. Matthews.

Committees having the celebration in hand were:

Sports: A. Jones, A. Darrick, T. Crosby and M. William.

Banquet: Mrs. A. Jones, Mrs. A. Collison, Mrs. W. H. Russ, Miss A. Williams, Miss J. Morse, Miss S. Cross and Mrs. S. Wesley.

Finance: A. Collison, J. Wilson, E. Young and A. Moody.

Master of ceremonies, J.* Green.

William Duncan, storekeeper at Claxton Cannery, arrived in the city on yesterday afternoon's train from the river for a brief visit.
