COLONEL MCMORDIE ENTERING FIELD FOR MAYORAL HONORS

Pattullo's Settlement Plan is to be Taken up British House Commons

VICTORIA, December 24.—The British House of Commons at its next session early in the new year will take up a measure dealing with Imperial land settlement and industrial enterprises. It will be embodied the scheme proposed by Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands for the province of British Columbia, for the settlement of 1000 English families in the Stuart Lake region. Word to this effect reached the Parliament buildings yesterday from London.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo developed this scheme when he was in England last summer. The British Commons will arrange for the financing of one thousand new settlers who will emigrate from England. They will take up farming on the fine unbroken land north of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. The influx will materially lighten the municipal burdens of the present sparsely settled sections.

Boycott Declared for Christmas Eve According to Report From Calcutta.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 24.—A passive boycott of the Prince of Wales' visit was declared for Christmas Eve. A similar boycott was also declared in Patna, but this was abandoned and there was a great friendly demonstration when the Prince toured the city.

DISORDERS STILL CONTINUE EGYPT

Court House in Suburb of Cairo Attacked by Mob—Troops on Way to Scene.

CAIRO, Dec. 24.—A mob is attacking the government office in Kosh, a suburb of this city. British troops are being rushed to the scene and warships are on the way from Malta. The city of Cairo itself is quiet.

AIR REPORT

Considerable Business Done by Planes in England Last Year.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—In reporting progress made in civil aviation the Air Ministry states that for the half year ending September 30, thirty British airplanes flew 324,000 miles and carried 2,000 passengers with tons of goods and 15,000 outward letters. Air imports for this period were 196,000 pounds and exports 110,000 pounds.

John Reid returned on this morning's train to Usk.

MUCH WORK FOR NEW PARLIAMENT

OTTAWA, Dec. 24.—When the next parliament meets, probably toward the end of February, it is expected that it will not be for a very protracted session. There are many pressing matters to receive attention, however, and there will probably be plenty of work for special and standing committees of the house to work upon. Unemployment will be one of the problems which may have to be tackled before parliament meets.

Re-establishment will probably be further considered by a special committee, according to the statements made by the premier-elect before election. Hon. Mr. King then told the returned men that he was in fator of re-opening the matter, inasmuch as he had not considered that the last parliament was representative of public opinion and that consequently it was unfitted to deal with the great problems of re-establishment and reconstruction. Whether this will mean an entire reopening of the whole subject or the use of some of the mass of special material already secured in evidence, is uncertain, though it is expected that the new committee will be able to avail itself of much of the information already printed and placed on record.

The investigation by a special committee into the management and operation of government owned and operated railways and steamship lines, also was incomplete when the committee rose last year. It is expected that there will be some further probing along this line, though that will be a matter for the house to decide when it meets.

Immigration also presents a problem for the new minister to deal with and this is expected to be the basis for investigation and action during the next session. The result will probably be some changes in the present laws if parliament is agreeable to the amendments. Altogether, though the session may not be very long, it promises to be a busy one for members of all three parties.

SALOONKEEPER IN BELFAST SHOT DEAD

BELFAST, Dec. 24.—A saloonkeeper was shot dead last night. A bomb was thrown into a street car but it did not explode. The city was otherwise quiet.

Police Magistrate Announces Candidacy For Mayor's Office: John Dybhavn Is Not Running

Colonel S. P. McMordie, police magistrate and contractor, announced definitely this morning that he would be a candidate for the mayoralty at the municipal election which will be held on January 12. He will oppose Mayor Harry Rochester, the present incumbent. Alderman John Dybhavn, on being told that Colonel McMordie was in the field, stated this morning that he would not be a candidate for the chief magistracy. The indications are now that the fight will be between Colonel McMordie and Mayor Rochester, no other candidates having announced themselves and none others having been prominently mentioned for the contest.

Colonel McMordie, who is a native of Ontario, is one of the most prominent citizens of the city and is known by all. He came here first in 1909 and for a year was engaged as accountant with the Westholme Lumber Co. He then went into the contracting business and conducted some of the big street grading contracts in 1910 and 1911. In February, 1915, he went overseas and was seriously wounded twice while on active service. He was invalided for a year in England, but returned to France with the Thirteenth Battalion, Canadian Railway Troops, and was there until the end of the war. In May, 1919, he returned to Prince Rupert and was soon after appointed police magistrate.

This will be the first time that Colonel McMordie has been in the field for public office. He will make a formal announcement shortly after the New Year.

Colonel McMordie has resigned the police magistracy, his resignation being effective on January 1, 1922.

R. B. BENNETT LOSES WEST CALGARY SEAT

CALGARY, Dec. 24.—A recount of the votes in West Calgary federal constituency gives Shaw, the Progressive candidate, a majority of 16 over Hon. R. B. Bennett, minister of justice in the Meighen administration. This count is final and Mr. Shaw has been declared elected. Mr. Bennett was appointed minister of justice in the reorganized Meighen cabinet. He is a law partner of Sir James Lougheed.

CRERAR WITH KING TODAY

Conference Started This Morning and Still Going On—No Action Is Expected Today.

OTTAWA, Dec. 24.—Hon. T. Crerar, leader of the Progressive party, arrived this morning from the west and is now in conference with Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, the premier-elect. It is understood that the conference will be continued this afternoon. In well informed circles it is not considered likely that the new ministry will be sworn in today although the presence of Mr. Crerar and many Liberal members from the east points to an early conclusion of the present situation.

SKEPTICAL ABOUT SUBS

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The presentation to the Washington conference of Britain's plea for the abolition of submarines as a naval weapon by Lord Lee, First Lord of the Admiralty, in which he outlined the reasons prompting it, is being discussed skeptically here.

General opinion doubtless favors abolition of submarines and there are many regrets expressed at the fact that there seems no prospect of its being brought about. Even if Lord Lee's proposal is accepted there is some doubt expressed as to it really ever being put into effect.

SEATTLE AHEAD HOCKEY LEAGUE

Defeated Victoria in Last Night's Game in Overtime Period —Score 3 to 2.

VICTORIA, Dec. 24.—Seattle defeated Victoria by a score of three to two in the Pacific Coast Hockey League game last night. The teams were evenly matched and the game ran into the fourth period, the end of the regular time having found the teams tied with two scores each.

The combination work of Foyston and Walker carried the puck into the Victoria goal two minutes after overtime commenced, settling the game and putting Seattle one game ahead in the league standing.

Rowe of Seattle has been suspended by President Patrick for attacking Johnson in the last game with Victoria.

Christmas Is Here Again.

Christmas is here again. Tomorrow all Christian people will celebrate the day of the year that throughout the Christian world is observed as the anniversary of the coming of the Messiah in Bethlehem Village 1921 years ago tomorrow morning. The significance of the day should not be forgotten in participating in the festivities that have come to mark the occasion. Christmas Day should be regarded more as a fifty-third Sabbath than as a common holiday. Custom allows us to celebrate it informally and without restriction, but conscience and realization of the old tradition should compel us to keep the day a holy one.

This Is the Occasion for Cheer.

Charity and cheer are the keynotes of the modern celebration of Christmas Day. It is the one day in the year when all should attempt to forget their sorrows and take part in the general happiness. Possibly this year more than in any other one of recent years it is going to be difficult for some to be happy. Some people are going to be hungry this Christmas, and some of those hungry people will be right in Prince Rupert. The greatest delight that goes with Christmas is the delight of dispensing happiness. Think it over! Is there any one you can help? If so, do it and you will feel the happiness of the season even more yourself.

The Sacrament of Christmas.

The generally accepted definition of a sacrament is that it is an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace, writes Archbishop Du Vernet. It can be readily seen from this definition that wherever the spiritual is in any degree expressed through the material we have something which is sacramental in its nature.

Men and women are sacramental in their nature for the reason that so long as they live in a physical world with a material body they must give outward expression to the inward spirit of their minds. We say of some that they are the embodiment of selfishness, and of others that they are the embodiment of kindness. The hidden spirit is incarnated in the physical body. In popular language we speak of a fiend in human form, or of an angel in human flesh.

Christ Was Human Being.

It is only by beginning at the foot of the ladder in our conception of spiritual things that we can rise to the dizzy top. It is only because human being possess the capacity to incarnate in some degree the divine that we can conceive of the Human Being who perfectly incarnates God. It is only because ordinary men and women can incarnate in some degree the spirit of Him who was "God manifest in the flesh" that they are capable of being redeemed and exalted. Those who are so very jealous for the honor of Christ that they put Him in a totally different sphere to human beings rob Him thereby of His highest glory, because logically they place Him out of touch with mankind. The Christ of Christmas brought the divine into the human that He might exalt the human into the divine. He is thoroughly one with us at the same time He is thoroughly one with God. In the historic Christ we have the expression in human form of the inward and spiritual grace of the Invisible God. This is the Sacrament of Christmas.

The Spirit of Christmas.

Why should we wrangle over theological definitions? Everywhere the world over the great essential for the Christmas season is the Christmas spirit—love shining in the home circle brightening the lives of little children, peace and good-will radiating far and wide beyond the family, the community, and even the nation. Here a little and there a little the Spirit of Christ is undoubtedly becoming incarnate in ordinary men and women. The visible expression in countless little ways in our daily lives of the inward and spiritual grace manifested in fulness in the historic Christ is for us the practical meaning of the Sacrament of Christmas.

Three years ago, I consulted one of the best specialists in Montreal. He said I must go to the hospital, have an Ulcer cut out of my stomach and gall stones removed. I was then 74 years old. I said "NO."

Then, I began to take "Fruit-a-tives". I found they helped me a lot, and I still take them occasionally, and I am so much better that my old friends often ask me what I have done to myself to look so well. I am gaining in weight and enjoying life very much"

FINE CHRISTMAS TREE AND CONCERT METHODIST CHURCH

A splendid Christmas concert and tree was put on by the Methodist Church last night, about three hundred being present. The membership of the Methodist Sunday School comprising eighteen officers and teachers and the total attendance of some two hundred children were present in force. The church was very prettily decorated with Christmas trees of various sizes.

The first part of the program consisted of solos and recitations by the primary department. These were under the leadership of Miss Hudson, Miss Way and Miss Eason. Special numbers consisting of solos and recitations were given by the members of the intermediate department.

Sketches Put On.

The closing items were very much enjoyed, especially by the children. A sketch of a humorous character entitled "A Stolen Dress" was especially well acted. The second sketch, entitled "The Trial of Santa Claus," put on by the Trail Rangers, was perhaps the most enjoyed by the kiddies. Santa Claus was put through a very severe cross-examination, but at the end of the trial was entirely acquitted, after which he proceeded to hand out the presents to the children from the Christmas tree.

CHRISTMAS CHEER GENERAL HOSPITAL

Canadian Girls in Training Have Decorated Institution—Music Tomorrow Afternoon.

During the week the Canadian Girls in Training, an organization of the Methodist Church, have decorated the general hospital with lamp shades, bells and wreathes. The wards and the halls have been adorned and Christmas trees have been arranged in the nursery. The older people of the church are sending boxes of Chirstmas Cheer to the patients and tomorrow afternoon the girls choir will proceed to the institution to render a program of Christmas music.

Many organizations and persons are contributing to the work of cheering up the hospital this Christmas. A contribution fund from the Ladies' Auxiliary and Hospital Board has been raised and will be used for buying presents.

PRESBYTERIAN XMAS TREE LAST EVENING

Santa Claus Came and Gave Gifts to All the Children.

The Presbyterian Church was the scene of much merriment last night, when the annual Christmas tree entertainment for the children took place.

The church was crowded with children and great surprise and pleasure was expressed on the faces of the youngsters upon the appearance of Santa Claus, who distributed the gifts from the giant tree. Every child received a suitable Christmas gift from the hands of Santa Claus.

Hon. Alex. Manson and Mr. Fraser gave the children very appropriate talks.

NO ONE THINKS OF DAD.

Now Christmas is upon us and we've said our midnight prayer;
The sun is rising in the east, sweet music fills the air.
The widow is not forgotten, and the little child made glad;
The maidens all are smiling, but there is no one thinks of Dad.

He sits there in his cottage or rooming house alone;
His mind returns to childhood and once a happy home.
He sees his little hobby horse and his playmates all so glad;
But now he's sad and lonely when there is no one thinks of Dad.

Perhaps he was the strongest—in his family the best—
The one with greatest courage, and the man who came out west.
Through fate he is alone out here; life's battles make him sad
When he sees the world rejoicing and no one thinks of Dad.

Now the sun is setting, Christmas will soon be past;
Good cheer to my old neighbors and every little lass.
In a few days distant we will enter the new year;
Let us all join in together and send poor Dad some cheer.

—P. McGUIRE, Regina, Sask.

SPECIAL XMAS MUSIC CHURCHES

All Local Congregations Will Be Presented With Splendid Services.

The local churches have arranged special programmes of Christmas music for both the morning and evening services on Christmas Day.

At the Presbyterian Church in the morning the Children's choir will render the musical portion of the service. Christmas carols will be sung entitled "Hosannah! Hosannah, It Made the Angels Sing," and "Carol, Sweetly Carol." Luther's cradle son will be sung by the infants and a solo will be sung by Miss Nella Clarke. The morning service will be devoted entirely to the children and Rev. H. R. Grant will preach a suitable sermon for the little folks. The music of the evening will be rendered by a special choir. "The Sanctus" and the anthem "Behold I Bring You Glad Tidings" will be sung. The Christmas carols "Oh, Holy Night" and "Christmas Bells" also will be rendered. Mr. Stewart Langill will sing a solo, and the Vesper hymn will be sung at the close of the service.

Methodist Church.

In the morning at the Methodist Church the musical portion of the service will be rendered by the Junior Choir. A special anthem entitled "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains," a solo entitled "Oh! Saviour Divine" by Miss Marjorie Lancaster, and a duet by Miss Verna Thompson and H. G. Higgins "Hosannah! In the Son of David" will be rendered.

In the evening a special anthem by the choir will be sung Mrs. Stanley Bennett and H. G. Higgins will sing solos. A selection from Handel's "Largo" will be rendered by Pryce's Student orchestra, which will also accompany the other numbers on the program.

Baptist Church.

The children's choir will render the music at the Baptist Church in the morning. In the evening there will be special music given by the adult choir and twenty-eight beautifully colored lantern slides will be shown depicting "the Birth of Christ." Mrs. P. H. McMillan will sing a solo.

HARRY LIPSETT GETS XMAS CARD FROM HELL

Where John Hansen, formerly Skipper of Rose Point, is Spending the Winter.

Harry Lipsett has received a Christmas card from his friend, John Hansen, formerly skipper of the fishing boat, Rose Point. Mr. Hansen is spending the winter in Hell and says that he is having a great time. Mr. Lipsett believes that he is the only person in the city who has had communication this winter from Hell, which is a small town in Norway near Trondjhem. The postcard shows the railroad depot in Hell.

TWO MEN—ONE GIRL

One of the Phases of "The Gilded Lily" Starring Mae Murray.

A contest between an unsophisticated country boy and an experienced city man over a girl they love is one of the interesting phases of "The Gilded Lily," an original picture story by Clara Beranger, in which Mae Murray, the famous Paramount star, appears at the Westholme Theatre tonight. Just who is the lucky one is kept dark until the very end of the picture and when it is revealed it comes as a complete surprise. Lowell Sherman, a prominent screen player, is leading man. Others in the cast include Jason Robards, Charles Gerard and Leonora Ottinger.

THREE PARTS IN A GOOD ADVERTISEMENT

Top, the Bait; Middle the String and Bottom the Hook.

A good advertisement is divided into three parts. In the upper part you must not put your name; nobody cares for your name. Neither must you put the name of your goods in the top portion; but you must put something bright and attractive.

Remember that the top is the bait, the middle the string, and the lower portion the hook. The top to make people look, the middle to make them like, and the lower to make them bite.

CHANGE IN RULE OF ROAD.

The attention of the public is directed to the fact that the change in the rule of the road comes into effect on the 1st of January next. Under the new rule persons in charge of a vehicle, on meeting another vehicle, are required to turn to the right instead of the left, and in overtaking another vehicle, the vehicle so overtaken is required to turn to the right to permit the overtaking vehicle to pass. All subsisting licenses in respect to motor cars expire on the 31st instant, and applications for renewal must be made by the licensees on or before the 15th instant. Owners of motor cars are urged to make application at once for renewal of their licenses. Each applicant will be furnished with a sticker to be attached to the windshield of his motor car, giving warning that on and after 6 a.m. on Sunday the 1st day of January, 1922, he must keep to the right, and when overtaking any vehicle going in the same direction, to the left.

Batting of the most sensational character featured the games of the American Baseball League throughout the season of 1921 according to official league batting records just issued. Phenomenal fielding plays were the natural sequence to the heavy hitting and faster and cleverer base running on hit and run plays was the order of the day. The art of base-stealing, however, was almost discontinued it being obvious that to take two bases or more on the probable forthcoming base hit was better strategy for the runner than to risk being cut down on an attempt to steal.

No less than 12,526 safe hits were made in 616 games of which 2,110 were two baggers, 304 for three bases and the hitherto unprecedented number of 447 were home runs. They averaged a little more than 22 to the game of which more than five were for extra bases.

The Detroit Club led the sluggers with an average of .316 for the season followed by Cleveland with .308; St. Louis, .304; and the champion New York Yankees with an even .300. The champions, led by "Babe" Ruth drove out one hundred and thirty four home runs and were first in total bases. St. Louis gathered one hundred and six triples and Detroit one hundred while the Cleveland Indians whaled three hundred and fifty-five two base hits. The ex-champions also coaxed 614 bases on balls from the nervous pitchers, New York being awarded 588 and Detroit 582.

The greatest individual record of the year, attracting more interest than anything that has heretofore occurred in baseball was the performance of George H. Ruth who broke his own world record for home runs by making 59 safe blows that were good for the round trip. In three successive seasons Ruth has raised the record of 25 home runs made in 1899 first to 29, then to 54 and now to 59.

Harry F. Heilmann, Detroit outfielder, beat out Manager Cobb by five points for the leadership in batting with a record of .334, Heilmann made 237 hits in 149 games for a total of 365 runs. Heilmann scored 141 runs and was responsible for 120 more of the Tiger's total of 883. He is credited in the R.R.F. column with 139 runs but these include his 19 homers. Heilmann led everyone in sending runs across the plate except Ruth who was credited with 170, of which 59 were his own four base blows. Ruth counted 177 times, J. T. Tobin, St. Louis being second with 132, Sisler third with 125 and Cobb fourth with 124. Manager Tris Speaker made 52 two base hits. Ruth 44, Heilmann and his teammate R. H. Veach, 43 each and R. Meusel, New York, 40. Howard Shanks, Washington, drove out 19 three baggers, Tobin and Sisler, 18 each and Cobb, Ruth and R. Meusel 16 each.

As stated above Babe Ruth established a new record for home runs with 59, Meusel and K. R. Williams, St. Louis, being tied for second place with 24 each, while Clarence Walker, of Philadelphia, was third with 23. Little attention was paid to stealing bases and the sacrifice was not used as frequently as in former years for the same reason that prohibited base stealing. Sisler pilfered 35 bases, Rice 25 and Cobb 22. W. A. Wambsganss, Cleveland, laid down 43 sacrifices, Owen Bush, Detroit-Washington, 41, McInnis, Boston, 35, and Mulligan, Chicago, 34.

There's only one part of Europe that shows no trace of Phillips' Military Soles and Heels—and that's the English Channel! Wherever there trod a British foot this imprint is a sign of miles decided—of protection from wet—of extraordinary durability given leather.

You can have Phillips' Military Soles and Heels fitted to any style of shoe. The difference in comfort — in two or three times more wear — is amazing. Over a million and a half sets were worn in Great Britain last year.

Shock is absorbed. Friction is prevented, sole wear reduced to a minimum—with Phillips' Military Soles and Heels. Only by wearing them can you enjoy the wonderful ease they give walking—benefit from the economy of considerably extra wear to shoes.

Waterfront Whiffs

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet Which Is the Chief Source of Prince Rupert's Prosperity

On behalf of the crews, the Admiral of the Mosquito Fleet, who is in port aboard the flagship, extends to the readers of Waterfront Whiffs the compliments of the season and good wishes for a bright and prosperous new year. In spite of storms accidents, and other untoward happings to the fleet recently, the morale of the crews is of a high standard and everything is being prepared to give them a real good time during the festive season.

A gloom has been cast over the entire Waterfront this week as a consequence of the fatal hunting accident to Captain Selig, late skipper of the Eagle. The loss of such a comrade is a sore blow to the fishermen individually. The late Captain Selig was a man of very high principles and outstanding character. He was always willing to help his fellowmen and evidenced this at the time of the recent storm in Cow Bay, when he worked night and day with his boat to help the distressed. He was a man who could always rise to the occasion. The mosquito fleet has lost a true and trusted friend in the late Captain Selig.

Sympathy is also expressed among the crews for young Lockwood who is naturally much distressed over the tragic occurrence.

Fish arrivals have been very light during the week, few boats being out on the fishing grounds prior to Christmas. It is anticipated that after the New Year two thirds of the larger boats of the fleet will make for open sea again.

The idea of a breakwater out in the bay, is uppermost in the minds of the fishermen since the recent gale and several ideas have been put forward. One idea that seems somewhat feasible is that a breakwater of 400 to 450 feet long could be built outside the bay in the harbor at very little expense by using the residue of the two rock bluffs situated just behind Cow Bay. It is thought that these rock bluffs will one day be demolished, and that in this event the rock therefrom could be dumped in the bay thus forming a breakwater.

The Admiral of the Fleet is in Christmas humor these days and says that, in spite of prohibition, lack of ambition and other "itions," with a bottle of "the best" reclining handy on the shelf, a turkey roasting in the oven and a box of good cigars aboard the flagship, he will be found spending a real rollicking Christmas all by himself, perhaps.

The Wigwam, Captain Ketchum, came into port Thursday morning from Georgetown with a scow load of boxes for the Cold Storage, and a scow of box lumber, the former for the Royal Fish Company and the latter for the Georgetown Lumber Company yards at Cow Bay.

The diving in connection with the raising of the ill-fated yacht Kelpie, owned by Captain Bill Shelim, which was sunk outside the floats at Cow Bay in the recent storm, was carried out by the owner. It was necessary to go down to Davy Jones' locker four times for the purpose of placing wire hawser slings under the vessel. The last dive caused a good deal of inconvenience to the diver, the valves to the air pump becoming clogged thereby cutting off the air, upon being brought to the surface Bill was a little short of breath. It took 75 feet of air hose to reach from the pump to the diving helmet when submerged, the Kelpie lying in about 65 feet of water. Captain Khort took charge of the diving operations, handling the life line and the signals. Four volunteer fishermen worked at the pump, and otherwise assisted Bill night and day to help raise the boat. Captain Babington gave valuable assistance in lending the diving gear and the use of a scow, the Georgetown Lumber Company also very kindly loaned a scow to help the unfortunate skipper. It was necessary to employ two scows to lift the sunken craft and after the hawsers had been placed in position the scows drew up one on each side of the wreck and gradually lifted her to a height of 10 feet at which depth the Kelpie was towed into the Dry Dock. It is understood J. H. Pillsbury of the Dry Dock is also giving aid to Captain Shelim in so far as he is patching the boat up sufficiently to enable her to be floated after which the owner will do detailed repairs himself.

The work on the new roadway around Cow Bay is going along at a merry clip, and good progress is being made. Some fifteen men are engaged on the work and the grading is pretty well completed. Considerable blasting has been going on during the week.

The Ringleader, Captain Leon is tied up in Cow Bay, and will remain in port until after the festive season, when it is the intention to hike out and do a little fish collecting.

Jimmy Thomas, first officer on the Wigwam, met with hard luck during the recent local election campaign. Without going into any details as to Jimmy's political opinion, suffice to say that he laid odds that his pet candidate would make the grade by a certain majority. However, something untoward happened to his calculations with the result that Jimmy had to "come through." If it had not been for the tide turning against his ambitions it is likely the new yacht which Jimmy had visions of building, would be well under way with all the fancy fittings of a millionaire's joy riding craft.

The Pioneer, Captain Hansen, is still on the dry dock, and the repair work will take longer than was first anticipated. It will be after the New Year before this well known fishing craft will be able to ply her trade once again.

* * *

The St. Eloi, Captain Perry, is in Cow Bay being cleaned up and undergoing a general overhaul. The St. Eloi recently suffered some damage during a storm in Mink Trap Bay.

The Canadian Bisley team piloted this year to England by Colonel Peck, V.C., sure overlooked a crack shot, right in our midst too, in the person of Captain Tommy Watts. An episode of his shooting qualifications is well worth recounting.

It happened quite a while ago but nevertheless is a true story. Tom was out seining herring in Butler's Cove with a party of salmon trawlers when during the operations a bald headed eagle of gigantic proportions hovered overhead watching a chance to pounce on the water and grab a herring, the herring at this period were swimming close to the surface. Tommy chanced to spy the eagle, and if there is one thing on this earth gets his goat it is a bald headed bird of prey. However the eagle gave a swoop and snapped up a herring and commenced eating the fish from its claw. This was too much for Tom who swore vengeance on the bird, and hastened below to get his gat yelling "I'll get that blankety blank bird or bust." Up came Tom with the gat duly primed and taking a quick aim at the eagle pulled the trigger. When the smoke of battle had cleared low and behold the eagle was flying high but the herring had been directly hit from its claw and came twisting to the surface of the water. The reader will admit that was some shooting.

The Dixie Rupert, Captain Newcombe, recently returned to port from a trip to Vancouver. While there has been considerable talk around the waterfront as to what the Cap's business was so far south the fact remains that Cap returned all alone, and the secret service branch of the Admiralty has failed to locate any confetti on board.

Flossie Glirt has already been the fortunate recipient of many beautiful Christmas gifts from those of the fishermen who think they are in good standing with the late fair Stenog. in Chief to the Admiral. The presents comprise everything from a beautiful shrimp mounted in a tiffany setting to a powder puff of somewhat gigantic proportions set with clam shells. The puff was left lying on the table around the Mug Up and Jack thinking it was a new mop started in to clean the float down with the much prized gift. However Flossie came on the scene and Jack will think for a long time in future before using a mop of any description. His appearance is somewhat disarranged at present.

On of the strangest gifts Flossie received was a box of dynamite. Some youthful fisherman, who fancied his chances with the fair young thing, hap-

Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such upbuilding treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return.

Mrs. W. J. Pearse, Nunn St., Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. The was so severe that I would have to bind a cloth tightly about my head so that I could get my work done. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I found quite an improvement in my condition. I continued using them until I had taken about seven boxes, and they strengthened and built up my system splendidly, completely relieving the pain in my head."

Waterfront Whiffs

pened to hear powder mentioned as a suitable gift for a lady. Not being accustomed to giving ladies presents the well meaning young man got a box of dynamite. Now Flossie is sore because there are no fuses or caps with it, or it would be passed on for more useful work than blowing off her complexion.

Here's a good one: One of the boys around the bay wishing to give his chum a Christmas gift, and knowing that he needed some arm bands, went up town to buy the necessary articles. Going into one of the departmental stores his eye hit what he thought to be a swell pair of arm bands, all frills and things of a beautiful violet hue. Much pleased he purchased the articles. Upon showing them to a knowing acquaintance he was much ashamed to learn that they were not arm bands at all but articles used by ladies for the prevention of stocking trouble. It is understood they are being donated to Flossie's wardrobe.

During the week the Allin Fisheries have shipped a scow load of refrigerating machinery by the towing boat Elsinore, to the New England Fish Company at Ketchikan. This machinery will be installed and will assist materially in easing up the ice shortage which usually takes place in the summer.

The barge Louise has left the Albert & McCaffery wharf for the dry dock to take on a load of iron for the south.

In view of the recent mishaps on the waterfront the boys have not been able to devote much time to the laundry end of life. As a consequence there is a difference of opinion about hanging up the proverbial Christmas stocking this season.

The crib tournament between the fish buyers and their employees has ended with the result that Bill Shrubsell did not win the turkey in spite of the prediction of the Ouija board, the coveted bird going to S. Carter one of the employees who played a masterly game.

The final round was the case of the lightweight versus heavyweight with the decision going to the former at the close of the fifth round. All the invitations issued by Bill have been reluctantly cancelled and he will have to fall back on stuffed red cod or some cast iron chickens.

The contest is given below in rounds.

First Round.

Knight v. Sanderson, winner, Knight.

Lee v. Solem, winner, Lee.

Starr v. Carter, winner, Carter.

McIntosh v. Davies, winner, McIntosh.

Hughes v. Shrubsall, winner Shrubsall.

Sinclair v. Clapperton, winner, Sinclair.

Cash v. Poole, winner, Cash.

Donnolly v. Dybhavn, winner, Dybhavn.

Second Round.

Knight v. Sinclair, winner Sinclair.

Lee v. Shrubsall, winner, Shrubsall.

McIntosh v. Cash, winner, McIntosh.

Carter v. Dybhavn, winner Carter.

Semi-Final.

Sinclair v. Carter, winner, Carter.

McIntosh v. Shrubsall, winner, Shrubsall.

Carter v. Shrubsall, winner, Carter.

It is rumored that the members of the Mosquito Fleet are presenting the Admiral with a sealskin walking stick, a fur lined necktie and a pair of fur lines shoe laces for Christmas.

The Muzon, Captain Shelton, arrived at the Cold Storage dock on Thursday with twenty-five tons of fresh herring to be used for bait.

It is understood that after Christmas several of the large fishing boats at present in port will be leaving for the south for the purpose of undergoing a general overhaul. With the wonderful docking facilities and machinery at the Dry Dock it seems a pity that work of this nature should go to southern ports. There may be good domestic reasons for the skippers taking their boats south but from a purely business standpoint it seems to be letting work get past us.

* * *

The following boats are at present in Cow Bay: Alliance No. 1, Narbethong, Westerner, Wake, Wigwam, Cape Spencer, Birdie B, Oh Baby, Dixie Rupert, Laura L, Violet, O.O., Lovera, Selma, Glide, Peggy, Kobe, St. Eloi, Viking, Kouyasu, Ciola, Mab, Helen D., Bartolome of Ketchikan, Livingston II, Joe Baker, Lewis I and II., Silver Spray, Yakima.

The Narbethong, Captain Freeman, is once again in port. The secret service of the fleet have ascertained that Cap was out on a logging expedition. It is said the Narbethong was run up into the woods and did great work in snaking out the logs.

NO WEAKENING OF IMPERIAL TIES UNDER LIBERAL GOVERNMENT

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Robert Donald, director of a number of Liberal journals, including the Yorkshire Observer and the Bradford Daily Telegraph, signs a long article in the London Telegraph welcoming W. L. Mackenzie King's accession to power and expressing the opinion that there will be no slackening of the imperial ties under his government, but that the spirit of nationhood will advance.

Mr. Donald gives his views on the possible lines of the new cabinet's policy.—

Firstly, he sees no reason why the Canadian government should not nominate the Governor-General of Canada, if it desires, although the post need not necessarily be occupied by a Canadian statesman.

Regarding the advanced Liberal demands for discontinuing referring appeals to the privy council, however, the writer remarks that should severance be accomplished difficulties may arise leading the Dominion again to resort to the impartial arbitrament of the supreme tribunal of the empire.

After detailing Mr. King's efforts for the betterment of the friendship of the English speaking peoples, the writer concludes that Mr. King's assumption of power comes opportunely to assist in cementing the empire's friendly relations with the United States.

METHOD OF BOOSTING MAN FOR THE CABINET

Simon Fishface Is Suitable Person for Position Because of His Ability.

Simon Fishface, the well-known postmaster of Lonesome Rock, on the Gaspe coast, is being prominently mentioned for the portfolio of postmaster-general in the new Liberal cabinet. This rumor has caused much speculation in Sardine Hollow, Mr. Fishface's home town, where he has accounts with all the leading merchants, and at the Palace hotel, this latter dating back to pre-prohibition days. Of Mr. Fishface's qualifications no doubt exists in the minds of those who have the pleasure of his acquaintance. In a recent wager in St. Hoskin's general store, Mr. Fishface spotted correctly a three cent stamp, a registered letter and a bundle of newspapers at a distance of fourteen feet, three inches, winning the cigar put up by a smart drummer from Halifax, who is now being sued by Mr. Fishface for unstated damages occasioned by the cigar exploding and igniting his whiskers. Mr. Fishface comes of old codfish aristocracy, his ancestors having been among the first to disembowel the wily piscatorial species along the Gaspe coast. Mr. Fishface's grandfather on his mother's side was the celebrated "Tomcod" Jones, inventor of the self-threading fish hook. The new aspirant's sports are throwing the horseshoe, in which he has held the local championship for two summers, and the mastication of fine cut. In the salivary exercises of the latter Mr. Fishface won the Gaspe championship in 1920, in his famous contest with "Porpoise" Hunks of Pishpash, when Mr. Fishface extinguished the fire in the stove of Mr. Hoskin's store on his fifth shot, at a distance of nine feet.—Ottawa Citizen.

BRITAIN IS STILL SUPREME

Her Plans for Naval Disarmament More Ideal Than Other Nations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The latest available statistics on the naval strength of the powers indicate that while Britain is undoubtedly in a position still to "rule the waves," her future plans are more in line with the ideals for which the conference is striving than are those of any of the other big powers represented at Washington.

The competitive fighting strength of the navies in total number of ships and total tonnage is:

Great Britain, 533 ships, 1,860,180 tons; United States, 464 ships, 1,289,463 tons; Japan, 99 ships, 528,689 tons; France, 138 ships, 462,356 tons; Italy, 86 ships, 275,622 tons.

The figures include fighting ships of all classes, from battleships to submarines and aircraft carriers. The building programs in the same terms are:

Great Britain, 12 ships, 39,380 tons, and four additional battle cruisers aggregating 160,000 tons planned but not yet laid down; United States, 69 ships, 734,928 tons; Japan, 85 ships, 805,188 tons; France, 34 ships, 94,230 tons; Italy, 21 ships, 19,928 tons.

In broadside strength of capital ships of the first line now afloat, which means the number of guns of 12-inch bore and up, the figures for the three leading powers are: Great Britain, 288 guns; United States, 196 guns; Japan, 96 guns. This existing gun power strength is carried in the following groups of capital ships: Great Britain, 26 first line battleships and six first line battle cruisers; United States, 18 first line battleships; Japan, six first line battleships and four first line battle cruisers. The tonnage figures for these ships are: Great Britain, 811,050; United States, 560,650; Japan, 288,320.

AMERICAN ARCHITECTS EXHIBIT AT LONDON

Three Hundred Photographs and Drawings Interesting Display at Paris Salon.

LONDON, Dec. 24—A prominent feature of the Paris Salon during the summer was the exhibition of three hundred photographs and drawings of the best American architecture of the past ten or fifteen years. These works were brought to London and put on view to the public free of charge at the Royal Institute of British Architects.

All the most famous American architects are represented—Cram, Bertram Goodhue, Paul Cret, Cass Gilbert, and the firm of McKim, Mead and White. Amongst the exhibits are the Temple of Scottish Rite at Washington, a monumental building in the classic style; the California Exposition buildings; various business buildings of the skyscraper type in New York; and several fine examples of domestic architecture, in which department American architects are wonderfully good.

Advertising is often expensive but it is nothing like as expensive as an empty store and idle clerks.
