

BULGARIANS BREAK LAST DEFENCE OF TURKS

ROWING CLUB CONCERT LAST NIGHT WAS GREAT SUCCESS AND ATTRACTED BIG CROWD

TURKS DEFEATED AT LAST LINE

The Bulgars Are Victorious Over Turks at Last Line of Defense in Front of Constantinople---Terrible Suffering

(Special to Daily News.)
London, Nov. 11.—The last great battle of the Balkan war is being fought, it is believed, and reports from Constantinople would indicate that the Bulgarians have won it.
A desperate resistance is being offered by the Turks and streams of dead and dying are being brought into the city. The last line of defense is being slowly crushed and the victors have Constantinople at their mercy, if the rumors are true, and it is confidently believed here that they are.

Paris, Nov. 11.—That the Turkish army is on the verge of starvation is vouched for by a correspondent for the Temps who is at the front. He declares that the soldiers are dying of lack of food and that they drop at the wayside on their retreat, unable to keep up with the forced marches.
The scenes on the retreat are described as awful, the wounded and dead bodies of the mangled soldiers form a trail in the wake of the retreating army.

AUSTRIA AND SERVA ARE ON MORE FRIENDLY TERMS

DANGER OF EUROPEAN CONFLAGRATION IS DIMINISHING—AUSTRIA JOINS NOTE OF POWERS TO BALKAN STATES FOR PEACE.

(Special to Daily News.)
Paris, Nov. 11.—The danger of a European entanglement over Serbia's attitude on the Adriatic question seems remote tonight owing to the action of Austria in agreeing to act in conjunction with the other powers in presenting a joint note to the Balkan states on behalf of Turkey asking them to submit the terms of peace.
Bulgaria will use her influence with her allies in trying to have the Adriatic question peacefully settled.

TELEPHONE GIRL EPISODE AGAIN BEFORE ALDERMEN

THE HIRING OF MISS DUNN AGAIN COMES BEFORE THE BOARD AT INSTIGATION OF ALD. BULLOCK-WEBSTER—ALD. MORRISSEY AND THE LADIES.

Only a few spectators braved the rain and wind last night to attend the meeting of the City Council, and they mostly left early, disappointed with the entertainment. The counter attractions kept many of the regular attendants away, and with the usual well filled gallery showing a line of vacant chairs the Councilors were not at their best, although Alderman Bullock-Webster nobly endeavored to revive the telephone girl question and a petition from some seventeen residents of Block 27, Section 6, asking that the Union Transfer Co. be prohibited from erecting a stable on their property in that section did make a little stir.

Any action would be at the suggestion of the head of the department.
Ald. Morrissey again took the opportunity of lauding the personal charm and appearance of the young lady, saying that in the matter of looks, carriage and deportment she had appeared all that was desirable to him and he could understand every word she said with perfect ease.

Ald. Douglas appeared to be suffering from a touch of jealousy on hearing of Ald. Morrissey's acquaintance with the young ladies of the city, as that gentleman had again referred to his large knowledge of the sex, and scoffed at his colleague, but the champion of the fair ones had his say and sat down amid the smiles of the other knights of the council table and the applause of the gallery.

Seventeen residents of section six, including Ald. Dybhavn petitioned the council to refuse the owners of lots 9 and 10, block 27 the right to erect a stable on their lots as it was a discomfort and inconvenience to the neighborhood.

The petition brought forward a storm of argument, Alderman Morrissey and Bullock-Webster taking the stand that it was unfair to the property owners in the event of their building a stable in compliance with the bylaw.
After some twenty minutes had been consumed in discussing the location, sanitation and

PIERROTS GAVE EXCELLENT SHOW TO CROWDED HOUSE LAST NIGHT

General Approval of the Entertainment Given Last Night at the Westholme by the Rowing Club---Songs, Dances and Topical Allusions all Excellent.

More than fulfilling the most sanguine expectations of their warmest admirers, the Pierrots and Pierrettes covered themselves with glory in their second concert, given in aid of the Prince Rupert Rowing Club at the Westholme Opera House last evening. A crowded and most appreciative audience filled the pretty little theatre, which had been specially decorated for the occasion with the colors and emblems of the club. Never before had the excellent orchestra, under Mr. George Werner's capable leadership, been heard to greater advantage or had more scope for their talents. From the moment the curtain went up disclosing the charming tableau of the troupe of Pierrots peeking through the heavy red screen at the back of the stage to the strains of Canada's national song, "The Maple Leaf Forever," to the fall of the curtain and "God Save the King," there was not a dull moment. It is safe to say that no city, no matter what its size or the number of its population, could produce an amateur musical show better, in fact, it would tax the ability of a host of professionals.

The outstanding feature of this really excellent production was the evident amount of ability and work that was shown in the training and rehearsing of the company. There was not a hitch other aspects of the buildings, the matter was laid on the table to come up again after having been looked into by the sanitary and building inspectors.

STOCK COMPANY TO APPEAR IN WESTHOLME OPERA HOUSE

GRIFFITH STOCK COMPANY TO OPEN WITH "THE LION AND THE MOUSE" AT WESTHOLME NEXT WEEK—STRONG COMPANY—EXCELLENT SCENERY BEING PAINTED.

Quietly and without any flare of trumpets, a dapper little man of decidedly theatrical appearance stepped off the G. T. P. steamer Prince Rupert last Wednesday. Yesterday afternoon a reporter of The Daily News, chancing to drop into the Westholme Opera House, found the aforementioned gentleman busily engaged at work painting entirely new sets of special scenery for the extraordinary engagement of the Griffith Stock Company, which will open in that theatre on Monday evening next in the famous 20th century play, "The Lion and the Mouse."

Mr. Simpkins, their scenic artist, is an expert in his line, and judging by the four or five sets already completed the management of the Westholme Opera House is to be congratulated upon the fact of having secured for their theatre this excellent artist as well as a company that promises to offer to Prince Rupert people a repertoire of such well known comedies and drams as the advance notices of the Griffith Stock Company advertise.

A treat is certainly in store for the patrons of this popular play house during the coming week. Particulars of the engagement will be published in tomorrow's issue of The News.

WILL TRY TO GET SMELTER TO COME TO PRINCE RUPERT

REPRESENTATIONS WILL BE MADE TO GRANBY COMPANY TO ENDEAVOR TO HAVE THEM PLACE THEIR SMELTING WORKS IN THIS CITY—CENTRALLY LOCATED.

An effort will be made to induce the Granby Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. to erect their proposed smelter at Prince Rupert.

Alderman Dybhavn brought the matter up in the council chamber last evening and proposed that the city get into communication with smelter people and place before them the advantages offered by Prince Rupert and, if necessary, make them some concessions in the way of taxation, water or power to come here.

Prince Rupert, according to the alderman, would be a better point for the establishment of a smelter than Goose Bay because the smelting of the inlet ores requires a large percentage of fluxing rock from the Hazelton district. This flux is more bulky than the smelting ore and consequently the cost of freightage it from Hazelton to Prince Rupert and reshipping it to Granby would be higher and more expensive than to bring the ore to Prince Rupert, where the flux could come in by train.

Prince Rupert, Alderman Dybhavn pointed out, was the centre of three mining districts: Stewart, Hazelton and Queen Charlotte Islands.

Several of the Council expressed their sentiments, which coincided with Alderman Dybhavn, Alderman Morrissey saying that nothing should be neglected which might be used as an inducement for the establishment of the smelter here.

The clerk was ordered to get in touch with the company and express the desire of the Council to have the smelter built here.

DRUNK AGAIN

Old Offender Cheerfully Admits Being Drunk—"I Am Full Now," He Said.

John H. Bell, who has been up in the police court four times for being drunk and disorderly, the last about a week ago, when he was interdicted by Chief Vickers, appeared again before Magistrate McMullin this morning upon a similar charge. He denied the allegation in regard to being disorderly, but cheerfully admitted being drunk, further stating for the enlightenment of the court that he was in that condition at that moment. His Worship adjourned the case until tomorrow. Chief Vickers is going to take a determined stand in the matter and endeavor to find out where the accused obtained his liquor.
