REGINALD DENNY'S LATEST PICTURE IS SPEEDY FARCE

TWO ACTS OF VAUDEVILLE AT CAPITOL

"Charleston" Wright, Classy Step-Dancer Booked For One Week Commencing Tonight

Tonight's bill of entertainment at the Capitol will provide plenty of variation for in addition to Reginald Denny's new super picture "Red Hot Speed" and Ray Southard, "The Wandering Minstrel," Manager Art Easson has booked a very clever step-dancer in the person of "Charleston" Wright who comes highly recommended from the Capitol Theatre, Winnipeg. "Charleston" is as black as the Ace of Spades but he's "red-hot" when it comes to moving 'em feet around. "Charleston" calls himself "The Dark Cloud of Joy," which is just about right because he moves everything but his smile which won't wear off.

Ray Southard, the other "black" man on the bill announces that he will sing tonight, "Ida, She's Sweet as Apple Cider" and "Lamb, Lamb, Lamb."

"Red Hot Speed" is an Hilarious, Rushing, Headlong Comedy of Speeders and the Traffic Court

Without a doubt, "Red Hot Speed," starring Reginald Denny, at the Capitol Theatre tonight, is the funniest thing Carl Laemmle's favorite comedian has turned out for many months.

The idea of the picture is ingenious and entirely new for the screen. It's such an obviously clever idea that it's a wonder it hasn't been done before. The story concerns the misadventures of a young assistant district attorney attached to the speeder's court. He gets into trouble as a result of his public denunciation of a beautiful young speeder. The judge, possessed of a rare judicial sense of humor, paroles the young lady in his custody. There are lots of reasons why she doesn't want her father, a newspaper editor, to know that she was arrested, so she gives a false name.

Well, anyway, that gives you the idea around which Director Joseph Henabery has constructed a delightful romantic farce comedy. Reginald Denny is perfect in the part and Alice Day, as the youthful speeder, adds greatly to the attractiveness and humor of the photoplay.

FORMER RUPERT MAN IS VERY MYSTERIOUS

An Eastern newspaper has the following in a recent number:

"A mysterious Canadian has been tried at Meseritz, on the Polish frontier, on the extraordinary charge of trying to defraud an insurance company by putting three bullets into his own body and pretending that his wounds were the result of an attack by robbers. This man, who calls himself Eckoff, was sentenced to a year's imprisonment. A remarkable feature of the case was that one of the wounds if self-inflicted, could have been caused only by an expert contortionist. But among the many diverse callings said to have been practiced by the defendant is that of an 'Indiarubber man'."
