Prince Rupert Daily Veus

Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port — And Key to the Great Northwest

Mayor says words

insult to city

Forests Minister R. G. Williston was taken seriously

by Mayor P. J. Lester, MLA for Prince Rupert William H. Murray and a large number of city residents who beseiged the mayor, Mr. Murray and The Daily

News with phone calls last night.

Mayor Lester last night sugges

ed that Mr. Williston apologize for a statement made yesterday

at ceremonies marking the start of construction of the Pacific

Northern Railway at Summit

The minister's statement us

ment," the mayor said.

Credit MLA William H. Murray,

who telephoned Mr. Williston

Prince Rupert demand an im-

for your statement."

Rupert this morning.

attacked

mediate explanation or apology

The wire was sent out of Prince

This afternoon Mr. Murray was "In breaking of ground cerenony at Summit Lake yester-

Terrace women

while in Oregon

ASTORIA, Oro. M Two women

from Torrace, B.C., wore attack-

od and boaton today by two men

Ruth and Joan Griorson, both

The women were at Coffenbury labout 30, received cuts an

in receipt of a telegram from Mr.

Williston which read as follows:

Lake, 30 miles north of Prince

What is claimed to have been a joke by Lands and

VOL. L, No. 127

Telephone 6767

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1960

Night Calls—Business 6768, Editorial 6769

PRICE TEN CENTS

ruising Sea Scouts visit city

Prince Rupert was the most northern Canadian port of call yesterday for the 80-foot United States Sea Explorers ship Charles N. Curtis on her way to Skagway, Alaska.

The Curtis, which left Tacoma. Washington June 26, is manned by 35 Sea Scouts of Tacoma's number 110 Explorer group. The contingent is led by skipper J. three children, all from Edmon-cause they fear a CCF govern-In an interview in Prince M. Winn, on leave from active ton, walked away from their ment. duty aboard the U.S. submarine light plane after it had crashed "I thought Mr. Peterson had that the statement was a joke

Assisting Mr. Winn are ex- mountains. the University of Oregon who miles west of Calgary. serves as executive officer of the Blue Dragon group in Eugene. The Sea Scout group will spend a total of 25 days on the current Columbia Court of Appeal will cruise to Alaska "shaking down" hand down its decision in the more than two years work spent Irene Rebrin case "as soon a rebuilding the vessel they are possible."

manning. This was Chief Justice A. C. All modifications to the ship, DesBrisay's only reply Wednesincluding the installation of her day when the 33-year-old deportwo big diesel engines was done tee's lawyer asked the three by the Scouts themselves with judges if they could given any inand more experienced persons. might be delivered.

In carrying out all maintenance afloat, the boys are learning the ways of the sea while Woodworkers of America.

Last night the ship's officers were entertained at the home of G. P. Woodside, one-time executive officer of the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets, the Canadian counterpart of the Sea Scouts movement. When the ship left this morning for Ketchikan, the Daily News was told that the group Juneau, where they will

Flagmen posted on some parts of Highway 16

Motorists planning trips to Terrace, Smithers or Prince George during the Dominion Day holiday weekend are asked to watch for flagmen where signs are posted on certain sections of Highway 16, Department of Highway Travelling Unit and Mr. Furnesa. spokesman said today, ert to "the summit" is rethe section from the summit ing of the Institution. to Type although grading is in progress there.

Tyce to Terrace is "fair to good" with patching in progress and there are some rough sections between Kwin-itsa and Tyce. The spokesmun said that tors of the International Broth- ness of the charge, which River are extremely high they Paper Mill Workers (OLO) and court. 'Ahouldn't intorfore with [representatives of 10 pulp and]

DRUGS LTD.

SEA SCOUTS of Tacoma, Washington's No. 110 Explorer Group, are shown lining deck of 80-foot United States Sea Explorers ship Charles N. Curtis as she pulled into Prince Rupert harbor last night. Ship which stayed overnight here, proceeded t Skagway, Alaska this morning. —Staff photo by G. P. Woodside.

B.C. ROUNDUP

Six escape injury when plane crashes newspaperman Rex Kelley, skip- RCMP here said C. G. Hoult, an cheap political advantage at per of Warrior group of Tacoma, experienced pilot, was lost and election time," he said in a tele-context in which I spoke," the day Roderick Barnes, a Eugene, low on gas Tuesday when he phone interview. Oregon policeman, skipper of the crash landed his plane near He said inevstment has been Blue Dragon group of Eugene Boat. Encampment, 90 miles down throughout North America News last night that Mr. Willis- ter jocular remarks concerning VANCOUVER ()— The British in Vancouver Tuesday night.

Leader shocked

NANAIMO (P)—CCF Opposition building their character through Leader Robert Strachan said the Sea Scout program. The Wednesday he was shocked and group is sponsored by Tacoma disappointed at a speech by Edulocal 23-9 of the AF of L, CIO cation Minister Peterson which said investors are frightened gains degree in firefighting

A city fireman has joined the expects to spend July 4th in select ranks of the British Cobe lumbia branch of the London, inspected by Mrs. William A. England Institution of Fire En-Egan, wife of the Governor of gineers, it has been learned here. Alaska. A one-day visit in Prince J.S. Furness, longtime member Rupert is planned on the return of the Prince Rupert Fire Department has been notified that cessfully for a degree in the Brit- Packers.

of the Kitimat Fire Department, crica.

couver candidates passed. The B.C. branch of the Insti- Fisheries. tution of Fire Engineers has a membership of five including the | Deputy-Fire Marshal in Vancoumembers of the Fire Marshal's

Mr. Furness will receive his The road from Prince Rup- | degree in Vancouver August 22 If Olty Council grants his request ported in good condition as is to attend the third annual meet-

Pulpworkers tavor contract

paper mills on the British Coboiling room and land dimble const line boom ratified by the membership of all coast

| slightly more than 2,700 union an exhausted man plunged 80 10 miles from here, when the sisting of more than 100 march- coming speeches will be given L. A. Harrington and George mombors on the coast who voted foot to his death when a thin two men assaulted them with ers will start from in front of by Mrs. William McChesney Jr., Howe Sr. will be masters of cerecont voted to accept the agree- verdict of accidental death with The men fled in a car, and First Avenue West and procede OORP, Robert Anderson, exalted ment and referee the wrestling ment for a 4 per cent general no blame attached in the June 7 police set readblocks and began up to Roosevelt Park, in a swamp to avoid nearby more integrity than to tell such and should not be taken as a deliberate false hoods even for policy statement: minister said.

and Gifford Powell, a senior at northwest of this community, 120 for the last year. "It's not be- ton's remarks constituted "an development in raw northern

Wants land

| Minister Hees has informed infers that we should give up our out in Prince-Rupert think th Kamloops city council his de- right to participate in the affairs whole project is maybe a little partment must have control of of our province. bit fishy, maybe you should leave without due care and attention. The weather outlook appears all land before agreeing to take only a guiding hand from older dication when the judgment the government for a nominal thern Railway."

> halibut was landed in Prince Rupert by four vessels today. Three last night to find out if he had of the boats sold 102,000 pounds been quoted correctly. on the exchange while the remaining vessel delivered 15,000 last night that since the remarks meaning from them. If someone pounds to the Prince Rupert made at the PNR ceremony were in responsibility for the project i | Fishermen's Co-operative Asso-| tape-recorded he was going to | made them seriously there would medium, 3,000 large and 2,000 chix to the Co-op.

Selling on the exchange were: Combat — 52,000 — 30,000 me dium at 14.8 cents; 22,000 large he has passed examinations suc- at 16.7 cents to British Columbia was the only candidate who Joy - Charlene-40,000-14,000 people of Prince Rupert. Be as-Railway appear to show cause aboard.

stern Warning

A city motorist. James Ewing Skinner of 814 Borden Stree was given a storn warning by Magistrate E. T. Applewhaite in police court this morning, after pleading guilty to driving a vehicle while his licence was under suspension.

Jury rocommends

GOLDEN (P)—Three adults and away from British Columbia be- ess.'

George today, Mr. Williston said cause we're having a provincial insult to the people of Prince constituencies and need to move

Mr. Peterson made his speech boats land 117,000 lbs. halibut

The Oona A delivered 10,000 today. wired Mr. Williston saying:

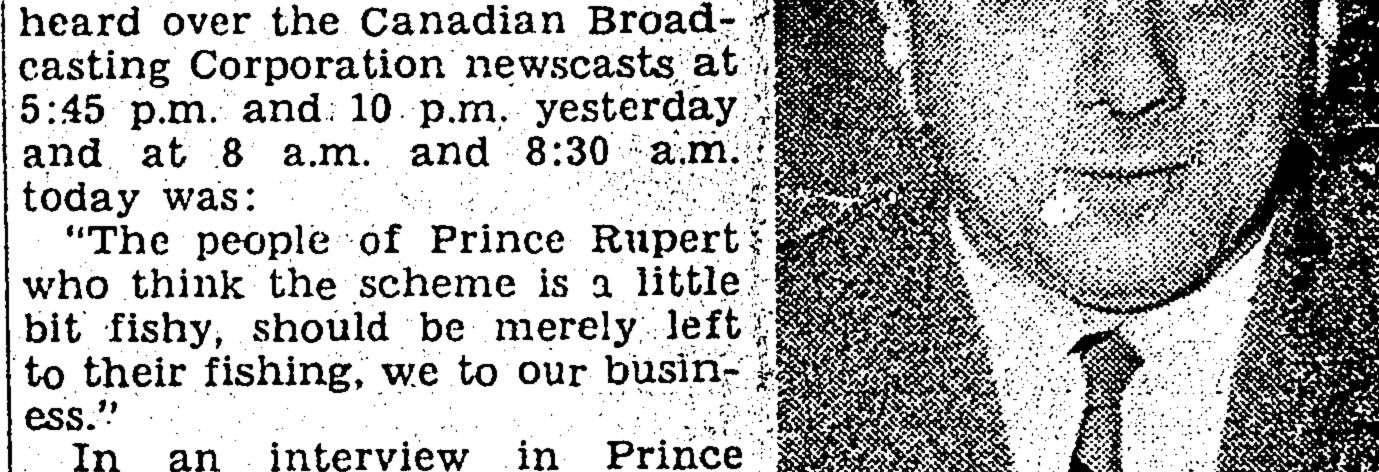

ish institute. Mr. Furness, who Helen II-20,000-14,000 mewrote the examinations in Feb-|dium at 14; 3,000 large at 15.3 runry along with four members and 3,000 chix at 9 to Booth Fish-> and 4,000 chix at 9 to Babcock the right to be heard on the question on the PNR route. We in RACES AT ROOSEVELT PARK

Boforo fining Skinner $25, or in default of payment sentencing The wage settlement reached him to 14 days in jail, Magistrate June 20 in Vancouver by negotia- Applowhaite stressed the seriousalthough tides on the Skeena orhood of Pulp, Sulphite and said amounts to contempt of LAKE COWICHAN (P)-A cor-| bruises about their heads oner's jury Wednesday night were taken to an Asteria hospirecommended modifications be tal. Their conditions were unpulpworkers union said here to-| made to heisting equipment on determined.

The jury heard evidence that Lake in Ft. Stevens State Park, death of Claude James Greed, 23. a search by plane.

MAYOR P. J. LESTER

. . . demands apology "The mayor did not realize the allinformal marks were recorded on tape. Mayor Lester told The Daily reviewed these this morning. Afcapital to central interior, I congratulated Mr. Gore (Bernard "We are very proud of our port Gore, Wenner-Gren representaand of our fishing fleet but we tive) on proceeding with his proconsider the minister's state-lect on schedule and then said:

be happy'." He said the remarks were al! Mr. Williston went on to say car at 2:30 a.m. today. the people of Prince Rupert, I for actual start was end of sec- charge of driving contrary gize for his uncalled-for state- met its obligation. What hap- licence. pens in future will depend on Also disturbed was Social legal considerations over which I have neither knowledge nor "Certainly no affront was intended arid no one who heard Mr. Williston told Mr. Murray the jocular remarks took such a have them played back to him be cause for concern.

censed over your reported state- have experienced and would em- today. fishing, we to our business.' Such northern development."

| 342 of the Benevolent and Pro- |

weather be inclement the pro-

morrow's events: 🙃

MLA WILLIAM H. MURRAY .. won't tolerate affront.

WEATHER OUTLOOK IDEAL

ioke about Prince Rupert

Fifty traffic deaths Forecast for holiday

By The Canadian Press

Outdoor relaxation is expected to be the keynote 080-square-mile constituency, 29 Friday with forecast of warm, sunny weather for of 31 polls, showed Guy with 847 most of Canada on the Dominion Day holiday.

Careless driver tined

Murdo William MacKenzie of 1237 Eleventh Avenue East was Council predicts 50 traffic deaths fact that once again there was a fined $50 and costs or in de- and more than 1,000 injuries dur- four-party fight which entailed fault of payment sentenced to ing the three-day holiday. An split votes." 30 days in jail after he pleaded average of 48 traffic deaths were Premier T. C. Douglas, head of KAMLOOPS: (1) - Transport | ment in very poor taste since he recorded in each of the last five the CCE, government, said he Applewhaite in police court this three-day holiday's marking Do- was naturally disappointed with morning to a charge of driving minlon Day.

over airport operation. He has are just as much part of B.C. as get on with your construction was charged after his car least through Saturday. requested the city sell the land to the directors of the Pacific Nor- business and then everyone will swerved off the road on Eleventh Avenue East and struck a parked ture lobster parties and trotting were made by a minister of the agreement which was filed in Pavich of 580 Taylor Street was past. In a ceremony in Quebec candidate. legislature it was agreed new fined $10 or in default five days City, Raymond de Champlain "Judging from the reaction of rail line would join PGE. Date after he pleaded guilty to a suggest that Mr. Williston apolo-ond quarter, 1960. The company the restrictions on his driver's ment to his ancestor, Samuel de

Fisherman tound dead south of here

Body of a 45-year old fisher man was found early this morn "In this case I am only the ing floating in the waters of At the same time Mr. Murray MLA not the minister of rail- Wright Sound, near Cumming ways. I apologize to you person- Points, about 85 miles south of dian cities, plans a rousing flag- after the death of her husband, "People of Prince Rupert in-ally for any difficulty which you here, RCMP subdivision reported ment 'The people of Prince phasize the record speaks for it- Dead is John Mettel, whom po- foot birthday cake which will be Dickens was also a 25-year Rupert should be left to their self concerning my interest in lice said, is believed to be from | Prince Rupert. statement indicates an utter. The remarks of Mr. Williston. Police said they found the province. I have no intention of a declaration in Supreme Court in the sound with her motor still stampede at Carlboo and the anlolerating such an affront to the July 6 that the Pacific Northern on, the nots out and no one nual Simon Fraser day north- had celebrated their 60th wedpassed. Only two out of five Van- | medium at 14; 21,000 large at 14; sured that I have and will con- | Foul play is not suspected, po- | brating the province's fur-tradtinue to insist that this city has struction should not be issued. lice said.

arrangements for a full schedule was found to be too muddy after

has been completed by Lodge PARADE ROUTE of Dominion Day entertainment the heavy rain.

the Elizabeth Apartments on associated royal

Children's sports, parade, wrestling

lined up by Elks, OORP for tomorrow

After minor delays, changes of designated as the site for the At 11:30 prizes will be presensites and a few disappointments, celebrations, since Algema Park ted for winning floats.

posed parado and races might Prince Rupert Civic Band, fol- action at the Civic Centre.

lowed by about 10 floats and

Following is a schedule of to- members of the Pony League a dance with a six-piece orchestootive Order of Elka and the First Avenue West, along Sixth play selections, time today and Arthur Murray, Third Avenue to Fulton Street; Olymont Park.

At 10:30 n.m. a parado con- | Onco at Roosevelt Park, wel- Civic Centre.

Roosevelt Park has now been J. Lester on behalf of the city. on Page 6).

But one group of uniformed In the June 8 voting the CCF, Canadians will not be taking a in power since 1944, was return-of holiday weekends. The Canadian Highway Safety ing "particularly in view of the

"The people of Prince Rupert them to their fishing while you | RCMP said that MacKenzie ideal and is expected to last at Maritimes festivities will feathe more amazing since they in his telegram that "In 1956 Also in police court, William Quebec will pay tribute to its will place a wreath at a monu-Champlain, who founded the Sports events will highlight Ontario's merrymaking. A number of military celebrations will dominate at Ottawa.

INDIANS ENFRANCHISED

This Dominion Day will have special significance for 60,000 Indians, who, by amendment to the federal Indian Act, get the voting franchise July 1.

Winnipeg, unlike other Cana-lens, 82 died only two weeks bedecked 93rd birthday party for Albert Edward Dickers. Canada, including a six-by-five- Born in London, England; Mrs. cut at the Red River exhibition. | member of the Ladies Auxiliary disregard for our rights to have followed issuance of a writ by body after a report that Mettel's day with an annual giant lamb and had received her quartera voice in the affairs of this the City of Prince Rupert for boat, the Sea Star. was circling barbecue on a coastal Island, a century pin. west brigade cance race, cele- | ding anniversary in 1958. ing history.

allotted. During the races and wrostling pards over staged in

Following the wrestling show tra will take place also at the Leading the parado will be the Prince Ryport will swing into seat won by Liberals

REGINA (CP)-A Liberal victory in Athabasca, a gain from the CCF, has boosted the Opposition in the Saskatchewan legislature to 17.

Allan R. Guy, a school teacher at La Ronge, won Athabasca Wednesday in an election deferred from the June 8 provincial general election.

Mr. Guy won the big, Far-North constituency in a battle against three other candidates— Allan K. Quandt, CCF, Henry J. Houghton, Progressive Conservative, and Dana S. Spence, Social holiday. Police are bracing them- ed, winning 38 seats. The Liberselves for traffic snarls and ac- als won 16 then. cidents that inevitably accom- Ross Thatcher, provincial Libpany the leisure-seeking pursuits eral party leader, said his party's victory in Athabasca was pleas-

The latest count from the 84,votes, Quandt, 674, Houghton, 527; and Spence, 368.

The constituency is one that changes hands every election, he

"Looks like this time it wasn't The premier added his congratlulations to the successful Liberal

two weeks atter husband

The second member of a wellknown Prince Rupert family and a resident here 37 years died yesterday in her home at 444 Sherbrooke Street.

Mrs. Elvina Emma Emily Dick-

British Columbia will mark the to Canadian Legion Branch 27,

Mrs. Dickens and her husband She is survived by three sons. Albert, Sydney and Henry and four daughters, Mrs. William (Emily) Rothwell, Mrs. Edward (Rose) Morrow, Mrs. Mae Bond and Mrs. Percy (Edna) Bond, all of Prince Rupert; 30 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren and three great - great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be hold 2:30 p.m. Friday from Ferguson Funeral Home with Rev. D. R. Chassels of St. Peter's Anglican church officiating. Interment A variety of children's and will be at Fairview cometery. adult's races will be staged with |- more than $200 in prizes to be] Prince Rupert has The parade will proceed from other events the Civic Band will now gone 533 days Street to Second Avenue, along At 3 p.m. there will be novelty without a fatal traffic However, there was still the Second Avenue to Second Street, swimming and a log rolling accident.

man said that should the Roosevelt Park. Elks Flag Day publicity chair- up Fulton Street and then to At 8 p.m. one of the biggest WEATHER wrostling and an army stated in Cloudy Friday. Little change in temperature, Light winds. Low tonight and high tomorrow 48 and 58.

(Pacific Standard Time)

計劃。以繼續的問題

rulor of the Elks and Mayor P. and boxing matches, (See story