Honorary Patroness is Mrs. C. A. Hinchliffe, formerly of Terrace, now of Victoria, honorary president is Mrs. E. G. Munn of this city and honorary vice-president is Mrs. Lionel Holtby, also of this city.

The historical two-day sessions, which were held for the first time outside of the Caledonia city, began with the celebration of the Holy Communion with Celebrant the Right Rev. E. G. Munn, Bishop of Caledonia, assisted by Canon A. Atkinson of Dawson Creek and Rev. Wilfred Brown of Pouce Coupe.

The 55 delegates in attendance travelled from as far south as Ocean Falls, the Queen Charlotte Islands and as far north as Fort St. John.

One of the social highpoints of the exciting venture was the reception in the Windsor Hotel, hosted by Bishop and Mrs. Munn. Luncheons and tours of the surrounding countryside also filled the agenda.

As a memento of great esteem was the presentation made to Mrs. Hinchliffe by the WA, which included a purse of money and a set of Alaskan jewellery.

Delegates from the Prince Rupert district made the eventful journey by chartered bus, and were feted on route by various branches of women's auxiliaries.
