Pimples On Face Thought Everyone Was Looking At Her

Miss F. Foster, Nanaimo, B.C., writes:—"I used to suffer, something awful, with pimples on my face, and never felt as if I wanted to go out as I thought everyone was looking at me. "A friend advised me to use so I got a bottle and it worked wonders, and after using the second one to look at my face one would never think I ever had a pimple."

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital was held last evening in the hospital. Those present were: J. H. Thompson, president; Robert Gordon, Ald. W. M. Brown, Frank Dibb, R. E. Benson, D. J. P. Cade, Ald. S. D. Macdonald and G. V. Wilkinson, directors; H. W. Birch managing secretary, and Miss Jean Harrison, R.N., lady superintendent.

A letter from M. M. Lamb, president of the Canadian Legion, read at last night's hospital board meeting, stated that the organization was desirous of being informed when returned soldier patients were admitted to the hospital so that comforts and other attentions might be given them. H. W. Birch, managing-secretary, stated that the practice already was to advise the Legion when returned men came in but these men did not always state they were such. The nurses will be asked, in future, to ascertain, on admission of patients, whether or not they are returned men.

Gustav Holmesland, who has been in the employ of the Power Corporation Co. of Canada, left on today's train for Montreal where, on May 30, he will embark aboard the steamer Athenia for his home in Norway where he has been called on account of the illness of his wife.

Mrs. K. Hallberg and daughter, Miss Margit Hallberg, left on today's train for New York where on May 30 they will sail aboard the steamer Gripsholm for a visit to their native home in Stockholm, Sweden. They will be joined at Smithers by Mrs. Hulda Fulsebakka and infant daughter who will visit in Finland.

A long standing dispute between the local hospital and the drug supply firm of Ingram & Bell over the payment of a sum for customs duty on a piece of sterilizer equipment which the firm originally advised the hospital would be duty free was closed at last night's board meeting with the reading of a letter from the company advising that the amount in dispute had been credited to the hospital.

Ald. W. M. Brown, chairman of the House committee, reported at last night's hospital board meeting that an order had been given to G. M. Hunt for solid seat kitchen chairs at $1.25 a piece. This was the lowest tender complying with the solid seat requirement. Carpenter work in connection with new shelving, cupboards and floors had been completed and some necessary repairs had been made to the elevator, Ald Brown reported.

Miss Jean Harrison, R.N., lady superintendent, in her report for the month at last night's hospital board meeting, referred to the loss the staff had sustained in the recent departure for Pouce Coupe of Miss Phyllis Mooney, R.N., who for several years had given valuable and efficient service as operating room supervisor and stated that a Miss Rogers from Vancouver had been engaged to succeed her on June 1, Mrs. Lawrie Lambly relieving in the meantime. Miss Harrison also reported that a new cook and orderly were giving excellent service. Graduation exercises and Registered Nurses' examinations had been important events of the past month, the lady superintendent reported.

Eric J. Erickson, tie supervisor for the Hanson Timber & Lumber Co. at Sheraton, left on today's train for New York where he will embark on May 30 aboard the steamer Gripsholm for a visit to his native home in Stockholm, Sweden.

The annual Empire Day demonstration for school children is being held this afternoon in the Capitol Theatre by the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, the children marching to the theatre about 1.30. Appropriate addresses are being given and the program includes suitable pageants and exhibitions put in individually by the various schools.

Presenting the report of the finance committee in the absence of G. P. Tinker, Frank Dibb announced at last night's meeting of the hospital board that collections for the month of April had amounted to $5,207.25 and disbursements, $5,129.35, leaving a surplus on the month's operations of $77.86. There had been a total of 1844 hospital days at a daily cost of $2.78.

TEA SUCCESS

The tea and sale of home cooking held yesterday afternoon by the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association in Rupert East United Church was a very successful affair, over $50 being realized. In the raffle of a table cloth, donated by Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Dalzell was the winner while Mrs. George Bird won a cake donated by Mrs. Joseph Howe.
