After ten months of suffering—after spending many dollars on other remedies—this woman gave Kruschen a trial. Now read what she says:—

"I am just writing a few words of praise in which the wonderful way your Kruschen Salts have helped me. May I say I have suffered with terrific backaches night and day for this last 10 months, and have spent many dollars on advertised remedies, without result, and decided a few weeks ago to give Kruschen Salts a trial, and I am thankful to say I am feeling better and better ever since I have taken them.

"I take Kruschen on rising in a cup of tea, and if only people knew they would not spend the money they do on other materials when they could derive such benefit from Kruschen Salts. Wishing your firm every success."

—(Mrs.) J. V. P.

Pretty Wedding at Essington Monday

Miss Sarah White of Port Simpson Became Bride of William Spaulding

PORT ESSINGTON, Jan. 10. — A pretty and unique wedding was solemnized in the United Church at Port Essington on January 6, when William Spaulding, son of David Spaulding, and Sarah Lavinia White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Solomon White of Port Simpson, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Pierce, pastor in charge of the United Church here.

The Brass Band turned out in full force and rendered lovely music for the occasion. The band boys marched directly behind the bride and groom towards the church. The bride was given away by William Brooks of Port Essington. Quite a large crowd gathered in the church to witness the ceremony.

After the wedding all present were invited to the Town Hall, where tables were laden with good things to eat. All enjoyed themselves immensely. After full justice had been done to the spread, speeches were delivered by some of the leading men here.

ALD. DIBB WITHDRAWS

Will Not be Able to Seek Re-election of Account of Ill Health, Labor Council Informed

At the Trades and Labor Council meeting last night, S. D. Maclonald presiding, it was announced that Alderman Frank Dibb would not be a candidate for re-election to the city council owing to ill health. It was left to the executive to make a choice of another candidate.

Alderman Rudderham spoke at some length in regard to his work in the council during the past year and it was left with the executive to act as election campaign committee.

The policing question came in for considerable discussion but no definite decision in regard to the stand of the council was arrived at.

Hospital affairs were talked over and some suggestions will be made to the hospital board.

The report of the banquet committee showed that the affair was a success, financially and otherwise.

Communications from the Minimum Wage Board and the Vancouver District Trades and Labor Council were filed.
