DUCHESS OF EDINBURGH FUNCTION

Maytime floral setting greets IODE guests

The last Saturday in May was chosen by the Duchess of Edinburgh chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire for its beautiful "Apple Blossom Tea", held in the Civic Centre Main Lounge.

Profusions of apple blossoms, intermingled with lilacs greeted the many guests received by Regent, Mrs. Neil MacDonald, while festoons of pink streamers enhanced by tapers and apple blossom individual centrepieces completed the tea setting.

Tea rom hostess for the delightful social function was Mrs. K. R. Harris while Mrs. Wilfred McLean directed the kitchen arrangements.

In charge of the bake table was Mrs. Alex Slater and cashier was Mrs. George Fowlie.

Mrs. George Miller won the apple blossom cups and saucers, raffled at the annual event.

All proceeds are ear-marked for the educational and charitable projects conducted in the city by the Duchess of Edinburgh chapter.

Members were reminded that the June meeting of the group will be held June 8 at the home of Mrs. Wilfred McLean, in the form of a buffet supper.

ODDFELLOWS JOIN REBEKAHS FOR BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Mrs. Gordon Daniels of the Colfax Rebekah Lodge in Victoria was welcomed as a special guest last week when the Centennial Rebekah Lodge No. 40 held its regular meeting with Noble Grand, Mrs. William McDade, presiding.

During the business, final plans were made Wednesday night for the bake sale held Saturday in Gordon and Anderson's with proceeds for charitable projects.

The membership also voted to sponsor a bowling team for the Fall League.

Following the session, members were joined by the Oddfellows to celebrate the Lodge's 42nd birthday.

Party-fare included games, films and a luncheon, which featured a birthday cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Harry Quick.

Mrs. Janicki receives thanks badge from LA

Mrs. Nick Janicki, retiring secretary of the Prince Rupert Girl Guide Local Association was extended "best wishes" and presented with a "Thanks Badge", at the last regular session of the association.

Chairman Mrs. B. B. Milnes on behalf of the group extended bon voyage to Mrs. Janicki who leaves Friday with Mr. Janicki who is being transferred with Canada Packers Limited, and family.

District Commissioner Mrs. George Cook, in her report announced that the Patrol Leaders and Seconders meeting in April, conducted in Prince Rupert was most successful.

She also reported on the completion of the Home Nursing Course for Guides, held under the supervision of Mrs. Arthur Ogilvie and Mrs. Earl Gordon, with "wonderful results."

Cookie Week was also reported upon as a tremendous success and Mrs. Cook paid particular thanks to Cookie Week Convener, Mrs. W. R. Bingam, and Mrs. E. D. Manson.

Mrs. A. G. Clibbett, camp chairman advised that Guide Camp would be held from July 4 to 20, probably at Metlakatla. She stated that plans are being made for Brownie Pack holidays at Oliver Lake.

Mrs. Jens Knudsen, badge-secretary reported that since January, Brownies and Girl Guides in Prince Rupert have earned 99 badges.

The session was concluded with an interesting address by District Guider, Mrs. W. L. Hitchcock on Guide Work from Tenderfoot to the completion of First Class.

Newlyweds honeymoon at famed Niagara Falls

Niagara Falls was chosen by newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Victor Radwansky for their honeymoon following the double-ring ceremony solemnized May 23 in the First Baptist Church by Rev. J. A. Roskam.

The bride, the former Aileen Rhae Ganton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Ganton of this city and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Radawnsky of Stenen, Saskatchewan.

For the quiet service the bride was lovely in a white gown composed of illusion net-over nylon fashioned in floor-length with accents of lace applique on the bouffant skirt, which were repeated on the elbow-length sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her tiara gracefully secured her four-tiered veil and a bouquet of red roses adorned her white marriage Bible.

In color harmony, bridesmaid, Miss Pamela Painter was gowned in a street-length flowered white silk and mauve nylon frock. Her floral headpiece was matching and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Harold Radwansky attended his brother as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Radwansky left for their eastern honeymoon trip immediately following the wedding supper held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hagen.

While en route they will visit the groom's parents in Saskatchewan and relatives in Manitoba.

For travelling the bride chose to wear a pink-toned suit off-set with white accessories, and a rose from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return the couple will reside at 933 Eleventh Avenue East.

A daily once-over-lightly with a carpet sweeper plus a more thorough vacuum treatment once a week will keep carpets and rugs fresh and bright.

DEVISON - SKOGMO VOWS EXCHANGED

Floral, candlelight church setting unites city couple in United rites

Candlelight and baskets of spring-cut flowers adorned the altar of the First United Church May 13 when Miss Eleanor Louise Skogmo and Richard Wallace Devison were united in marriage by the Rev. Dr. R. W. K. Elliott.

Principals of the 7 p.m. wedding ceremony are the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Skogmo and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Devison, all of this city.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

For the occasion she chose to wear a dainty white cotton lawn afternoon length frock fashioned with scooped neckline framing the fitted bodice which was gathered with a cummerbund.

Unpressed pleats gave a bouffant effect to the skirt and she wore a tiny hat en tone accented with a small illusion veil edging.

A corsage of red roses graced her white prayer book.

Matron-of-honor Mrs. Rodney Dunnett formed a pretty contrast in crisp pink gingham. The sleeveless scooped necklined bodice fell to a skirt fashioned of unpressed pleats in afternoon length.

To complete her outfit she wore a white feathered hat and a matching corsage of white carnations.

Wallace Jessome attended his nephew as best man.

At the reception held in the Venetian Room of La Gondola Cafe, the bride's mother wore a navy and white printed crepe gown. A corsage of white carnations completed her charming outfit.

The groom's mother received the guests wearing a pink afternoon gown also off-set with a corsage of white carnations.

A three-tiered wedding cake centred the bride's table enhanced with flickering candlelight and flanked by two baskets of flowers.

Mrs. Martin Fladset made the beautiful cake, which was decorated by Mrs. John Valderhaug.

John Friedheim proposed the toast to the bride.

Newlyweds left following the reception for a honeymoon in Terrace. The groom is employed with the Department of Transport aboard the CGS "Alexander MacKenzie" and the bride is employed by F. W. Woolworth Company. They are making their home at 508 Musgrave Place.
