GUILTY, TOO

The young husband had sneaked in noiselessly some time during the wee hours and believed he had slipped into bed undetected, but an unpeasant air of constraint hung over the breakfast table. At last the wife broke the silence.

"You didn't get home till three o'clock this morning," she accused.

"H-how do you know?" he stammered.

"Because when I came in your hat was still warm."

Phyllida—Fashions may come and fashions may go, but there's always a demand for cosmetics.

Barbara—Yes. Women can't go wan for ever."

The first thing some people want when they get a little money is a car; then the first thing they want when they get a car is a little money.

YOUR NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

Numerous and varied are the resolutions made at the beginning of every year. Ninety per cent of such resolutions made are in connection with one's own savings and budgeting income.

Strange to say that while such resolutions are made in the best of intentions they are seldom carried out to a finish.

WHERE IS THE WEAKEST CHAIN? The answer is that these resolutions have no incentive to saving.

LIFE INSURANCE HAS THAT INCENTIVE. THE ORDINARY PERSON WILL LAY ASIDE THE MONEY NECESSARY TO MEET INSURANCE PREMIUMS WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE BE EXPENDED FOR MUCH LESS IMPORTANT OBJECTS.

75% of all insurance policies are carried through to a finish.

SUN LIFE POLICIES ARE DOUBLY ATTRACTIVE. THE LIBERAL PROVISIONS, PRIVILEGES AND PROFITS PAID TO POLICYHOLDERS MAKE THE SUN LIFE POLICY BEYOND REPROACH.

Let your 1930 resolution be
