PRESIDENT IS BURIED

Impressive National Funeral Given Paul Doumer With Foreign Dignatories Joining in Tribute

PARIS, May 17:—With tributes of national respect and mourning, France buried her martyred president, Paul Doumer, following his murder by a mad Russian assassin. At 8 a.m. the procession started to Notre Dame Cathedral where the obsequies were held. The procession was led by hundreds of horse guards and veterans. Relatives of the dead president followed immediately behind the hearse and were followed by Albert LeBrun, the new president, who marched alone. The Prince of Wales, the King of Belgium and other dignatories followed. Hundreds of thousands of sorrowing French people lined the streets.

The ceremonies at Notre Dame were very impressive. The eulogy was delivered by Premier Andre Tardieu. The remains were laid at rest in the family vault in a Paris cemetery.

It was one of the most impressive national funerals in the history of the republic.

A NEW SUIT FOR TILLIE

THE next time Tillie goes shopping she no doubt will wear this smart suit of stylish black. If you'd like to see her in a more colorful suit, make tracings of the cutout and color them to suit yourself—but be sure you keep the colors in the latest fashion, for Tillie always dresses up to the minute in her doings in the comics.
