"Once-a-week"

*Lye should never be dissolved in hot water

It clears Drains, too

Use full strength Gillett's Lye once each week to keep your closet-bowl clean and free-running. Use it, too, in your sink drains and they will never clog with grease or waste accumulations.

Gillett's Lye dissolved in cold* water is also an ideal, safe solution for every-day cleaning purposes. Our new free booklet describes the many uses for this handy household cleaner. Send for it.

EASTERN PROVINCE HAS GEORGE STEWARD HENRY FOR ITS NEW PREMIER

On the return of the Conservatives under Mr. Ferguson in 1923 Mr. Henry became minister of public works and highways. Only a few months ago in the reorganization of the cabinet the department of public works was turned over to a new minister but Mr. Henry carried on both portfolios up to that time. During the absence of Mr. Ferguson from Ontario Mr. Henry usually became acting premier.

Under Mr. Henry's regime Ontario's mileage of paved roads has greatly increased. The first important road improvements were made before he took office but it remained for him to map out the greater part of the network of highways which now covers the province, and carry out the building program.

While not a showy speaker Mr. Henry has a simple matter-of-fact style which carried conviction to his audiences. Invariably courteous, he seldom figures in the sharp exchanges which sometimes take place in the legislature.

Prominent Shriner

Mr. Henry is married and has three children. His wife Anna Ketha Pickett was the daughter of Rev. T. W. Pickett and a niece of Laura Secord, famous heroine of the War of 1812. Mr. Henry is an Orangeman, a Mason and a member of the United Church of Canada.

He was the central local figure in the big convention of the Ancient Order of the Mystic Shrine held in Toronto during the past summer. As head of the reception committee Mr. Henry took an active part in the making ararngements for the convention and welcomed the delegates on behalf of the province and the local shriners.

For failing to give the proper signal when changing their course on the streets with their automobiles, G. Mitchell and M. Valentin were each fined $5 in city police court this morning under the Motorvehicle Act.

Coastwise steamship & Barge Co.'s freighter Griffco was in port for an hour or so yesterday afternoon while waiting to pick up a scow which had been undergoing repairs at the local drydock and which she took to Anyox.

John McKechnie, who has been superintending the construction of the new government liquor vendor's building here for the contractors, E. H. Shockley & Co., sailed by the Catala this afternoon on his return to his home in Vancouver, the job being now complete.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. A. E. Dickson, returned to port at 12 noon today from Anyox, Stewart and other northern points and will sail at 3.30 this afternoon for Vancouver via Ocean Falls and other points. The vessel is waiting over this afternoon to connect with the passenger train from the East.
